NEW ADVINIERANT 1 H West Merroll J /

and of the window, I must be I was reather and parties and , alghtingale hush I "Uh, avest alghtin TIL TIMON AND LOAR, A State If states with weth seen

The shies in the dariftens stoop neares an marter, a cluster of stars hangs like fruit on a tree, all of the Water counts sweeter, comes clearer; i of the Water combs sweeter, community

Let the star clusters grow, Let the sweet waters flow, And cross quickly to me,

"Tes sight moths that Bover where heney brims From sycamore blessours, or solita to shop ; Be glow-worms shine out and the pathway dis-

To him that comes darking slong the rough Ah, my shilor, make haste, Por the tidle tune to waste, And my love light deep-

Toe deep for swift feeling; and yet my one. I've council then an answer, it waits thes to-night.

By the sycamore passed he, and through the Then all the sweet speech I had fushioned

Look flight ; But I'll lore him more, more Than a'r wife loved before, Be the days dark or bright." THE HAUNTED HOUSE

Ir was near the close of a sultry day in August that I draw up my tire'l horse before the door of the "Black Bear." where enfortainment was to be obtained for man and bisast, as the inboriously grasking alga volnatarily informal the phaser by...

Haying seen Pluto well eared for and in a elean stall; I esunterel into the barroom, and havin r nothing baller to do, sat down to listen to the conversation of the half dozen Lann Jers there congregated. - I looked over the books on the table, but they were all dry mains on agrigulture addrookery, and I let thein pare. I was young then -just I DAULY-INFEA. AND WAR CRAVELING Solely to peer away the times of my summer vasation (I was then a manbar of the T---- law school) and from the love of adventure. As yot, however, very little in the way of airentare had befallen me. Life had sone on rather monotonously ; and I had strayed away into the backwoods of Malus in the vain hope that I might fail coulding estikingly out of the usual way. Bridently, my antrance had interrupted the surveysion of the gentleman, for there fullowsia pause, brokin at last by a tall militery looking man in rough cost and top 10->1s.

""There was a daughter, wasn't there, landlord," he asked.

"Yes," replied that individual, so shortly that I continized him more closely than I and Johe before. The scruting threw little light on his character. His physiognomye perfouily unreadable. He might or #gufunt be a bed man. He was short, thisk sat, with a red face, buchy grebrow, agi a solily-glittering stankblue eye.

"Wall, it was a startling affair for this one-horse place," continued he of the top But , rem wing his oiger. "It happened four gaars ag), you say, and the daughter has not-boon heard of since ! Strange !". . "Yes, it will be four years some next Uhriniman," said a white baired old man who had not spoken before. "A terrible Calling so thick that it would have blinded ges. And that hight old Roger Hampton and his wife were murdered; and from that day to this no human eye, so far as waknow, has ever looked on Margaret Hampton."

"What do you think became of her. Granger !" asked one of the men, addressing the old man.

"It Think ! I know not what to think. still remained; the green carpet was It was ourrently reported that abe dealt the gray with dust, and the chairs and sodeath wounds, and then fiel to save herself fas had put on the enckcloth of mould abivered at the touch of the night air. How emaccanc shirt Democra . .

"STATE RIGHTS AND PEDERAL UPION."

BELLEFONTE, PA., FRIDAY, JANUARY

Vol. 10.

aroused; The story I had heard about around my heart shrink and grow cold. Handton's Death was romantic enough to stone gables of the house and the dark pine forest stretching away for miles behind it But this distant view did not satisfy me. I wanted to ano the inside, to tread the long very apot where on that boisterous Christmas night two souls had been so suddenly launched into eternity.

But I did not care to let those below know and found it beat calm and strong. of my foolhardiness, as the landlord would melancholy volce of the whip-poor-will, and sweeter existence. The linid tiny itself was upon me. sway off in the oppes-wood, the stillness growing around me; and even the night ... I opened the door slowly and stood on the threshold, What did L see ? breese folding its wings and sinking to sleep The moon was shining brightly into the in the leaves. All was quiet-the house was chamber, flooding every remote corner with wrapped in slumber. I examined my pistols, its silvery brilliance. I could distinguish But on fresh caps, and then softly let myself everything with the greatest min stewess down to the ground by means of the strong tendrils of a grape vine that had climbed spectral form in its slenderness, with a face up to my window. It was only a little walk white as marble, masses of black hair flowto the old ruin -not more than half a mile ing down over her sable garments. The across the fields to the dilapidated sidne fauce that separated the grounds from the great, mild, dark eyes were fixed upon my adjacent lots. I surang over into the lonesome garden now choked with wasds and grais, and atood in the shadow of the pile der. I advanced to the side of he phanton of buildings.

