THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY GETTING PLENTY .- Penches that at first commanded from $6 to $7 per bushel in this market, can now be had for two.

- New Chundn .- We understand that the Catholics of Show Shoe, intend erecting a now church in that focality shortly.

Atyoir Enery .- Our Jail has but two coupants at prosent. Mrs. Nestlerode charged with golsoning her husband, and a man by the name of Miller charged with atealing watches.

STRAWBERRIES .- The next two weeks will be an excellent time to set out strawterry plants. If properly cared for, they well amply repay the trouble in faut next

Eap.—The recent rains have made some of the roads in this section of the county almost impassible. They have not lessened the si e or beauty of the mud holes about town, which our town council seem so in-'ent on keeping up for public inconveni-

Pack Business .- There are some young men in this town who amuse themselves when other people are sleeping by making right hideous with their noise, tenring lowe signs, &c., who had better be engaged at senething else. It is neither smart, honorable nor profitable employment.

Sivrencen.-Peter Galfeno, who murerel, Sergeant Shannon, of Centre Hall, while on dufy at Carlisle last spring, has even sentenced to imprisonment for five years in the Bastern Penitentiary.

Figure on Hand, We noticed on our treets during the past week no less than ive imported "new born children of the nation," who have been brought here by wersaipers of Sambo, for the purpose of 'he wages of our white laborers. So we Doing WELL .- We are glad to see that of George Peck who has established a first stand near the Conrad House is doing a right good business. Mr. Peck constantly keeps on hand, a "right smart" assortment of fguits of all kinds, which he lisposes of at very reasonable rates.

MAKING PREPERATIONS. Some of our farmers are making preparations to attend the State fair. We don't see why Centre county should not be well represented there. It certainly has as good horses, dows, sheep, lings &c., and as good seeds, and grains and other matters of an agricultural character as any county in the State.

IRPORTANT TO SOLDIERS.—The Commissioner of Pensions has decided that in accordance with the Act of Congress, claim' nis are prohibited under severa penalty from receiving more than ten dollars in all for their services in prosecuting any pension claim, or from receiving shy part of such ice in advance, or any per centage of any claim, or of any portion thereof for pension or bdinty. If any claim agent charges more than the fixed rates he should be made to suffer the penalty.

BEWARE OF THEE. - Counterfeits of the have made their appearance in large amounts. They can be easily detected, however, even when new, as the paper is not only of a very poor quality, but the engraving is of an exceedingly rough and coarse appearance. The counterfeits of this issue makes the list complete—the localities. whole series having been subjected to the RATHER ROUGH.-The Anglo African, pitches into constable Stone in a rather rough manner, for not fulfilling his official duties in a more satisfactory manner,. As Mr. Stone is an especial favorite of that party about election time, and as he attends to his duties just about as well as any of the other abolition officials about town, we can't see why the organ of that party should single him out, as a target for its mullion and spleem.

GETTING ALONG .- Bellefonte if not in all, rapid strides towards becoming a city It has its fruit stands, its boot blacks, its rowdies, its gambling hells, its pick pockets, its house breakers, Worthless officers, bad boys, dead rats, filthy alleys, dark corners, lewd women, suacy wenches, crazy abolitionists, and everything in fact calculated to make it a first class city. But size, and a treasury,fat exough to feed its officials without their troubling themselves with work.

"FERMENST" THE NIGGER. We have blue" who recently "outle marching home from Dixle's land, and find but one senti-ment prevalent athong them on the subject of negro equality and negro suffrage. They are decidedly "fermenst" any such fanati-cul decirine. The boys may enough of the nigger to feel that there must be a distinc-tions and least of all do they feel like coming down to his least, at they receilly or coming down to his level, either socially or politically. We honor them for their self-tenent, as well as for their preference for a white man's government.

Bellerouge Monamars -It is a solduly that compels us to say that it Bellefome may once have boasted of her morally and Camp Meeting held the rectitude of her people, she cannot do ring last tweek, while in the altar, were so, now Every thy the tenth business struck by a stone, thrown by some rowine. more apparent that the transport rather, who were attempting at the time to break the people, have degenerated, and the good up the meeting, from the effect of which fold morally of the ancient days it fast passing away.

