Democratic Watchman

BELLEFONTE, PA.

THURSDAY MORNING, DEC. 31, 1863.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

MARTHA.—The episode "Dum Vivimus, Vivamus" means, we suppose, in English "While we live, let us live."

WILLIAM H.—Let every son go at whatever he fancies for a stifling; putting a "t" to a trade against his inclination will be productive of no good.

RACCOON.—The Alabama Ordinance of Secession was passed January 12th, 1861. Your other question we are unable to answer at the present time.

GAMBOL.—We do not meddle with affairs of that sort. If we were in want of a sleigh of that description, we would make a shop that at least many people would wear.

DRIFTER.—Liverpool is decidedly a larger shipping port than New York, the docks in the former place extending over seven miles in length, and are built of stone.

SOLOMON.—The most lucid answer we can probably give is this. Applicants desirous to enter Hancock's veteran corps must satisfy their respective local Provost Marshals before they will be forwarded.

FANNY J.—There is a pond in the Central Park New York, and when the ice on it is in a condition for skating it is announced to the public by raising a large red ball on the [illegible] factory in the park. That is the origin of the [illegible] of the term "The Ball is up."

MARY.—Read the [illegible] was [illegible] Sewing Machines, the [illegible] a number [illegible] organization in this [illegible] and they are said to have a capacity for doing a greater [illegible] of work perfectly and less liable to [illegible] than any other. It makes the best stitch.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

ANOTHER ENTERPRISE.—The Shell Road depot in this place will be finished and ready for the reception of goods in a few days.

NOT bad—the sleighing in this section of the country, in consequence of which business is quite brisk in and about town.

IN bad condition—the pavements in some parts of town. If ashes or sand was sprinkled upon them it would add greatly to the safety of pedestrians.

AN Abolitionist, in town boasts of having a coop full of turkeys for Christmas. We might fill ours too, if we didn't remember the injunction of one of the Ten Commandments.

WHAT'S WRONG?—How comes it that Bellefonte cannot afford a singing school, a debating club, or nothing of the kind these long winter evenings? Can any one tell?

A few drunken rowdies kicked up quite a muss on the corner of Alleghaney and Bishop street, which resulted in a lot of sore heads, broken noses and bruised faces. Good for them. Pity they hadn't got hurt worse than they did.

KINDER high—taxes in Bellefonte—wonder if the Borough authorities will make a statement, of receipts and expenditures for the year just ending? It would be some consolation to the people at least, to know what becomes of their money.

LEFT US.—Our friend and fellow townsman W. J. Kealsh, Esq., who during the past three months has been lucky enough to make the snug little sum of one hundred thousand dollars, speculating in oil, has pulled up stakes and removed his family to Bristol, Bucks County, which place he intends to make his future home. May success ever attend him.

TAKING TIME BY THE FORELOCK.—Quite a number of our citizens who have the means to spare, are preparing for the next draft, by putting in substitutes. This is a privilege that the force of circumstances denies to the laboring man. He must stand in his own shoes in war times. Well, quite a number of them deserve to be drafted, and we have no doubt will be, for voting for Lincoln and Conscription.

CLOSE THEM.—The old nuisance of ice on the sidewalks, the result of allowing hydrants to run promises to give more annoyance than ever this year, judging from the fact that this early in the season it has become a subject of general complaint. Hydrants should be closed during weather like the present, and when they are permitted to flow; those responsible should be compelled to remove the ice created through their carelessness.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES.—Rev. Charles S. Robinson, late of Troy, now of Brooklin New York., writes of Brown's Bronchial Troches: "Rev. Mr. Booth gave me two or three from his pocket a few years ago, recommending me to make a trial of them, for he had found them beneficial. I have kept them ever since, and found them very serviceable when the weariness of speaking, as well as allaying the irritation [illegible] is called."

