Comrades' forms are lying near me. 🦫 Odld in death they're sleeping now, No fond mother bends above them, Pressing kisses on their brow. Oh how sadly did I hear them, Breathe the name of mother dear, lighing death is gladly welcome If dear mother were but here. CHORUS.—Farewell mother, &

Now the shades of night are falling, Oh, what anguish none can tell Dying forms with choking voices, eathe to all their last farewell. dness in the gentle sephyrs, As they through the branches sigh, Serrow in the sparkling waters, As they murmur sadly by. CHORUS .- Farewell mother.

Seon my voice shall cease forever, All my cares on earth be o'er, By this sparkling winding river, I shall sleep forever more. Comrades all around me mother Cold within the clasp of death, ould tell you how I blessed you, With my latest earthly breath CHORUS. - Farewell mother.

Tall the one whose love I cherish. Faithful friend of long ago, we we hoped might naver perish Death has surely broken now. Twinkling stars I'm watching mother, From this silent gory sod;
White-robed Angels linger near me; Soon to bear me home to God. -Farewell mother, up in heaven Where no toars are over shed. I am waiting for you mother

> Published by requst. A GOSPEL SERMON.

Presched at Ottumwa, lows, by Elder J. H. Flint-Addressed to all true Chris-

With a crown upon my head.

CONTINUED FROM LAST WEEK.

thing are yours, whether Paul or Appollos hes, or the world, or life, or death, or Cephes, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all yours, and ye are Christ's, and Christ is God's 1st Cor. 3d chapter, 22d, 23d verses. What more can God give or what more can a christian-desire? Aly soul overwhelmed in contemplating the gift, cries out "it is enough." What further enhances the value of this boundless inheritance is that our Heaventy Father controls it for is that our Heavenly Father controls it for is that our Heavenly Father controls it. for us, causing "all things to work together for good to them that love him, and are called according to his purpose." Rom., 6th ohapter, 28 verse. But the most glorious provision of all is, that all God's children are joint heirs with Christ. The estate is not parcelled to each heir, were that the case, then some might possibly squander theirs portion, and fail at last; but they are toint heirs hence their destiny is identical ioint heirs, hence their destiny is identica joint heirs, neace their destiny is "dentities with each other, and with Christ their elder brother, who has wrought out their redemption by obedience to the laws and precepts and by suffering its death penalty by vanquishing and destroying death, and him that had the power of death that is the De-

He brought light and immortality to light He left the tomb a victorious conquerer, as-cended to his Father, and our Father, to his God and our God; whom the heavens re-ceived, and crowned him-Lord of all, and whom the heavens must hold, until all the whom the heavens must hold, until all the blessed children of God, his younger breth ern, are gathered home to hear the welcome voice of their Judge and King saying "Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world." Where they shall bid and elemal farewell to all sorrow, pain and death; where envy, malice, pain and war death; where envy, malice, pain and war can never enter to mar their peace, or interrupt their joys, when in that blessed State of immortality, they shall bask in the smiles of their leavenly Father, drink endless draughts of his boundless love, and spend an eternity in feasting on the joys that are poured into their souls form God the fountain head of pace.

"Think Oh, my soul, if t'is so sweet,
On earth to sit at Jesus feet,
What must it be to wear a crown,
And sit with Jesus on the throne?"

Having this briefly alluded, to some the blessings that God confers upon the peacemakers, I now appeal to you, one and all, to answer before your God, and your own consciences the all important question: Are not those blessings worth laboring for? Are they not sufficient stimulant, and incentive to prompt you to engage in this self sacrificing labor of love; for all those bless are not your willing to hear and page. ders of wicked and blood thirsty men; are you better than the blessed Savior who suf-fered abuse and slander and cruel torture They said if he be sufered to go on, and the Romans will come and take away our place and nation. "He casts out devils through Beelsebub the Prince of devils.—The rulers and men in authority pursued him with a fiend-like seal, until they inflict." him with a fend-like seal, until they inflicted upon him unjustly a traitor's doom, they crucified him upon a Roman eross; yet Paul affirms, "That for the glory that was sat upon him, he endured the cross, despised the shame, and he is set down-off the right hand of God." Heb. 12th chapter 2d verse. "Did my Lord suffer, and shall I repine." I wanaware that many have and will falsely accuse me for treason; pronounce me a traitor for no cause under the heavens, only that I labor and plead for peace.

