Resulting from fevers of any kind—These Bitters will renew your strength in a very short time. FEVER AND AGUE The chills will not return if these Bitters are, used. No person in a fever and ague District should be without them.

From the Bov. J. Newton Brown, D. D. Editor of the Breyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparations, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this more readily in regard to Hoofand's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcuholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq. for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long debility.—The use of these bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mantal vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them J. NEWTON BROWN,

Be. Radwat—Deer Str. about four years since I was very much affected with DigkArkD LUNGS. Friends thought I had the Coursusption. I was entirely unit for business, rissed blood, and had every sympt of the above fatal disease. One night, on going to bed, I blought I would take a sweat, and took your MERILIKY (in hot water) as a simulant to sweat me. It did so. The preparigation was of silmy substance, officially well. I followed taking the Ready Relief every other night for four weeks, and at the end of that it was entirely well. This is a true statement of facts, which I will cettly to under oath.

Yours, ko., James Hauff, Sago's Hotel, Memphis, Mich.
