Terms, in advance, $1.00 per annum. BELLEFONTE, PA. FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 24, 1864.

Change of Terms.—After the 4th of July the subscription price of the WATCHMAN will be as follows: $2.00 when paid in advance, $2.50 when not paid within three months, and $3.00 when not paid before the expiration of the year.

The War.—The war news of the week is interesting in many respects. It shows conclusively, we said long since, that Grant in point of military skill, is not to be compared to Lee.

A Compliment to White Soldiers. (2) The colored troops fought with desperation and were the last to give way. After the ammunition had become exhausted it is stated that many of the negro troops had their rifles fixed to their backs and bayoneted their rifles.

What Does it Signify? Some time during the Revolutionary war a British officer was sent under flag of truce to the camp of Gen. Marion, which was some place in the Cypress swamps of South Carolina.

There is not a Democrat within the borders of our State but is rejoicing to know that the Hon. C. L. Vallandigham—without pay, almost without clothes, living on roots and drinking water, all for the sake of Liberty.

Hon. Gen. W. Woodworth, the noble standard bearer of the Democracy of this State during the last fall's campaign, is now prominently talked of as the nominee of the Chicago Convention.

The great "no party" party has got itself mixed up considerably of late in this latitude. We have now four separate and distinct kind of Abolitionists in this country.

If niggers make as good soldiers as the Abolition reporters would have us believe, why in the name of all that's good, don't the "government" quit drafting white men, and take all the blacks?

We publish on the outside of the WATCHMAN, to-day, the Lincoln platform of 1860, and the Lincoln platform of 1864, as a matter of reference.