I have to say to all such, that if from laboring to cultivate love, union, and peace, among men, and pointing out the evils and calamities of war—if pointing out true Christianity. laboring to proclaim the gospel of peace and warning men to shun the God dishonoring, and earth polluting, anti-

Christianity. laboring to proclaim the gospel of peace and warning men to shun the God dishonoring, and earth polluting, anti-Ohristian religion, that has so long, and still continues to cause the world; (and certainly it is for nothing else,) you choose to heap upon me these vile reproaches, than I say to you, pour on your abuse and slander; I will bear it with all the patience that God gives me; and while the Almighty lets me live, I hope to prayfor you, and labor for peace. David the sweet singer of laracl said: "Let my right hand forget her cunning, and my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth, rather than I should cease to pray for the peace of Jerusslem. I desire to emulate his example, and cease not mulate his example, and cease no sire to emulate his example, and cease not to labor and pray for the peace of the coun-

appeal to you, ladies, though physically

The Aemocratic Atachman.

"STATE RIGHTS AND FEDERAL UNION."

Vol. 9.

BÉLLEFONTE, PA., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1864;

the weaker vessels, yet in point of intellect and moral virtue far superior to man. The formation of woman was the last and finishing stroke of creation; upon her the Creation of the control of the first virtues and any control of the control of t to has bestowed those finer virtues and angelic charms that have so nobly fitted her to be the helplmate and companion of man. Upon her the confiding husband bestows his entire love and affection, to the wife of the control of the his bosom he gives his whole heart with out reserve, over which she can and does exercise an almost unlimited control. By her indescribable graces, she softens down and controls his angry passions, and gently leads him in the noble paths of virtue. Say death nim in the none patter of virtue. Lay not that this is a fancy sketch, or an over drawn eulogy upon the female character.—All history, leacred and profane, demonstrate that it is under rather then overdrawn. The Great Creater has given to a woman a mighty power, that can by her be excercised for weal or wee. It was by the facinating power of the women that man war first led into sin, and hurled from his war first led into sin, and hurled from his primeval rectitude. Paul affirms that he was not deceived, then he was not influenced in his act by any other agency or power than that of the woman. She controled the heart, and sealed his destiny. Sampson the Nazarite of God, with all his superior endowment, who had resisted and slain his thousands of men yielded to a woman's power and lost his glory and life thereby.—
It was a woman that conquered the mighty King Absquerus, who resigned over the vast King Ahasuerus, who reigned over the vast empire of one hundred and twenty-seven provinces, to wit: Queen Eather. When

"Then came Queen Eather in royal State, To save the Jews from the dismal fate.

The King could not resist the pleading nireation of the woman whom he loved, he entreating of the woman whom he loved, as yielded to he petition, and granted her request, and thus she saved a mighty nation from destruction. It was a womans influence that crowned Solomon fring over Isreal, and saved the nation from a usurper's power and civil war. These instances, to gether with thousands more of Bible record provinces, to wit: Queen Eather. When wicked Haman, the King's chief counsellor had procured from the King o decree that domed to death the whole Jawish nation

-a decree that according to the laws of the Medes and Persians could not be altar gether with thousands more of Bible repord, without going into profane history, establish the fact beyond a doubt that a woman's influence to a very great extent controls the destiny of man.

Then to you, first, I make my appeal to engage with all your energies in this holy and heavenly calling. Wives, you that have been led by a loved and loving husband to hymen's sacred altar, and there before God and man have mutually pledged your hearts and affections to such other for life; you whose lives can only be happy in the enjoyand affections to such other for life; you whose lives can only be happy in the enjoyment of the society of the man you love, to you I appeal, in the name and in behalf of the thousands of loving wives whose hearts have been made to weep tenes of bitter sor-row by the cruck and desolating hand of war; who have gazed for the last time upon the loved form of the man to whom she had confided her entire affections, to whom she confided her entire affections, to whom she had leoked foriprotection and support while breasting the storms of life in this uncharitable world, but alas! he is gone from her forever; he has fallen a victim to the demon of war, the celd steel has pierced his heart and shed his life blood, the sad tidings are waft to ears, her only liope of earthly happiness is blighted forever, and in many instances, she is thrown upon the cold charities of the world. Could you but enter those wretched hovels and mingle with the bereaved families, hear the opies of innocent children in tears begging for bread, and behold the heart broken mother, claspcent children in lears begging for bread, and behold the heart broken mother, clasping her babe's lovely form to her breast and with streaming eyes upturned to heaven exclaiming: "Great God, temper the storm to the shorn lamb, look irreganjassion down upon a poor bereaved and brokenhearted widowed mother! Oh! be my husband and helner for the section. hearted widowed mother: On the my his-band and helper, and a father to these fath-erless cirildren!" would you not turn from scence with sad and heavy hearts, and enter your closet and pray Almighty God to roll back these dark clouds of war, stay the effusion of blood and speedily restore peace to our distracted country? Then I entreat

