

Democratic Watchman

TERMS: $2 per year when paid in advance, $2.50 when not paid in advance, and $3.00 when not paid before the expiration of the year.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

PHILLY.—Not until after the election. We are too much crowded now. Can you give us a call?
LOUISIANA.—We are not capable of expressing an opinion on such a delicate subject. You had better consult your grandmother.
LEWIS.—We believe you are right. Circumstances alter cases, and there may exist in this case as to justify the opinion you have expressed.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

THE MITE SOCIETY of the Methodist Church met last Monday night at Mr. D. M. Wagner's house on Allegheny street. It will meet there on next Monday night again.

The new residence of Mr. David M. Wagner, on the corner of High and Spring streets, is fast approaching completion. When finished it will be one of the finest and most elegant residences in town.

New house.—Mr. Joseph Schell, Jr., of this place, is putting up a neat frame residence on his lot on Bishop street on the north eastern extremity of the borough. Mr. John McDermott is erecting a substantial stone edifice in the same locality.

Improvement.—Mr. T. R. Reynolds, having purchased the old Hickok property, on Bishop street, is now making some additions to the building in the way of an extension to the rear. We believe it is the intention of Mr. Reynolds to remodel the whole premises.

Loss.—On Sunday last while returning from Episcopal Church, a lady lost a pair of silver mounted spectacles, between the church and the lodge. The name of "A. B." was inscribed upon the spectacles, and they are valuable as being the gift of a friend. By returning them to Miss Maria Amour on this office, the finder will suitably be rewarded.

Going to the Fair.—Every day since Tuesday, folks from this part of the county have been leaving for the State Fair at Wilkes-Barre. An immense crowd has been gathered there during the week, and people of all kinds and conditions, have been there to see the sights. No doubt the hotels, stores, shops and the street railroad display a picture over the influx of visitors to the town.

Strawberry has received a splendid lot of new goods, which is now opening for the inspection of the public. They are truly a magnificent collection, and mark Sternberg as a man of taste and discernment. It is really astonishing the amount of goods that Mr. S. sells; as one stock arrives, another is always kept up, and the public generally find whatever they want at his store. Call and see the gentleman.

ASTORIA FIRE.—On Sunday night, about half past ten o'clock, our citizens were wakened by the cry of fire, which was seen to issue from the roof of a large building on Chesapeake, belonging to Mr. R. D. Cunningham, near the old Burnside tannery, and it is better known as the old Williams property and was a white plastered building. Had the night been windy the old tannery and a small frame building close by would have been ignited. As it was, however, no damage was done, save to the building in which the flames were first observed, which was burnt to the ground. The building was covered by insurance. The basement was occupied as a saloon, the keepers of which were so fortunate as to save their effects.

BROKE JAIL.—Three prisoners, now confined in the jail at this place, broke out on Monday last, and were taken to court on Sunday. They first tried to break through the door, but were firmly and courageously held against them by Miss Conley, the sheriff's daughter. One of the prisoners attempted to force her away from the door, and the other two, seeing that he was not likely to succeed in his undertaking, embraced the opportunity to make their escape through a window, taking snuff and all with them. The other one then let go of Miss Conley and followed his companions in the same way. The sheriff and the Deputy were both absent at the time. An exciting chase took place after the runaway, and they were all three finally caught and returned to the prison, where they are once again in duress with.

REHNSBURG SELECT SCHOOL.—Having had the pleasure of a visit to this school, a few days ago, we were not prepared to find such a large and respectable one, composed of young men and young ladies principally from the counties of Clinton and Centre. By an examination of the rolls, we found that the number of students in attendance is thirty-three; out of which number from fifty to thirty-five are preparing to teach the coming winter. Quite a respectable number indeed, to be collected together at the little town of Rehnsburg, which however is situated in the heart of a beautiful and fertile valley, the inhabitants of which, mostly follow agricultural pursuits.

Now as every effect has its cause, so there must be some cause of attraction there to command the attendance of so large and respectable a number of students; and we doubt whether any other school in the county can boast of more or better material, the cause of which we can attribute to no other than the popularity of its Principal, R. A. Miesgo, one of the most prominent and successful teachers in this county, to whom such credit is due for his untiring energy and zeal, in insinuating into the minds of the youth a thirst for knowledge, and who has been successful as a teacher at the home of his youth in spite of the old proverb that "a Prophet is no honor in his own country."

To WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—Grasping at every straw that floats upon the political current, the abolitionists are now trying to frighten certain persons from the polls. "Skeholders," as they call the men who fill their election district through fear of being conscripted, are told that they have no right to vote, and if they do, the election will be overturned in the district where they cast their ballots. To these persons we would say, take no heed of any such threats. If otherwise qualified, you are just as legal voters under the Constitution and laws of Pennsylvania as any other individuals. Be assessed, pay your taxes, and go to the polls and deposit your ballots, and if any Judge or inspector of election board refuses to receive it, how they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. We do not mean this as any idle threat, but as what we know to be firm and settled resolution. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors:

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

Section 1 of Article 34, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania reads as follows: "In elections, the citizens every year, free men of the State, at every election, shall have the right to vote, and to elect, in any district, any one or more persons to be qualified electors. And in order that no man may plead ignorance on the subject, we give below the law regulating the qualification of voters and the punishment for rejecting the votes of qualified electors."