Very mansive and gloomy it looked, with its weather stained walls and high, narrow ag step Backwards. . windows gleaming in the cold moonlight The quaint gables and carved dormer win dows shed a black shade over the front; the path to the hall door was obstructed with wild vines and brambles, and a thorn bush had grown up upon the very, threshbold.

was speaking to the fissh or the spirit- "Q! Everything about the place was dead and she cried, springing towards me and taking silent as the tomb. No wonder people said my hand in both of hers'so soft and warm it was haunted, with that old tale of crime 'only say that you have come to take m and death hanging around it. away from here. Only release me and I will I tried the door, but it was fast. So were be your slave forever! The suspision that the windows. I went around to the back had all along been forming itself in my part but it was closely secured. I pried mind, broke out in the abrupt question: off a cornice with my knife, after some "Are you Margaret Hampton 7 difficulty, and by that means removed "Years ago I was called so." a window sash; leaving the aperture free.

addressed me.

itances."

"Good God [ and where have you been Looking in, I saw. a large apartment, evince that Christmas night ?" "Here aldently the kitchen. Everything had been ways-Oh, sir, if you knew the half that I left just where it was before the curse had have suffered, you would take me away." failen: the tin pans still gleamed on the I replied by lifting her in my arms and drosser, and the kettle still sat on the bearing her down over the stairs to life and descried hearth. I sprang in and passed into the interior of freedom once more. It was the happiest noments of my existence when I stood with the building by a dark corridor to what must have been a parlor. Part of the furniture her on the green sward in front of Hampton's Death, with the silver min of the obstructed moonlight falling over us. She over the berroom. My curiosity was thrillingly low that I felt the rosy blood fiendish minuteness; and long and elo- clerk and public prosecutor as below; quently on the skill with which he avoided jury was empineled in front ; and witnesses and spectators stood around. Downie at

I asked.

"Clinton Early! are you a coward ?" I detection. excite the interest of almost any young said to myself, and the bare insinuation was I to was as I had expected. Mrs. Jangen first set down the whole affair as a joke, but man of three and twenty, and perhaps I had enough to send me forward. I went, up being the next heir after Margaret to the the proceedings were conducted with such a full share on Yomange in my composition. the stairs, two at a bound, but was stopped Hampton wealth the wretched couple had persistent gravity that is splite of almeelf I threw up the west window and looked out. by a strong caken door. I tried to break it formed the plan of murdering the whole he began to believe in the genuine mini-The evening was besutiful. There was a down, but it resisted all my efforts. I want family, in order to secure the property. A of the awful tribunal. The eleck read and elight hranza blowing, and the pale moon to one of the chambers below and wrenched night when all the servanis, ware away at a indictment charging him with completing Th had just risen. The gray old front in Hamp- off the great post of a mahogany; bedistead; Christmas festival was selected, 'and the spainst the liberties of the students; wit-ton' Distb was distinctly visible, loaming, and returning, used this as a sort of batterile; .wit-` gloomly from a mass of everyresns. It, was ing ram. No mere wooden door could long it in his heart to sacrifice Margaret. There public prospentor addressed the jury ; and a singular feature in that backwoods land- withstand such an attack as I made on that was a tender spot in the villain's heart after the judge summed up. "Gantleman." said. Downie, "a joke ha scape, built in fix old though not in elegant one, and ere long I had the satisfaction of all. Long ago, in his early manhood, he style of anohitagiure. I fell to speculating seeing it fall inwards. I leaped over the had loved a woman of whose face Margaret's been carried far enough ; it is getting late; about it. The man who had planned that ruins into the spariment thus opened before was the counterpart. This woman had died and my wile and family will be gotting and building was superior to his neighbors. Ita me, but it was bare and unfurnished. Not a in her innecence, in her lover's arms, and ious about me. If I have been too strict building was superior to his designed, it is not to was a because unterminate, to disturb the for the sake of that tender memory, the girl, with you in time past. I am sorry for it, and There was a pleasing harmony between the ghostly devastation.