ment and the search personal proposal to the search personal proposal personal perso that have almost become household words with many; remember such epithts are personal insults, and can do no good but are always productive of evil. "Angry words," says solomon, "stirreth up strife, but a soft word turneth away wrath." Guard well your language, and laber in love in the good cause of pence-making, though compelled to differ with your neighbor or brother in your political faith, he willing to accord to him the same that you claim for yourself, honthe same that you claim for yourself, hon-caty of opinion. Admit that mon may differ in opinion and yet be loyal and honest. In a word, seek to cultivate love and good will among men, and peace will bortainly folposes for which it was done, we print be-low, from a reliable correspondent at Wil-liamsport, Md., a report of the remarks mande in that town by Gen. Early upon that and other subjects. The occasion of the remarks is given by our correspondent. It seems that some days after the confingration of Chambershurg. (on Saturday, their houses and contents condemned to the tion of Chambersburg, (on Saturday, August 1996) Gen. Early, being then at Williamsport, in Washington county, Maryland, despatched a guard to Hagerstown, with the stream them upon the ground for us to with the stream them upon the ground for us to with the stream them upon the ground for us to with the stream them upon the ground for us to with the stream them upon the ground for us to with the stream them upon the ground for us to with the stream them upon the ground for us to with the stream them upon the ground for us to with the stream them.

Early.

land, despatched a guard to Hagerstown, with authority and orders to arrest six named citizens of that place. The guard arrested Isaac Nesbitt, A. H. Hager, Fredcrick McComas, Samuel Ogilby, Rev. Mr. Edwards, and Rev. Mr. Hyde. Mr. Ogilby had permission from the officer in charge to go to his chamber for his coat, on a promise to return. He forgot to come back, however, and in his absence of faind wan-Several gentlemen who had been reputed to skins drawn from the vats and cut into nar-be "Southern sympathisors," and who are, our correspondent says, cortainly not sun. to our distracted country? Then I entreat you to labor to caim the raging storm, cast oil-upon the troubled waters, strive in the spirit of love to break down that spirit of hatred and revenge that may be burning in the heart of your husband, that lies at the foundation and forms the basis of all war and bloodshed, and endeavor te prevail upon him to cultivate in its stead love and good will to man, this do and heaven will reward you.

Mothers, I appeal to you. You who have borne children in sorrow, and who love as none but mothers agant those gifts God has revenued the residence of the Administration, but as loyal to the Constitution and Union as any who are contents. Recently fley have burned the residence of the their and will its contents, requiring the family to stand by and witness the destruction of their head and bloodshed, and endeavor te prevail upon him to cultivate in its stead love and good will to man, this do and heaven will reward you.

Mothers, I appeal to you. You who have borne children in sorrow, and who love as you the prevent of the release of the prisoners. When the latter were brought before Gen.

amination satisfied me that to burn fless whose papers found upon him furnished con would striously endanger a large portion of vincing evidence that he was there under the town; and hance I spared them for a corrupt agreement with a Federal Provos the town; and hance I spared them for a corrupt agreement with a Federal Provost moderate ransom. On my return, I partly retraced my advancing track, and was greatly surprised to find so little evidence or trace of the passage of so large an army. In the passage of so large an army. In the federal army, the leavy bounded, except in horses and former for the The Government did not treat him as a spy.

the same that you chain for yoursely noncaty of opinion. Admit that mon may differ in opinion and yet be loyal and honest. In a word, seek to cultivate love and good will among men, and peace will certainly follow.

I am now done. I have labored to discharge faithfully and honestly a duty I owe to my God and the cause of Christianity. I pray you to weigh well the subject and the remarks I have to day presented. Bo shape your future action upon the issues now betore you, that you may have a conscience void of offence before God, to whom we must all render an account for the part we nave acted in this fearful drama, and may the God of Love and Peace be with you.

The Burning of Chambersburg—The Object of that Act as Stated by Coneral
Early.

Recently, in Maryland, the house of Gov.
Bradford was burned without my orders.

