GRAND PATRIOTIO, DEMONSTRATION. OLD CENTRE AWARD. 3,000 FREEMEN IN COUNCIL!

+ harverter b

One of the greatest popular Demonstra tions ever witnessed in Centre county came off in this place on Monday last, Oct. 8d. The friends of Constitutional liberty, rallying to the support of McClellan and Pendiston came from all parts of the county. until our town was overflowing with people, and the crowd could only be numbered by thousands. The procession, composed of almost every kind of vehicles as it passed through the various streets of our Borough, presented a spectacle truly inspiring to the really patriotic who desire to see our country relieved from the incubus of Abolitionism which has been weighing us down for the last four years. The various flags, banners, and emblems decorated and inscribed with various instructive, amusing and . appropriate mottoes, presented a truly spirited and brilliant appearance. We regret that our space will not permit us to give a full description of the procession which thronged the streets from 10 o'clock till noon. At one o'clock the mass of people propeeded by Millers Brass Band from Lock Haven, marched to the North and of the town where the stand had been erected.

The meeting was then organized by the election of the following officers. PRESIDENT, John T. Hoover, Bellefonte Borough. vice PRESIDENTA. Daniel Derr, Bellefonte Borough. WOULDN'T WAVE FOR THEM .- The old flag which formerly belonged to the citizens of Bellefonte, was in some manner or other gotten hold of by the Abolitionist, and flung to the breeze on the morning of the Democratic Mass Meeting. It was put up accross the streeb, just below the magnificent one, the Democrats had hoisted but a few days before, in order, if possible to hide "McClel" lan and l'endleton." It waved "beautifully over the heads of Democracy as they passed and repassed under it on Monday last. and continued to wave proudly, until yesterday morning, just when the abolition procession began entering town without a particle of wind to tear it, dropped to pieces as if ashamed of the party that had run it up, or determined not to float, for those who had called it a "flaunting lie." - The Abolition mass-moeting in this place on Thursday last was a complete fizzle in every respect. After spending hundreds of dollars to get up a "grand demonstration," they were not able to raise more than a respectable township meeting. Not a single speaker that was advertised was present, and they were compelled to listen to the ravings of the "suspender puller," the dry jokes of "soappedlar," and the silly twaddle of the war horn of the M. E. Church in this place. Their delegation (wagons, horsemen, footmen and all) reached round but one square. It was an out-pouring of their party though, a full show of their strength. They had everybody here they could get, and still did not have one half the meeting they had last year. There was no enthusiasm, no cheering, no nothing, but long faces, and hopeless countenances.

evening at seven o'clock. In the evening the Court House was crowded to its utmost capacity, notwithstanding most of the crowd had left town after the meeting in the afternoon. No one present will probably ever forget the rich intellectual treat he had an that occasion. Mr. Orvis introduced Hon. E. F. Pillsburry, of Maine, who addressed the crowded house for nearly three hours. Although exceedingly corteous and gentlemanly toward his 'political opponents; Mr. Pillsburry poured forth a vory torreht of eloquence, argument and logic which held the audience spell bound during the entire speech, and swept with resistless force every candid person who heard him. His facts and arguments fell like huge shot and shell in the camps of the enemy, spreading confusion and dismay among their shattered ranks. It will be long ere the eitisens of Centre county forget this visit from such a gallant son to a Tioga county genious to discover, that, despite of every other man, "every man may be his own Congressman." With the rare tact, peculiar to the Yankee mind, the inventor is about to test the value of his invention, by driving it four abreast, through the unsubstantial fabric of the Republican organization in this Congressional District. Its sport.

Der The Linc lnites, as an offset to the many changes that are taking place in favor of M'Clellan, are also publishing some recent accessions to their rank. The latest is a coor one. They say that the "coolness" between Governor Curtin and the Adminis tration has been warmed up a little, and that the Governor will support old Abc. They announce this with a great fourish of trumpets. What a wonderful accession this is! Curtin for Lincoln! In the backwoods they no doubt persuade the people that Curtin has always been a "lifelong Demoorat."

-----If our readers are disappointed at not finding a list of the conscripts in this issue of the WATCHNAN, they must put the blame on those to whom it rightfully belongs. We asked the Assistant Provost Marshal for a list, and hoanswered that they would allow none to be published. Notwithstanding this we did our best to secure one, with the determination to publish it, whether he allowed t or not, but failed. Papers in other districts of the State were furnished complete eports, but it seems those in authority want to keep the people of this region in the dark.

THE NEW ARITHMETIC .--- Take 1 from 4 and 5 are left.

Example.—Subtract 8 Republican Confer-ess from Lycoming, Clinion, Centre and Polter, who yoted for Afmatrong, from 2 Republican conferes, from Tioga, who yote for Wilson, and the result is a majority of 10, making the nomination of Wilson unan-imous.

Had you in the pulpit on the sabath day, reached and prayed, my own political sen-timents, instead of those ontertained by Garrison, Philips and other infidel aboli-tionists: I should have been as much qf-tionists. I should have been as much qf-fended as I was, for when I go to church it is to hear preached "Christ and him cru-cified," and not to hear a dissertation upon either side of any political questions. You regret that I am not a child, that I might grow wiser as I grow older, we are both young, and I hope to learn, and im-prove constantly as I advance in years. As you can yet hardly claim infallibility and perfection, there is doubtles much room for your own improvement. As I have never made a profession of re-lizion. have no great natural capacity and ation, the following having giving giving by the aposet of Paul, to a young christs. 1 minister: 1st. Tim. 6th. chapter: "Let as many servaris as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and his doctrine be not haphemed. And they that have believing masters, let them not despise thom, because they are brether; but rather do them service because they are faithfull and hellowed partakers of the benefit. These things, teach and exhort. If any mas leake otherweise, and consent not to wholesom words, even the words of our Lord Jeans Christ, and to the doctrine which is accor-ding to godliness; He is proad, knowing work-ies, but doting about questions and strifes of words whereof cometh envy, strife, rallings, evil sumaising, perverse disputing of men of corrupt minds, and destinute of the truth, sup-posing that gain is godliness : from such with drage fayset."
