Answers to Correspondents. F. M. G.—We have not any like it, so far. QUITA.—We wash our hands of the matter.

Things About Town and County

Things About Town and County. Filled.—The ice houses in town, and two or three rooms in our county jail.

Important Orders

Important Orders.—We are reliably informed that Provost Marshal Blair, has received an order from the War Department, directing that the names of all those who paid commutation in 1864, shall be put in the wheel in the approaching draft.

Acquitted

Acquitted.—The trial of Messrs. Haupt and Dinges, employees of the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad, indicted for manslaughter, resulted in their acquittal by the jury.

Protracted Meetings

Protracted meetings are in progress at the Methodist and United Brethren churches in this place, which, we are told, are being attended with the happiest results.

Says Nothing

Says Nothing.—Brother McClure thinks that a Centre County Grand Jury would not find a bill against the devil. Well, it might not, but still could consistently indict him.

Thanks

Thanks.—Hon. Kirke Haines, of the State Senate, and our efficient member of the House of Representatives, Hon. C. T. Alexander, will please accept our thanks for public documents.

Good

Good.—Only TALK.—A writer in one of the Philadelphia papers states that Clearfield, and parts of Centre County are destined yet to become the greatest oil regions in Pennsylvania.

Rumor

Rumor.—It is reported that every acre of land along the Bald Eagle Valley has been leased, for the purpose of boring for "oil."