But I must-add that a preventive fill the nen sould have ardered it in retallistion for the burning of the house of man, and whose family were not all wed five minutes to remove clothing or chere whom the words were very determined to destroy the house of Mr. Francisington, some of my troubs were very determined to destroy the house of Mr. Francismined to destroy the house of mine to remove clothing or the house of my house of my house of Mr. Francismined to destroy the house of Mr. Francismined to different rule, for obutous reasons. As there have been contradictory statements in regaid to the authority by which thambershurg was burned, and the purthambershurg was burned, and the purthambershurg was done we will be the state of the state promise to return. He torgot to come back, however, and in his absence of faind wan-dered out through his back yard. Only five, therefore, of the prisoners were brought be-sand tannery in sight of Gon. Mead's headfore the General: Previously the Rev. Dr. Kerfoot and Mr. Cost, of the College of St. James, in Washington county, had been arrested under similar orders and paroled.

The state of the s

icism, infidelity, and crime, that is sapping the very foundation of our magnificent temple of liberty, pouring out the hear's blood of hundreds of thousands of the best and bravest of Columbia's, some upon here out in the steam of the best and bravest of Columbia's, some upon here out in the steam of the best and bravest of Columbia's, some upon here out in the fifth time I have been in Marthaut in the God of Henven has consecrated to freedem and a resting place to the oppressed of every olime.

Can you look upon the millions of your fellow restures whese hearfs are howed down under intolerable burdens of accumulations of the banks of the Busquehannab and the strict of the banks of the Busquehannab and the strict of the strict of the banks of the Busquehannab and the strict of the strict of the banks of the Busquehannab and the strict of the strict of the banks of the Busquehannab and the strict of the strict of fact, except in norses and large for the the therman distance as a post-army, very little damage had been sus-as i might have doed, but sent him to Rich-mond as a prisoner of war, and Dr. Boyd, was affected as a hostage. After a long and ladded imprisonment, the Confederate Gov-But I must-add that approved it; and had expendent, auxious to relieve so good a man, pain consented to an exchange; but its prisoner was by that time ill with typheid fever, and finally died in prison, which fever, and finally died in prison, which should, of course, have released Dr. Boyd. But he is still held on the pretex to being a hostage for some other. But he is still held on the pretex to being a hostage for some other. To effect his release, I have to-day arrested Dr. Kerfoot and Dr. Cost, at the college, but paroled them both on condition that they procure the release of Dr. Boyd, or, if they fail to do this within two weeks, that they return to my ouslody.

**Question by a Prisoner**, (Rov. Mr. Edwards)—Please, allow meto inquire whether there may not some difficulty arise from the fact that you have only five of us prisoners, and yet require the release of six? ors. and yet require the release of six?

Gen. Early—That is very true sir, but from hardly suppose the Government will raise such a question, seeing the only effect would be to compel me to pick up a few more, sufficient to equalize the numbers. The prisoners feelingly urged him to release them all, offering their parole in the strongest possible language. The General L hesitated a long while, and was slow to to yield. Finally, after a long discussion, and several personal friends of the prisoners had vouched for their good faith, they were all released on the same conditions as were prescribed on the release of Dr. Korfoot and Dr. Cost.

For the substantial accuracy of the repert of Gen. Early's remarks as given by our correspondent, he refers to all those who were present, including the prisoners themselves In private conversation, and on many oc casions in public, in the presence of citizens of all shades of opinion, Gen. Early Maryland and Pennsylvania, and that he _____The Atlanta papers say that Hood would pursue the war of retaliation as long captured, in the battle on the 22d, more intimated that he would frequently visit and as bitterly as circumstances might require.—Age.

lowing items in the tax bill:

two bundred dollars and the confiscation of property.

For dreaming disrespectfully of Lincoln ifty dollars.

For taking the name of any abelition office For taking the hands any anomalous meet holder in vain, twonty five dollars.
For speaking disrespectfully of private republicans, ten cents each.
For voting a Copperhead ticket, twonty five cents.

Every Democratic office holder taxed fifty cents a day. (Smithy included.)

Every man not drafted to be taxed ten dollars. (Abolitionists excepted.)

For every white male child born alive, ten centre.

No. 34.

THE QUERRILLAS. wake and to horse, my brathers!
For the dawn is glimnering grey, and hark! in the cracking brush good
There are feet that thead the way.

