Fye-Lotion is warranted to be the best remedy in the world for weak and sore eyes. Price 25 ints. Sold by Druggists. 20-1y Rating Early.-A few of the farmers in the upper end of the county have begun cutting their grass. Rather early we think to make good hay. to make good hay.

TERFSICHOREAN.-The "lads and lasses" of Snow Shoe, Intend having a little cotilhan party at Uzzle's Hotel on the evening of the 4th of July. We wish them a pleasant time.

WHERE ARE THEY !--- Out of about thirtern hundred soldiers, that went into the tisth Regiment from this county, we have been told that only one hundred and sixty returned.

Going Up .- Nine new residences are now being area ad within the borough limus, more improvement than has been made in Beltefonte for nine years. We'll be somebody yot.

TURNED OUT .- The neuro hut near the Gas works has been torn down, and its inhabitants turned out to bunt another roost. Where's our abolition philanthropists now ? They are needed.

Too HEAVY .--- Throughout this county the wheat crop has grown so rank, that much of it is feared, will not be filled; some of the fields are as flat as though they had been rolled down, RECOVERING .- Mr. Abraham Stuart, who was severely injured by the breaking of a scaffold at Mr. Waggners new building sereral weeks since, we are glad to learn is fast recovering, and will soon be able to lesume his work again.

THE PLACE TO HAVE THEM TRIED .--- We were the recipient on Tuesday evening last, of a fine lot of most delicious strawberries, from Mrs. M. J. Roush, for which the fair dame will please accept our most sincers thanks. We do not believe the strawberries sent us can be heat either for size or flavor, by any one about, but, as we are open to conviction, those who have them may send them in, and we will test them fairly.

PROLIFIO .--- It is reported, whether correally we cannot say, that a nigger wench living in the suburbs of town, was delivered on Friday last of three little cuffees, all of whom are now, living and doing well. Some of our Abolition townsmen, were considerably elated over the event, as it gives great promise of the African friends doing what they can to increase the population, if they will do nothing to support it. Some who have seen the little nigs, say they have a remarkable resemblance to some of our extremely loyal citizens.

The Borough of Howard being unintentionally omitted in the list of committees published last week, the following named gentlemen were appointed for that borough : -Robert Cook, James Furey, Alexander Kuoll, Balser Webber.

On motion Jesse L. Test, was added to the committee of Rush township. The following resolutions were offered by or elsewhere.

H. N. McAllister, Esq., and after some discussion, were unanimously adopted : Resolved. That the Committee recommend stop to it.

Resolved, That the Committee recommend that the oltizons of the county place them-selve immediately in communion with the respective township and borough commit-tees, and through them gontribute provie-ions for the Court Soldiers Ban-quet, in proportion to the number of people expected to attend from their respective dis-tricts, and through them to contribute mon-ey to defray their portion of the necossary cash expenditures. Resolved, That whilst we honor the re-turned foldiers, it is meet and proper that prominent abolitionists of this place have sont to Washington and imported Southern contrabands, which they are now working Resolved, That whilst we honor the re-turned poldiers, it is meet and proper that we altövild rennembure the oblider of theose who have fallen in our defence, and that as a token of gratitude for the services of their fathers, we do hereby appropriate all and whaterer balance-may be left of the cash subscriptions, after paying necessary ex-penses, for the clothing of the Centre county by direction of the State, at McAllisterville, but in a little while they will begin to see the "blessinge" they derive from the freefor boarding and clothes, and very small the "blessings" they derive from the freedom of the negro, and the sympathy aboli-The subject as to where the celebration should be held was then discussed, when T. M. Hall offered the following resolution: Resolved, That the Soldiers Banquet -of Centre county be held at or near the Borof Logausville, Clinton county, has purchased and is now selling rights for J.