I glanced quickly over the walls in search | was kept a close prisoner, every one believ. | future," of some secret passage; and in the further | ed her dead, and so she was, to all intenta "Gentlemen of the jury," said the judge; corner I perceived a slide, fastened with and purposes. Junsen had corried her food without paying the alightest attention to massive bolts on the outskie. I drew back at stated intervals, and encouraged the pre- this appeal, "consider your verdici, and if closed chambers, and stand perhaps in the the bars, and paused for a moment before I valling belief that the old house was haunted, you wish to retire do so: aought to penetrate the mysteries that door to the best of his bbility. The other young The jury retired. During their absence concealed." My heart beat so loud that I man who had gone there to pass the night the most profound silence was observed; could hear it, but I laid my hand thereon had been frightened by some diabolical con- and except renewing the solitary candle trivance of Jansen's; I only escaped a simk that burned baside the judge, there was not A vague, nameless something thrilled lar fate by keeping my intentions of going the slightest movement.

probably term it. I would wait till they through my soul as I stood there: It seemed there a sepret. I took Margaret at once to The jury returned and recorded a verdict were all in bed. I sat there listening to the to me as if I were about to enter on a new my mother in Boston, and then, as the asso- of "Guilty." The judge solethaly assumed a cistiony of her early home were so painful large black can, and addressed the prisoner: to her, I sold out the property and placed "Richard Downie ! The jury have unani-

the proceeds to her credit. When I placed Inously found you guilty of conspiring the certificate of stock in her hands. I said. Against the just liberty and immunities of There Birgaret, the old life is ourised the students of MATISOBAT Colleger . You Now you can begin the new." She did not have wantonly provoked and insulted these reply, but sat there in the mellow sunshine, inoffensive lieges for some months, and you her beautiful face troubled, and her eyes punishment will assuredly be condign. Yo In the centre of the room stood a slight | cast down. must prepare for death. In fifteen mi "You are an heiress. Miss Hampton :. you the sentence of the court will be utes will ga into society and be a great belle." carried into effect."

"No," she said softly ; "I do not wish to The judge placed his watch on the bench, shadowy hands were locked together ; the 'a belle, Clinton." A block, an az, and bag of sawdust wer-"What would you be, if you could, Marbrought into the centre of the room. A face with an expression of terror and won-| garet ?" figure more terrible than any that had ye

She' lifted her sweet face to mine. caught her to my breast, and held her pristhe part of doomster. form. Whether it was a gheat Zr living wooned there. man I knew not, but I was resolved to take

"Would you be my wife Margaret ?" And she answered, "Yes." So she was-go she is now, and has been and more alarmed. these many happy years; God bless her! And every-day my heart is full of eloquent gratitude to an inscrutable Providence, for sending me, in a fit of romantic curiosity"to complaint." spend a night at "Hampton Death."

WHO MURDEBED DOWNIE?

About the end of the eighteenth century, whenever any student of the Marischal

College, Aberdeen, incurred the displeasure to utter one cry, and you and seized, and of the humbler citizons, he was assailed with your doom completed being you nan utter the question-"Who nurdered bownie !" another. Every one heri present has sworn Reply and rejoinder generally brought on a solemn oath never to reviel the proceedcollision. between "town and gown;" although the young gentlemen were accused of what was chronologically impossible. People have a right to be angry at being stigmatized as murdorers when their aconsers have probability on their side ; but the lowed, hut no more. 'taking off' of Downie occurred when the gownsmen, so miligned, were in swaddling clothes.

But there was a time when to be branded many a youth, and sent him bome to his few more lightings of that ominons watch ... books thoroughly subdued. Downie was WWWTHE WAY. Gome in her obidish parity, Out from the golden day; Fading away 14 the light he swoot, Where the shives stars and makes re the elves stars and analysis mat, ag the path for her many far, Over the allest way. The pearly white hunds are presed (ashes lik on her obesit see the white software burners the responsed) in the burner burner the response tim the blue of her are within The pare lids closed in rest.

1 3649 $5. at 1!

Sec. Car

13. 1865.

Over the event brow levingly

and the second second

The second success

No. 2.