GOING IT AT THE IRON.—A company is now forming in this place for the purpose of [illegible] whether oil can be found in the Bald Eagle Valley. Surface indications at several points [illegible] a rich reward for those willing to undertake the enterprise, and all those who have visited the places about to be developed, say that they would not be surprised if the necessary depth of the [illegible] would develop as [illegible] as that along Oil Creek. We should like to see the work put through thoroughly and in earnest, and hope some of our citizens will take the matter in hand and push it along. If there is oil to be found we may as well reap the benefits of it at home. The [illegible] and Empire [illegible] to the hands of our townsman Mr. D. H. Cummings, who will [illegible] information [illegible] their [illegible] Bellefonte.

SMALL TO DINNER.—The ladies throughout different parts of the county, we understand are getting up fairs and suppers to take place [illegible] the holidays, the proceeds of which are given to the [illegible] Soldiers' Aid Commission. If every [illegible] would direct to [illegible] knew in the army, with the [illegible] of their distribution among the sick and wounded soldiers, much more benefit would be derived from [illegible] than by allowing the thieving agents of any commission who obtain the greater part of all they get for themselves.

THE Special Committee appointed at a meeting of the citizens of Bellefonte on the 29th ult., for organizing societies for the relief of the poor, met in pursuance of their appointment, at the office of A. O. Furst, Esq., and selected the following persons as officers for said organization:

For President, M. T. Milliken; for Secretary, John T. Johnston; for Treasurer George W. Jackson.

Committee to solicit money and supplies: Mrs. R. A. Ward, Mrs. W. H. Humes, Miss Lizzie Hunter, Miss Mary Curtin, Mr. H. N. McCalister and Adam Hoy, Esqs.

Committee to ascertain the wants of and furnishing supplies to the necessitous:—George M. Yocum, Chairman, Miss Louisa Harris, Miss Emily Natt, Miss Isabella Dell, Miss Mary McCalister, Mrs. J. H. Orvis and Mrs. Wm. P. Wilson.

The above report was read and adopted at a meeting held at the Court House on Saturday evening last, at which meeting it was resolved to raise among the citizens of Bellefonte, by subscription, one thousand dollars, for the above object, and the surplus if any, after the first day of May next, to be equally distributed among the sick and wounded soldiers from [illegible] Hospitals, the Great Central Fair and Sanitary Commissions.

New Publications.

THE CAN GUARD.—A monthly Magazine, devoted to the principles of '76 and '87. Edited by C. Chauncy Burr, Esq., and published by Van Evrie Horton & Co. New York.

We have received the December Number of this popular Democratic magazine. It contains a splendid steel plate engraving of the New Jersey monument, erected in memory of the brave soldiers of New Jersey. We are pleased to notice that THE CAN GUARD is to be enlarged to double its present size, and made a superior literary as well as a political magazine. Such a work has long been needed to supply the place of the numerous Abolition monthlies with which the country abounds. In the January number will be commenced a new and original story, from Hon. Thomas Dunn English, which will be read with satisfaction by all lovers of good literature. The political department will be contributed to by some of the leading Democratic minds of the country. It will be just such a magazine as ought to be in every Democratic family. Every neighborhood ought to make up a club at once. Its terms are but $2 per year. Eight copies for $14. Twenty copies for $35. Whoever sends a club of twenty, will receive an extra copy. Specimen copies sent post paid, for 15 cents.

THE LADIES FRIEND.—Published by Deacon & Peterson, 319, Walnut Street, Philadelphia. Edited by Mrs. Henry J. Peterson. Price $2,50 per annum.

The January number of this spicy Magazine is already on our table, and fully bears out the reputation of this new monthly which is now entering upon the second year of its existence. A beautiful steel plate engraving graces its first page, and is followed by quite a number of richly colored fashion plates, which alone are worth the price of subscription. The literary contents is unusually excellent and entertaining. No lady should be without it.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—Edited and published by Charles J. Peterson, Esq. Philadelphia, at $2 per year.

We have even looked upon this as one of the best ladies magazines of the day. The January number alone is worth almost the price of a full years subscription. Its engravings and literary matter is not excelled by any of the three dollar Magazines.

ARTHUR'S HOME MAGAZINE.—Edited by T. S. Arthur and Virginia F. Townsend, Philadelphia. Price $2,50 per annum.

