BAUM's .-- We were no little surprised, the other day at seeing the amount of liquors that had just been unleaded in f out of the establishment of A. Baum &Co. They must be doing an immense business, but it is no wonder, when we recollect that they keep constantly on hand every variety of liquors from the purset to the cheapest, and sell then at astonishingly low rates. Go there, ask for what you want, and you will get it, without any deception.a

BROULDN'T WONDER .- Reports BRy whether sorrectly or not, we do not know that the "loyal" feminines of this and asveral etiler towns throughout the county, are forwarding petitions to Congress praying for tered, when we have known for years to be exceedingly "loyal," and asked the price | sold. of a certain piece of goods, she was told, in the very polite manner, but thinking the price to bigh. She began giving the clork a segular toungue-lashing, inishing off by saying that there whan't a bit of use in put. ting the price of goods so high on account of the war, for it didn't 'stop, it a bit.' "Smart woman that ! Almost as great a statesman as Lincoln.

On HAND .- Ayer's American almanac has new skrived and is ready for delivery gratis at the agents, to all who call for it. This number contains a treatise on Scrofula and its kindred complaints, which is well worth parusal. It also gives much general medical information, which is useful and should be kept against a time of need in Syny family. Its compliation of jokes and anendotes is about the beat that reaches un; and them does together have given it a sirthe share a state of the state of any one book of the the world.