Over the sweet Drow severary Twinghis har down y beirs' e wis to fragile that hyro sout down an ale heartonly gets 20m soft brightere hade her brow, with its where so brows-Light as the displing are

Gano to sloop with a tender such By the farst well kiss of her there is a set of the set

Robin-hushed in your downy bed Over the swinging burgh-Do you miss her voice from your gied dust. When the dow in the heart of the rose is set. Till its velvet lips with the essence wet. In orient crimson glow ?

Rombud-under your shady loaf, Rossbud under you are light from the sunny day. Do you miss the ghance of the eyes so bright; Whose blue was heaven in your thuld sight? It is beaming now in the world of light. Over the starry way.

Hearts, where the darling's head hath lais Heid by love's shining ray— Do you know that the touch of her gentle ham Doth brighten the hear in the maknown hand? Oh she waits for us with the angel band, Over thatarry way.

our	, -
lou -	THIS,	THAT	AND	THE	OTHER.
in.	•		-			2
	Goodico	unsel is	above	all pri	ne	а.

Does a transport of joy over get a ticket f-leave ?

The city of New York offers $1,000 boun y to volunteers

Some husbands are driven to take a smile appeared came forward and prepared to act at a tavarn because they get no smiles at It, was now past midnight, there was no home.

Preserving the health by too strict a sound audible save the ominous ticking of the judge's watch. Downie became most regiment is the most wearisome and interable of maladies.

For heaven's sake, gentiemen," aid the The Secretary of the Treasury has deciterrified man, "let me go home. I provide ded to issue another hundred millions of that you never again shall have dause for the tan-forty loan.

A wit; onice said, in answer to a stranger "Richard Downie," semarked who was offerving how tall his trees grew you are vaisly wasting the for the nents that they had nothing else to do. that are left you on earth. You'are in the

"Three thousand dollars' worth of wines hands of those who must have your life. were bought at Lord Lyons sale by & co-No human power can save you. Altempt lores deliver for Washington dinner parties. "The isn't all that fancy painted her," bitterily exclaimed a rejected lover, "and worse that that, she isn't all that she paints herself." ings of this hight, they are known to none

Bon. George M. Dallas, ex-Vice Presibut ourselves, and when the object for which we have met is accomplished, we shall disdent of the United States, died suddenly at perse unknown to say one. Prepare then his residence in Philadelphia on Saturday for death ; another five minutes will be al- last.

Dupont's powder mills, near Wilmington The unfortunate man in an agony of dead-Delaware, exploded on the fifteenth ult. ly terror, raved and shrieked for mercy, but Ten men were killed, and several others he avengers paid no heed to his cries .-wounded His fevered, trembling jips than moved as

A man comes to church and falls fait But there was a time when to be branded, as an accomplice in the slaughter of Richard if in slient prayer, for he felt that the brief Bownie made the blood run to the check of as between him and eternity was but a for a corpse, and the preacher had been will the relation or some of that oming which preaching at his funeral.

"You are a nuisance-I'll commit you."