As a real home magazine, we suppose Arthur's has no superior in the world. Its articles are high toned and moral, and no parents need fear to place it in the hands of their children. It promises to outstrip all competitors during the coming year.

MISCELLANEOUS.

IMPORTANT

TO INVALIDS AND

IRON IN THE BLOOD!

It is well known in the medical profession that iron is the vital principle or life element of the blood. This is derived chiefly from the food we eat. Unless the food is most properly digested, or if, from any cause whatever, the necessary quantity of iron is not taken into the circulation, or becomes reduced, the whole system suffers. The bad blood will irritate the heart, will clog up the lungs, will stupify the brain, will obstruct the liver, and will spoil the disease producing elements in all parts of the system, and every one will suffer in whatever organ may be predisposed to disease.

The great value of

"IRON AS A MEDICINE"

Is well known and acknowledged by all medical men. The difficulty has been to obtain such a preparation of it as will enter the circulation and assimilate at once with the blood. This point, says Dr. Hayes, Massachusetts State Chemist, has been attained in the Peruvian Syrup, by combination in a way before unknown.

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP

Is a protected solution of the Protoxide of Iron. A new discovery in medicine that strikes at the root of disease by supplying the blood with its vital principles of Life Element—Blood.

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Fever and Ague, Loss of Energy, Low Spirits.

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP

Infuses strength, vigor, and new life into the system, and builds up an "Iron Constitution."

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP

Cures Nervous Affections, Female Complaints, and diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder.

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP

Is a specific for all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by Debility or a Low State of the System.

Pamphlets containing certificates of cures, and recommendations from some of the most eminent Physicians, Clergymen and others, will be sent free to any address.

DYSPEPSIA! DYSPEPSIA!

I, Elizabeth Brinson, of Brandywine, formerly of Old Chester, Del., do certify that for one year and a half I suffered every day but death from that awful disease Dyspepsia. My whole system was reduced to weakness and nervous debility; I could not digest my food; If I ate even a cracker, the smallest amount of food, it would [illegible] I swallowed it; I became so [illegible] that I would not cause a passage in [illegible] from four and often eight days; under this immense suffering, my mind seemed entirely to give way. I had dreadful horrors and [illegible] feelings. I thought everybody hated me. I hated every body; I could not bear my children, or my own child, or anything upon earth. A horror stricken to me I hated to [illegible] anything; I lost all love of family and home. I would ramble [illegible] from place to place, but could not be contented; I felt that I was doomed to hell, and that there was no [illegible] for me, and was often tempted to commit [illegible] this [illegible] my whole nervous system was [illegible] and also my mind from that awful complaint, Dyspepsia, that my friends thought best to have me placed in Dr. Kirkbride's Hospital, West Philadelphia; this I resisted; there I was weeks, and thought I was a little better, but in a few days my dreadful complaint was raging as bad as ever. Hearing of the wonderful cures performed by Dr. Wishart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills and his treatment for Dyspepsia, my husband called on Dr. Wishart and stated my case to him. He said he had no doubt he could cure me. So in three days after I called and placed myself under the Doctor's treatment and in two weeks I began to digest my food, and felt that my disease was fast giving way, and I continued to receive for about three months, and at the present time I enjoy perfect health of body and mind, and I most sincerely return my thanks to a merciful God and Dr. Wishart and to his Great American Dyspepsia Pills and Pine Tree Tar Cordial that saved me from an Insane Asylum and premature grave. All persons suffering with Dyspepsia are at liberty to call on me or write, as I am willing to do all the good I can for suffering humanity. ELIZABETH BRINSON.

DYSPEPSIA! DYSPEPSIA!

I, Samuel P. Haven, have been a great sufferer with Chronic Dyspepsia and inflamation of the Kidneys for three years. I employed three of one of the most eminent physicians of Philadelphia, also of Burlington, New Jersey. They did all they could for me, but it was no purpose. I was constantly filled with awful pain and distress, and with constant belching of wind and sour, acid. My
