WISTAR'S BALSAM
OF WILD CHERRY.
ONE OF THE OLDEST AND MOST RELIABLE REMEDIES IN THE WORLD FOR Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Croup, and every affection of
THE THROAT, LUNGS AND CHEST, INCLUDING EVEN CONSUMPTION.
WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.
So general has the use of this remedy become, so popular is it everywhere, that it is unnecessary to recount its virtues. Its work speak for it, and find utterance in the abundant and voluntary testimony of the many who from long suffering and settled disease have by its use been restored to primitive vigor and health. We can present a mass of evidence in proof of our assertions, that CANNOT BE DISCREDITED.
THE REV. JACOB SECHLER,
well known and highly respected among the German people of this country, makes the following statement for the benefit of the afflicted:
HANOVER, Pa., Feb. 18 1859.
Dear Sir—Having realized in my family by many benefits in the use of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—I feel it a pleasure to communicate to the public. Nearly two years ago my wife was attacked with a bad cough, which finally developed into a confirmed consumption. Two of our physicians were consulted. By their prescriptions and by the use of other remedies we labored hard to break the fatal power of the disease, but without success. Her cough became more distressing, her pain in the breast more severe, and her strength more prostrated. Finally we were induced to try your Balsam of Wild Cherry. The first bottle relieved her cough, and by the time she had taken the fourth bottle she was entirely free from pain in the breast, and her cough was gone. She has since enjoyed excellent health. Her case was a very severe one, and was pronounced by her physicians to be confirmed consumption. Yours, with respect,
JACOB SECHLER.
FROM JESSE SMITH, ESQ.
Cashier of the Millerstown County Bank, Miffl[illegible]
Millerstown, Perry Co., Pa., Feb. 18, 1859.
Having used the Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for about [illegible] years in my family, and in the great majority of cases with the most satisfactory results, I consider it a valuable remedy on account of its [illegible] coughs, colds, croups, &c., and a remedy which I consider to be entirely innocent, and may be taken with perfect safety by the most delicate in health.
FROM HON. JOHN R. SMITH.
A distinguished Lawyer in Westminster, Md.:
I have on several occasions used Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for myself and children, and always with the most beneficial results. I know of no remedy which is more efficacious in cases of deserving of general use.
The Balsam has also been used with excellent effect by J. B. Ellis, Merchant, Hall of Records, Md.