tand in dittle aspterene ing. or geni

ter sont ar flatting that abig le ster their husiness about the actions, looks tarned by tickneys werening thinks a. 1 ore respect than they rotelive. It is a common practice for men to ge in familier haunts, to sit around they adding with jack knives to the litter their feet-opiling the store bearth their topaces ani, or signatur the different with stumps of gigan, and the the hear talk of ladies in hammany loman whuld permit a lady relati frient to/ lis topoken of in his Boys enterint places of boys and hear course and borish res the ladies det fielt as to dig our They bear that hatty, brough speaking ainfefforftuffy dt fildet in noi praecht to take their off file suffer from aligne at o are befil ? . remarks, and soon grow to o be losfers: Burely there is mough for ment for talk 3 bout now beebles manon acht afte when will there even be ? . There intriste iture, as there is in allowmannihile, for the witbe who by cost thefing goids all beautint e Brentselven safslits ites mitringi" ofri pince vermerer earsine in internet off-cle of half and bet 'hir all' there is a feeling of reprict did this ber never by paid. There is benething lovable about woman. Also is a observe, of more heart than man, of inor fedings of a keeps sense of delivery of more threat intuition of more confidence the man. The sec. -of more confidence then man. The soci ety of ladies is like the refining for mich show the drown from gold. A man's rearrant max be blutted. by continual intercos with testerstand those who about tight tor wonien till be Antis to see in theme the pleinahit in, their society. Boys who are brought up with slaters, or in the stras of the mother's love, any beiler may and better sd., ucated for happing the than those genred and manh and ings logic betreoine antheatheater or in society where women is not respected; The society of women tistion injures a man. He who whits will him deine enter ine, telatives of friends who copening a späre time in social formerdiration er in real-ing to there will approximate and a cound some family hards, is "harysty more open har-ted, notie and maple" that is who has no sock indexade to index the who has no sock indexade to index the who has no sock indexade the destrict the boiling tomperior their is of our out to boiling with grad the index the boiling of against the indexade the better to borney to against the indexade there is nother to for the second of a salation another to failed we have alwight belt plor women. Next "for that is the respirat we have for suman Who thinks shough of hims all to be summi side who spicks in generous, tespectful to women. There is one w pan in this town with whom we differ whiely in . polisionamiche whom we offer quariel of ather ministered, bash who we aarneety rean pt, for the arneeter that we naver not beard thite say a words and throw out an insiduation ingainst any families but there is one in particuliar; WE links part what is called a ladice part. What, we'r who, reach, this what holy, who, looks to over, would listen a moment, to insulting language geneering, bis singer, with wother? And ye'r the winner safe, his subject of comheit in store, buryon of saloon is the wife, mother of sizer of some hour. And you have the more fight to inbut there is one in particullar ; . Yet light page have to speak ift of rours." It would be a good thilly for mea rolland cultivate respect for women, and to indit a alusah dose not militate sgainet the Chiffie tian's belief. A few drunkards, thieves and swindlers' in a bommunity dels new tort necessity stamp all as such. A Jaw freehold does not leifen the besuty of charge which detracts fram a wampy, or which lieb FOROP. NO. IDDA as there are in all places, who make sichers study to pull the ease of their asighput the better ones, who are grath Alie doub respect of all-men, front sie shes best their are ladies who take no interest in the gowige and soundal to common avery where the bate thoughless man or business min, mben wert you are tempted to begin ar entretteller A sleepy churchwarden. who often played Ti yas tragedy to all. The medical su-denis tried to open a vein, but all was over and the conspirators had now to bethink. denis tried to open a vein, but all was over and the conspirators had now to bethink. denis tried to open a vein, but all was over and the conspirators had now to bethink. denis tried to open a vein, but all was over and the conspirators had now to bethink. denis tried to open a vein, but all was over and the conspirators had now to bethink. denis tried to open a vein, but all was over and the conspirators had now to bethink. themselves of safety. They now fin reality awore an oath among themselves, and the affrighted young men, sarrying their dinguise of the the body of Downie in the hotel. One of the number told the landlord that theighenteriainment was not yrt quite over, and that they did not wish thaindivid-the dor some hours. This was to give them all time to make their ecospo. Naxt marking the holy, was found. Judi-oslinguiry was 'natured, but no satisface-on all quiry was 'natured, but no satisface-real dinguister and the played is the set of the present Fodmal administration can haver restore the all quiry was 'natured, but no satisface-oal inquiry was 'nat a tendency, no matter of beauty of character in And main initiation can haver restore the mischieft of our standing the second of the

from Aupicion; but I believe nothing of und moth.

the kind. I romember her as a lovely and A bat flapped against the window as I en tered, escaping through a broken pane ; "Testionate girl, and of that murder she is and somewhere not far distant I heard the as pure as the angels in heaven."

Of what were you spaaking, gentlemen. if I may inquire !" I asked, drawing up to the table where they were sitting. The admitted, all striking with startling distinct. ness on the dead air of that unhappy place. direle courtbously widened to admit me; But I was not sightened; it was all very sople slways like to tell what they know, if properly requested, to do so. "We were talking over a tragedy that novel and delightful to me. If I could only see the ghost, I thought, I should have ecounted near here some four years ago, in something to tell my grandchildren. From thence I passed through two smalles an old mansion known as 'Hampton's rooms to a large hall in the middle of which Peath.' " replied he of the top boots. Mr. Hampton and his wife were murdered, and rose a broad staircase. This I ascended, their only daughter Margarets a girl of neath my tread, as if matonished at their tic then. My plan was all formed. Pluto eighteen or thereabouts, has never been seen since." "Indeed," I said, "but that is very sinstood slighly ajar. I pushed it open and gular. Who resides at Hampton's Death now !"

