Fice. - Some rich scenes might have been therved in the court-house yard on the evening of the "fourth" during the setting off of the fire-works, by any one on the look out for the ridiculous. It seemed to have been turned into one grand court-house in reality, and amorous swains might have been seen with their arms wound lovingly around the waists of their duloinens.' Here and there a couple, even more tander than the others, could be seen apart by themsolves, indulging, parhaps in the love that only they could appreciate. We have beard of some funny things that occurred, but forbear to repeat them here.

PERSONAL .-- We had the pleasure of a fall, on Tuesday morning last, from John Office, at Washington city, D. C. Mr. Cuncomplished printers in the United States, and has for somettime filled the very responsible position he now occupies with much and taste. The position of foremsn in the Covernment Office is a highly important one, and requires a man of ability, discretion, firmness and judgment. These qualities Mr. Cunningham is said to possess in an eminent degree, and no more appropriate selection for the position could possibly have been made. at the risk of being considered vain, we will tell about it: It was in the form of a magnincent large cake, baked with the most exquisite skill, and frosted and decorated with elegant tasts. On the top it bore an inscription, in raised letters of sugar, so flattering to our humble efforts in bohalf of Constitutional Law, that we forbear to publish it, simply returning our thanks for the compliment implied. As far as we have been able, we have done what we could to prevent the Ship of State, from being deshed to pieces upon the breakers of functions, and if we have been made to suffer for our devotion to the cause, it is only in accordance with the rule that every great principlemust be established at the expense of the convenience the imprisonment, or, perhaps, the destroy one or more of its adharants. These things will all come right after while, however. In the meantime, we shall con-

Barly as our citizens were up, however they were not too soos for the visitors, who began to pour into town directly after breakfast in such crowds that it soon became evi dent Bellefonte would scarcely suffice to hold them. Very soon the hotels were all ber of languages and dislocts upon the jammed, and about ten o'clock Allegheny, cued, the finest portions of the exhibition. and Bishop streets were one dense mass of people, through which it was exceedingly spectators, and we believe there was no difficult for a passer-by to make his way. It is supposed that about four or five thousand people were congregated in those two streets at that time, and the growd still contipued to increase The most decorous crder prevailed. Sheriff Canley was at the head of a police force of fifty men, and Gen. Beaver, who is also our Chief Burgoss, bad largely fucreased his municipal force. Between the General and the Sheriff a perfect understanding existed, and the result, was a most excellent preservation of the peace. This state of affairs confinued all day, and not a solitary fight occurred to mar the har-