"Who cometh?" "A friend." "What tidings? "O 19 od! I sicken to toll; For the carth seeins out ho longer, And its sights are sights of hell!

From the far-off conquered cities Comes a voice of stiffled wail, And the shricks and means of the houseless Tve seen from the smoking village Our mothers and daughters fly;

Sank down in the furrows to die. On the banks of the battle-stained river

I stood as the moonlight shone, not it glaced on the face of my brother As the sail wave swept him on.

Where my home was glad are tashed And horrors and shum had been the for I found on the foreign lines. This trees of my wife a torn hair.

"They are turning the slaves upon us, And with most than the flend's worst art Have uncounted the fire of the savage of That mept up his untaught heart!

They have rent with carses away, And maddened him, with their madaess. To be almost as brutal as they. With halter, and torch, and Bible,

They preach the gospel of murder,
And pray for lust's kingdom to come.

Look up to the rising sun, And ask of the God who shines there Whether deeds like these shall be done!

"Whereverthe randal cometh Press home to his heart with your steel,
And when at his bosom you cannot.
Like the serpent, go strike at his heel. "Through thickef and wood go hunt him

In his fainting foot-sore marches, In his flight from the stricken fray,

In the snare of the lonely ambush,
The dobts we owe him pay. "In God's hand alone is vengeance, But he strikes with the fishes of men, And his blight would wither our menho - If we smite not the smitter again.

By the graves where our fathers slambe

"That he will not sheath nor stay it,

They swore—and the answering sunlight, Leapod tod from their lifted swords, And the hate in their hearts made cohe To the wrath in their burning words.

There's weeping in all New-England, And by Schuylkill's banks a knoll, And the widows there and orphans How the oath was kept can tell, *-Richmond Examp

THIS, THAT AND THEOTHER.

The Confederates have regained all out a little corner of Arkansas. -Miss Belle Boyd the colebrated Confederate spy, has arrived in England, and is making a sensation.

ate States. -New England patriotism -Sending

New Tax Items.—It is thought the abo-lition members of Congress will put the fol-ment for Soldiers. -Lincoln's two greatest generals are

By these he conquers, not the South, but the North. -The new shoddy candidate for vic

President is professionally a tailor. Let him stick to his trade and make a straight Jacket for Lincoln. —— It is the easiest thing in the world to talk war, but it is the hardest thing possible to fibt it. The proof of the pudding is the eating of it.

—Johnson, the Republican nominee for Vice President is not a citizen of the United States, nor can be vote, according to a late act of Congress.

----The ministers who told the Al mighty in a prayer that "we are proue to change," told a falsehood, for we are horriribly prone to shimplesters, and there is no

On the recent fast day a prominent clergyman, in his prayer, said: Give to President Liuquia all the ability consistent with Tay papener, for we know that he needs it."—New Haven Register.

-An auctioneer said of a gentleman who had bought a table, but nover came to take it away, that he was one of the most com-for-table persons he ever knew in his whole gourse of life. —Of three republican papers in Mil-wankie, two are for Fremont. The Daily Wiscopain, formerly a Lincoln paper, has left Old Abe and come out for the man who parts his hair in the middle.

A philosopher says that what Lin-colnites mean by the last man and the last dollar, is that they will be the last to go to the front and that they intend to steal the last dollar from the treasury. -A philosopher says that what Lin-

--- We must have a change of administration at Washington. If we are to be cursed another year with the present sort of military management, every town along the Rennsylvania border will be destroyed.

the l'ennsylvania porter will be destroyed.

—In 1860 we were told to vote fer. hincoln and a change. Gotton was then ten cents a pound. The people voied for Lincoln and the "change," Cotton now is $1.
94 a pound. That is, it requires a great deal of "change" new to buy anything.

wis to even entit .

STAND FIRM. '

It is a well known feet the first called for, wore supressly saked to de-fend Washington, and actilist himself this all were too willing to rospend. days after they were ordered into the to fight "for the Union" against the un rebels. Here they again responded, but were not so easily desired this time; Old Abe's toadles had to what their gabs 100 the lying business, and in their days all he soldiers that "we could whip the South before breakfast," and that "the armed traitors would be seared into spasms, and forced o lay down their atms, or starve." 'What' bold, bare-faced and devillate lies ! Treps the beginning the "Government" has kept the soldiers enveloped in darkness by means of greenbacks, abolition disunion documents, and howling monkays professing to he the followers of Christ. The poor de-luded, ignorant, sap-headed followers of the crary fugitive. George Thompson, to-day preaching fire and sword to their devoted "brethron" in error, instead of the pure doctrines which the gospel discloses.