"Bless you, young man," cried the land- dusky glass. One glance showed me that no urging, he seemed wild to get away from collegians and the humble functionary. terd, "you couldn't hire anybody to enter | "this was the ghostly chamber." There the doors on a sunshiny day; and as for were dark stains on the counterpane of the hardly five minutes before I had Margaret he kept within the strict letter of the law; living lieto-why the place is haunted, and bed, and near the centre of the floor the delone foolhardy young man who went there to isste carpet was discolored with what had guided my horse, and the other arm held the decisions of the rulers were uniformly hotel. One of the number told the landlord

I looked at my pistels once more, to make

There was a door on the opposite bide ' of a pass the night on a wager, lost his reason once been a pool of blood. before morning. He's been wandering ever Here then, the deed Here then, the deed was committed If these silent walls could speak, what a tale eince, but no one knows what he saw there." "Hamp! And so the place is a ruin ?" | of violenob they might reveal! While I "Getting to be, sir, You can just see it stood there, thinking how once the deathfrom the window there." He pointed out, shricks of that old man and his wife had reand I saw, at the distance of half a mile, wounded through the room, wondering perbaps, the chimney of a large house where the guilty murderer was hidingwondering what tragia iate had overtaken elearly defined against the red sunset sky. "Did Mr. Hampton possess any property !" | the fair Blargaret, I heard the faint sound took down her statement. Two hours after of a human footstep. Convinced that I was I askal

"It was generally supposed that he had a not mistaken, I listened intently. It was large, sum of gold about him," said the repeated. No, there was no mistake. budlord, "but nothing was proved after the marder. There were some thousands of sure that all was right. If I were to meet fiesh and blood, these trusty weapons might dollars worth of real estate."

And who was the beir of that !" "If wife, sir," said the landlord. "She might save myself the trouble of trusting to was the next kin after Margaret-the niese gunpowder.

of Mr. Hampton. But the old bouss and its immediate grounds are a dead weight on our stands; we could not give them sway.'

to a second hall, smaller than the first, and from this hall another flight of stairs ascent I made a few more inquiries, and then the ded, finding probably to the attic. I Burconversation thread on other toples, and soin aftermards supper was Annour At the more table I saw the landlady a stairs. I could hear every step distinctly all handsond woman in the prime of life, now ; it beened simost over my head oft. mo be arrigenes periselarly insuferable light and anried pack and forh fr told by duty monif to be respectfully et. Teven thought I could distinguist the slight certificier i is was shown to my robm som from abpar an airy apetteent directly less, a low moan stole to my cat-crist or janilor at Marisohal College. One free, fresh air. I took off my coat and but- of his duties consisted in securing the gate toned it around her, placing her in the by a certain hour ; previous to which all the sweat had burst forth. They bared his neck shadow of a tall fir tree, that she might have students had to assemble in the common and made him kneel before the block. shrill scream of the night-hawk. A distant the support of its trunk. "Yen will not be hall, where a Latin prayer was delivered by door stammed to in the draught of air I had afraid to stay here while I get my horse ?" the principal. 'Whether in discharging this

> "Where is it?" "At Carl Jansen's hotel."

The sweetest, saddest voice I ever heard,

"Who are you ? Why are you here !"

"Why I am here depends upon oircum-

I paused, for I was uncertain whether ] desert me !"

burden. A door at the head of the landing was strong and willing, he could carry us took cranspetty means of annoying the the vicinity of the Black Bear ; and it was would loose her if I did not hold fast.

I took Margaret into the parlor, and made wards I was on my way to the Black Bear, with four constables and a warrant for the arrest of Carl Jensen on the charge of murder. We entered the tavern without ceremony, prove my best friend. If only ghosts, I side of his equally guilty wife.

Downie. on whose features a cold clampy "Strike !" exclaimed the judge. The executioner struck the aron the floor function Downle was more rigid than his an angistant on the opposite side. lifted at way in which some adults can walk into predecessor in office, or whether he became the same moment affect towel, and struck it such measures is astohishing. stricter in the performance of it at one time across the neck of the recumbent oriminal.

"Now !" exclaimed the Judge.

I though she shuddered at the name-my than another cannot be asceriained, but A loud laugh announced that the joke had suspicions were fast taking a tangible form. there can be no doubt that he closed the at last come to an end.

