The Abolition Convention which met in this place on Wednesday' afternoor last, mominated for State Senator, Edmund Blanchard, for Assembly Harry Foster, for Commissioner John F. Foster and for Auditer John Irvin Jr. There was a split in the recommendations for Congress and the Conferees were left uninstructed. The Hale and Armstrong factions are at "lager heads" again and we may expect to see a beautiful fight among the misegenationists, in regard to their candidate for Congress. All in all, their ticket is just as easy to beat, as any one they could have formed.

The deceased was a celebrit pin the community, and was noted for his fife voice community, and was noted for his fife voice community of was noted amunity, and was noted for his fine voice and beautful proportions. His courage led him to resist the progress of a passing vehicle; but alas ! his strength was not equal to the task. He was horribly mangled and almost immediately expired to the great grief of his little mist ress-Miss. Helen K. Leathers. . .