This day the domon of and is going about there would have been no war, and there would have been no war, and there devour," and-alus that it is so-his victims apparently jump into his clutches with an cagerness that is almost akin to joy. So corrupt have the fitoruls of the people beome, that evil is preferred to good, and, like Bungan's pilgiim at. Vanity Fair, one is astounded at the glaring wicked less that is perpetrated in the broad, open light of the day. The prevalence of this public wickedness in our midst is a subject of apprehension and alarm, and is of such vital importance to the welfare, both here and hereafter, of a portion, at least, of this community as to demand the immediate and carnest attention of the religious and moral portion of our bitizens. So great and overshadowing have the iniquities at our very doors become, that, as a public journalist having, to a certain extent, the morals of the community in charge, we test compelled, much as we regret the necessity of the tasks to notice some of the many exils that are daily stalking about among us, thrusting their baleful influences into the minds and breathing upon them the poisonous vapor. Dr. Squidland, ought to expine those sufferent himself, the most aggrarated chronic cases their seductions, and finally plunging them downward into that black and herrible gulf from whence ascend nothing save the "smoke of their torment" and their neverdying groans of despair. ying groans of despair. '}

Bellefonte, from its situation, built upon the "everlasting hills" and surrounded by mountains whose tall peaks reach up to kishe clouds of heaven, might naturally be supposed to be pervaded by as healthy at atmosphere morally as it is physically But, unhappily, the effects of Adam's fai are felt here as sensibly and as sadly as it towns tess favored by Nature, and all the evil accompaniments of that most unfortufate departure from the commands of wise and just Creator are here present in all their horrible deformity and malignity The favor's which Nature has bestowed or us in the way of mountains and hills and brooks and pure air, as barriers against the approach of physical disease, seem to be powerless to prevent the ravages of the moral lepromay which has care. It is a Burchfield, John hold of the bearts of the people. It is a Burchfield, John hold of Coan, Mis Julia moral leprousy which has taken such fast fearful thing to think about, and did our citizens but take the trouble, as it is their rowding out of employment and lessening duty, to visit and explore some of the dens and haunts of iniquity with which this town abounds, they would be shocked and horrified to see the precipice over which they have been hanging, in fancied security, for so long a period of time. Among the evils with which our town is tursed is that of drunkenness. Daily and nightly our streets are made the scenes of bacchanalian revelries and coarse careusings, to the disgust and endangerment of peaceable citizens, especially ladies. So great has this evil become, and so greatly has rowdyism increased in consequence of it, that it is not safe for a lady to walk the streets after nightfall unless accompanied by a gentleman, and even then it is not pleasant. Drunken rowdies are at every corner, and female purity is not safe from insulf and outrage. Fighting and swearing are also necessary incidental to this disgusting vice, and almost every day and night a "mill" occurs between two or more par-ties, wrought up to a pitch of frenzy by the maddening fumes of ret-gut whisky; while God's pure air is tainted with horrible blasphemy from brandy-polluted lips which never think to speak His hely name with reverenco.

Gaming is another vice- which requires notice at our hands. This is practiced in Bellefonte to an extent little thought of by BRWARE OF THEM.—Counterfeits of the this people Every little den has its gaming hast (fifty bent) issue of postfil currency table, and, nightly, crowds of young men they be seen seated around them, while the words "deal!" "pass!" "trump!" &c., may be heard, intermingled with oaths. To say that they play for money would be superfluous, as that fact has long been patent to everybody at all acquainted with these

The love of lewd women is also a crying sin in our midst. Our borough and the country about it are very productive of these " fallen angels," and the energy with which they ply their vocation is worthy of better cause. In pullic and in private, these "unchaste nymphs" hold out their inducoments, and the visite they receive from the devotces of sensualism are neither " few nor far between." The example set is daily and hourly corrupting the young of both somes, and vice is retting to be looked apon as a "monster of not so frightful e mein" as the lible and pocts have heretofore taught us to believe. In this connex-15 certainly in some particulars, making fon we might quote, with truth, the words of the poet:

"Vice is a monster of each frightful mein, That to be hated needs but to be seen; Int, seen too oft, familiar with his face, We high endure, then pity, then embrace!"

In the above remarks we have only given few facts. Had we fine and space to spare we might go on and cire other instances of depravity, but these must suffice for the present. It is now the duty official community and of the officers charged with the execution of the laws to root out these talked with a large number of the boys in evils and punish their perpetrators. Ministers of the gospel mould also do woll to Bellefente, December 19th 1862,-tf. WHAT THE OLD SAW-FISH SAW. There was an old shw-fish down in the sea, And he was as queer as a fish could be.

A fish of rather remarkable strength, Some eighteen or tweenty feet in length. At the end of his note, and his upper jaw, lle carried a terribly powerful saw.

He haved far down in the briny deep,
Where the lobsters play, and the deliphins leap

It came to pass on a recent day, That the Telegraph Cable was droffped that way "Ho! Ho!" says he, with a fishy laugh,
"I see the Atlantic Telegraph!"

"It is certainly clear to me, What its effect on the fishes may be." "But, whether it's cvil, or whether it's goo It shan't pass through this neighborhood."

"Evil or good, I know what I'll do; I'll got at the thing, and saw it through!" 10 So he sawed it through with his terrible sa Which he carried about on his upper jaw

Just about that time of day, The signals ceased at Yalencia Bay! And what was the reason no one knew,