"Yes, I will try-but, oh ! you will not gate with sustere punctuality, and that those But Downie responded not to the uproar-esert me ?" But Downie responded not to the uproarions merriment. They laughed again ; but "Desert you! May God smite me dead minute of the prescribed time were shut out, still he moved not; they lifted him, and late what it costs to support all the dogs in if I think of it," I exclaimed, and flew over and were afterwards reprimanded and fined Downie was dead ! the long unused stairs oreaking woirdly be- the holstery. I was young and enthusias- by the principal and professors. The students became irritated at this strictness, and head from his body. both easily, and I got on his back, feeling sacrist; he, in his turn, applied the screw entered a long narrow chamber, dimly lit up for the noble fellow an affection as strong as at other points of the academic routiue, and by the moonlight struggling through the that of a man for his brother. He needed a farce war soon began to rage between the and the conspirators had now to bethink up, rubbed his eyes, and exclaimed, "Hold

Downie took care that in all his proceedings Hampton up before me. With one hand I but his opponents were not so careful, and with them, left the body of Downie in the remarriage; and if again she becomes a the slight form to my side-I was afraid I against them and in favor of Downie. Re- that theifentertainment was not yot quite primands and fines having failed in produc-. Half an hour's brisk gallop brought us to ing due subordination, rustication, suspanthe little village of Lowridge, and soon after I sion, and even the out in force; and in the all time to make their escape. had the landlord of the Globe House out of pulsion had to be put in force; and in the all time to make their escape.

and deadly grudge continued to be enter-I took Margaret into the parior, and mane and user, grauge contained to the state of the state o taught enjoying the leisure of the short New | tween him and the students twas known. . I Years' vacation-the pleasure being no was also known that the stadents had hired doubt greatly enhanced by the annowned are in own that he was a subject and night so the subject of the subject of during the reset blockerings-when, as he was one for by them; but beyond this moting was a be was one for by them; but beyond this moting was and took the guilty wretch in bed, by the evening shaled with his family in his official known. No noise had been heard, and no residence at the gate, a messinger informed proof of murder could be adjuded. Of ine king a carpet recently, fell out of a window He was lodged in the county jail, and the him that a gentlaman at a neighboring hotel bundred students at the could woody eight feet high. She by stumed next afternoon a judical examination took wished to speak with him. Downle ebeyed point out an entry suspected afty. More for a while, but inally got up, ploted of the the chamber leading through several rooms sufficient to convict him, and he was taken room into shother fill, at length he found sity, and the magistrates thempelves had was taken sufficient to convict him, and he was taken to the place of his confinement to await his trial at a higher courf. Three days afterwards he was taken to swait his in his sell. He had died from the effects of polson brought him by his wife; and the diset of shuge fay he too was aslend with a failed this the fay he too was aslend with a failed the the fay he too was aslend with a failed the the fay he too was aslend with a failed the the fay he too was aslend with a failed the the fay he too was aslend with a failed the the fay he too was aslend with a failed the the fay he too was aslend with a failed the the fay he too was aslend with a failed the the fay he too was aslend with a failed the the fay he too was aslend with a failed the the fay he too was aslend with a failed the the fay he too was aslend with a failed the the fay he too was aslend with a failed the the form of a courf, and powerf, the is the was particular, and avawed himself. A written onfersion in full. He entered upon all the hereine of the details with the entered upon all the hereine details with the failed by the set of the details with the set of the boots of the dust. The set of the double the failed the the form of a courf, and powerf, the is the was particular, and avawed himself. A written for the boots of the dust. The set of the boots of the dust. The set of the double the failed the the form of a courf, and powerf, the is the was particular, and avawed himself. A written for the failed the set of the boots of the dust. The set of the boots of the dust. The set of the boots o said an offended judge to a noisy person h court. "You've no right to sommit a nuisance." replied the offender.

It is said some babies are so small that they can orcep into quart measures; but the

In families well ordered there is always one firm and sweet temper which control without scoming to dictate. The essence of all fine breeding is in the gift of conciliation. Some one has taken the trouble to calcuthe world, and has concluded that the ex-

Fright had killed him as effectually as if pense amounts to about thirty million dolthe ax of a real headsman-had severed his lars annually.

A sleepy churchwarden, who often played

Every state and condition of life, if at tended with virtue, is undisturbed and delightful.; but when, vice is intermixed; it.

A female servant in Newport, while ba place. Margaret's testimony was amply the summons, and was ushered from one over, the students were southered over the earpet; and went about her business. Bay aglas dep ( all m Willing umpire these form

w your mother