"Dr. Ayen. Bly does Sir: I have found your Sansarahilla an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and effectual in some cases that were too obstanate to yield to other remedies. I do not know a last we can employ with more certainty of success, where a poweriul alterative is required."
Mr. Chas. S. You Lete, of New Brunneick, N. J., mi aiterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liere, of New Brussnick, N. DYSPEPSIA! DESPENSIA!

I, Elizabeth Branson, of Brandywine, Del., formerly of Old Chester, Del., do certify that, for one year and a half I suffered everything but death from that awful disease effiled Dyspepsia. My whole system twas prostrated with weakness and nervous debility: I could not digest my food; If 1 ate even a cracker or the smallest amount of food, it would return just as I swallowed it; I became so contrewalls that I would not have a passage in less than from four and often eight days; under this immense, suffering, my mind seemed entirely to give why. I had fireadful hortor and evil forshodings. I thought every body hated me, and I hated everybody; I could not hear my husband or my own children, everything appeared to be horror etricken to me; I had no ambition to do anything; I lost all love of family and home: I would ramble and wander from place to place, but could not be contented; I felt that I was doomed to hell, and that there was no heaven for mc, and was often tempted to combint aucide, so near was my whole nervous system destroyed, and also my mind from that awful complaint. DYSPEPSIA: DYSPEPSIA: I, Moses Tobin, of Cheltenham, Montgomery county, Pa., have suffered for more than one year, everything but death itself from that aw ful disease called Dyspepsia. I employed in jear, everything but death itself from that aw ful disease called Dyspepsia. I employed in that two five of the most spinnent physicians in Philadelphia. They did all they could for me with medicines and cupping, but still I was no better. I then went to the Pennsylvania Unversity, in order to place myself in of the best medical talents of the country, but their medicines failed to do me any good and oftentimes I wished for death to relieve me of my suffering but recing Dr. Wishart's advertisement in the Philadelphia Bulletin I determined to try onco more, with little faith. I called on Dr. Wishart and fold blin if I could have died I would not have troubled him, and then related my sufferings to him. The Boctor said that if he fail ed to cure me of Dyspepsia, it would be the fifth case in two years, so I put myself under his treatment, and although I had been for most I vomiting nearly everything I ate, my stomach swollen with wind, and filled with pain beyond description, I bought a box of his Dyspepsia Vomiting nearly everything I ate, my stomach swollen with wind, and filled with pain beyond description, I bought a box of his Dyspepsia. I could eat as hearty a meal as any person in the State of Ponnsylvania, and in thirty days was a well man. I invite any person suffering and the great cure I received. I would say to Dyspepsia, everywhere, that Dr. Wishart's, I believe, the only person on earth that can cure Dyspepsia with any degree of certainty.

DYSPEPSIA! DYSPEPSIA!

I, Samuel D. Haven, have been a great sufferer with Chronic Dyspepsis and Inflamation of the Kidneys for three years. I employed three or lour of the most emisent physicians of Philadelphia, also of Burlington, New Jersey. They did all they could for me, but all to he purpose. I was constantly filled with awful pain and distreas, and with constant belohing of wind and sour acid. My tengue was covered with a white coating of micros until it cracked in large furrows and was dreadfully nore. Oh! I oftentimes wished for death to relieve me of my sufactings, for Liand lost all hope of ever being well again. I made it a subject of prayer to Cod that he would direct me to some physicians or medicines' that weall came me.
