THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

Our fair friends "L. G." and "M. N." of Central city, will please accept our most sincere thanks for the splendid cake sent us.

The wet weather of the past few days has thrown our farmers in this section of the county, back considerable in getting in their corn crops.

Two young men, charged with stealing a couple of horses from a livery stable at Jersey Shore, were arrested in this place on Tuesday last. One of them however succeeded in making his escape, and is still at large. The horses were secured and returned to the owner.

We would call the attention of our readers to the card of our friend W. P. Macmanus, to be found in another part of to-day's paper. Those entrusting the collection of claims against the government to Mr. Macmanus, will have them promptly attended to with the least possible cost.

Our friend Stone of the Logan Saloon seems to be driving a splendid business, from the amount of oysters he receives daily by express. Stone knows how to do things up, his oysters are none of your poor half starved, stale things, but plump and fresh, as Stone is jolly. Give him a call.

The election in this place on Tuesday last passed off very quiet, there was but little wrangling, and no fighting at all. In the evening a few of the "A. S." got a little bilious and kept up considerable noise all towards morning. As part of them were church members the matter occasioned no surprise.

BROMLEY & Co's NEW CARICATURE, No 4. This New York publishing concern is determined that the great public shall have some fun out of the present serious aspect of things political, and have issued another "button buster." It seems that the New York Lincoln politicians have had a "nigger ball" at their big club room. It was quite a private affair being strictly a miscellaneous "experiment" by some of the big bags of the party in that precious city. The New York World smoked them out, and published the whole thing. Bromley & Co's artist got inside the ring and made a "picture." There they are, the oily black Phillis and Dinah dancing in silks and satins with grave and dignified white men of unquestionable purity of character, "during daylight." Leading party men were there, political lights of great as well as small magnitude, and so declares the New York World, "at least one Presidential Elector." Shocking!! We have this picture at our office. It is had for 25 cents, or colored 35 cents. You can get all these Political Caricatures, Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4, in one package, for one dollar, sent on wooden rollers to insure safe carriage. Bromley & Co. are addressed box 4255 New York city.

Mrs. HENRY WOOD'S NEW CAPTAIN NOVEL, "OSWALD GRAY,"—In press by T. B. Peterson & Bros. The Philadelphia Evening Telegraph, in speaking of this new book, says:—It is pleasant to contemplate the works of such a genuine writer as Mrs. Wood—all heart, and therefore irresistible communicating the best of advice to those who most require counsel, and never wearying by elaborate disquisitions on the evils and follies of humanity, but convincing them and effectually reaching their better nature without once inspiring them with disgust or goading them to indifference. Such a writer is Mrs. Wood, who appeals so powerfully to the heart. In all her writings there is a spirit of deep religious earnestness that irrepressibly excites one's sympathy and confidence, and impels you to accept her counsel as coming from a woman of experience, "at peace with all mankind," and inspired to write not for the mere love of fame, but for the good of her fellow-creatures; and Mrs. Wood, in "Oswald Gray," her new book, will be found to possess the faculty of sustaining interest unsurpassed by any rival in the domain of contemporary fiction. It will be published on November 15th by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, Pa. who are Mrs. Wood's American Publishers.