Those calchysted divings dranges lovelleaguers, war democrate, &c., are sontinually praying for the success of four Army bravery," not knowing that a majority of the common soldlers are opposed to their miscrable jargon.

To prove the above, here is an extract from a letter from private J. H. W., to a gentleman in Rebersburg.

"Well; what do you think about this

"I think its a ded humbug just to kill off the men." We might quote numerous others, but we hope this will suffice to show that this feeling of "humbug" is prevalent to a remarkable degree among the soldiers. Where is this great would-be-Copperhead-orusher non! or the chief executive of the mob-less officials? We were hold. You promised to exterminate the Southern people, and then turn the soldiers on the northern sopperheads and "dr ve them hissing to their holes." We are fifty times stronger and bolder now. Bring your mal-treated soldiers, and you will never get them away again from "sweet home." Neither could you compel them to fight, for they would consider themselves free from martial law and leave their officers "sticking in the mud." In that case if would be the very acme of madness for Lincoln and his marplots to steal the amount of negroes necessary to hold dissalisfied mon in subjection. Soldiers, maintain your rights and respect others! Freemen! never become serfs. We are not living under a Government in which submission to rulers was the first and only law. We are American officens. Look at this, toiling brothron. Four years age our Constitution and laws were administered by Democrats, and we were living in unity, prosperity and happiness. Now we have a tory in the White House who has changed the programme until it stands thus: War, disunion, demoralization, misery and woe. See the future of our country: Lincoln with his utmost power is attempting to press, the last breath of liberty out of us white-pusses." He endeavors, by his vile acts to extinguish every spark of "State Sovereignty" and "White Supremacy," those blessed gems of which every Demoorat was and is the possessor. He has proecoded on his career of dissipation and impotence till the American people whind for heir folly in electing a coarse, jesting and brawling horse-jockey to thrive and fatten it the expense of our liberty. If human nature can no longer endure the load our déspotic rulers are heaping upon us, what then! Repudiation. Should that be rejected and the taxes be enforced, revolution will follow. The popular passion wallows in a slough of catastrophes. It is a moral avalinche directed by demagogues and fanatical imposters, which will at length spend its 1 force, and subside almost as suddenly as it arose, leaving the wretches who have driven it on, stranded on the beach, where they wrath of the people whose rights and property they have outraged and destroyed. The debt which Lincoln and his fellow-traitors have rolled up over our heads we must destroy, or it will knunch us into the Gall of Despair. It is already more than one-half the value of the property of the North. Will some abolition war bully tell un how we are to preserve our liberty inviolate un. der such an immense load as this? Lot us not have our rights trampled appearance load. gor by the infamous, missegenationists who seek to transform us into beasts. They are waging war on sister co-equal States for the purpose of separating them eternally. Abraham Africanus, the First, talls us plainly that "he will fluish his Job if it takes him three years longer." will we submit to nigger, tax, incarcoration, and every diabolical artifice the war-demons can devise, for the destruction of a government on the white basis,—three years longer. God forbid! May the masses herome wise, in its balance, and he is found wanting. He must fall. . Follow-Copperheads! The maxim for our tow, is "Be united and stand firm." . Lat us not deceive ourseves any longer by rain and futile imaginations, overshall will our minds purer and solemn thoughts. Let our minds purer and moreone watchword be Liberty or Death May God great us success.

and may Lincoln himself be finished foing before that time. He is a base ususper.

Those subjected to his tyranny condeman him by the Constitution and the laws. The whole world abhors him-it has found him guilty of high treason. The grand juny of justice, equity and mercy has weighed him

"JACKSOP,"

In 1860 we were told to yote for himcoin and a change. Gotton was then ten cents a pound. The people void for Lincoin and the "change" Cotton now is $1.
04 a pound. That is, it requires a great deal of "change" now to buy anything.

— Truth is the most potent enemy the most direaded for of Mr. Lincolnia administration, and will prevail against all, his offorts to stific its charton tones, that sift like postories arrows deep into the covard learns of the usingpers at Washington.

— The charge made is address recently it his church of the Puritans in which he amounced Lincoln and praised fremont; bid adage hight appropriately be a shanged read that it when solitical present re fall honest men may get their fluyer.

The fall honest men may get their fluyer

To fall honest men may get their fluyer

To make told a ribelies of finished in the part of the state of the state