There are many preparations recommended for these diseases, but there is not a doubt that Dr. Strickland's Mefiborus Cough Balsam is the best remedy. We have known it to effect a cure in the most cases of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, and primary cases of Consumption.

Dr. Strickland's Mefiborus Cough Balsam is a sure remedy for the most cases of acute or chronic Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Dysentery in Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture—thousands have been cured by it—our Government uses it in the hospitals. It has cured many of our soldiers after all other means have failed. In fact we have enough proof of the efficacy of this valuable preparation of astringents, absorbents, stimulants and carminatives to advise every one of our readers to get a bottle and have it ready, and to those who suffer try it directly. Sold by Druggists everywhere. Ask for Dr. Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture. 20-ly

MARRIED.
On September 21st, 1865, by the Rev. S. Creighton, Major C. L. Green, of Troy, Pa. and Miss Lucy A. Weidman, of Milesburg, Centre County, Pa.

DEED.
On the 27th inst., at the Cummings House, Eddie, infant son of Mrs. Little Cope, of this place, aged about six months, died of scarlet fever, aged about six years, having resided in this State one year, and in the election district where he died.

At his residence, in Clinton county, September 18th, of typhoid fever, Mr. Andrew Mendenhall, aged about 60 years, died of scarlet fever, aged about six years, having resided in this State one year, and in the election district where he died.

On the 20th inst., in Potter township, Mrs. Kate, wife of Samuel Slack, and daughter of Jacob Wagner, in the 26th year of her pilgrimage. This is the supreme law of Pennsylvania regulating the qualification of voters. Now for the penalty of rejecting the vote of a qualified elector.

The 103rd Section of the Act of Assembly of July 24, 1839, Parton's Digest, page 381 reads as follows: "If any elector at any election, shall neglect or refuse to receive the vote of any qualified citizen, each of the persons so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty, nor more than two hundred dollars."

Count the votes as any planer on these points? Election boards are requested to take note of its provisions, and act accordingly. Again we say to every man who is qualified to vote under the Constitution of Pennsylvania, go to the polls and offer your vote. If it is rejected, the election board will be indicted and punished according to law. This may be depended upon and all persons interested are requested to take note of this announcement.

THE RAILROAD AGAIN.—The citizens of Union and Centre counties, says the Milesburg Telegraph, are again called upon to take stock in the Lewisburg, Centre and Spruce Creek Railroad. We hope no false fears of failure will deter the men of capital along with their means and influence to assist in the early construction of this road. We have most positive assurance, by men who have the means, and whose interests demand its construction, that the road will be built. It is very important that the people along the proposed route should have a voice in the location of the road.

THE 103rd SECTION OF THE ACT OF ASSEMBLY OF JULY 24, 1839, PARTON'S DIGEST, PAGE 381 READS AS FOLLOWS: "If any elector at any election, shall neglect or refuse to receive the vote of any qualified citizen, each of the persons so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty, nor more than two hundred dollars."

Count the votes as any planer on these points? Election boards are requested to take note of its provisions, and act accordingly. Again we say to every man who is qualified to vote under the Constitution of Pennsylvania, go to the polls and offer your vote. If it is rejected, the election board will be indicted and punished according to law. This may be depended upon and all persons interested are requested to take note of this announcement.

THE RAILROAD AGAIN.—The citizens of Union and Centre counties, says the Milesburg Telegraph, are again called upon to take stock in the Lewisburg, Centre and Spruce Creek Railroad. We hope no false fears of failure will deter the men of capital along with their means and influence to assist in the early construction of this road. We have most positive assurance, by men who have the means, and whose interests demand its construction, that the road will be built. It is very important that the people along the proposed route should have a voice in the location of the road.

THE 103rd SECTION OF THE ACT OF ASSEMBLY OF JULY 24, 1839, PARTON'S DIGEST, PAGE 381 READS AS FOLLOWS: "If any elector at any election, shall neglect or refuse to receive the vote of any qualified citizen, each of the persons so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty, nor more than two hundred dollars."

Count the votes as any planer on these points? Election boards are requested to take note of its provisions, and act accordingly. Again we say to every man who is qualified to vote under the Constitution of Pennsylvania, go to the polls and offer your vote. If it is rejected, the election board will be indicted and punished according to law. This may be depended upon and all persons interested are requested to take note of this announcement.

THE RAILROAD AGAIN.—The citizens of Union and Centre counties, says the Milesburg Telegraph, are again called upon to take stock in the Lewisburg, Centre and Spruce Creek Railroad. We hope no false fears of failure will deter the men of capital along with their means and influence to assist in the early construction of this road. We have most positive assurance, by men who have the means, and whose interests demand its construction, that the road will be built. It is very important that the people along the proposed route should have a voice in the location of the road.

THE 103rd SECTION OF THE ACT OF ASSEMBLY OF JULY 24, 1839, PARTON'S DIGEST, PAGE 381 READS AS FOLLOWS: "If any elector at any election, shall neglect or refuse to receive the vote of any qualified citizen, each of the persons so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty, nor more than two hundred dollars."

Count the votes as any planer on these points? Election boards are requested to take note of its provisions, and act accordingly. Again we say to every man who is qualified to vote under the Constitution of Pennsylvania, go to the polls and offer your vote. If it is rejected, the election board will be indicted and punished according to law. This may be depended upon and all persons interested are requested to take note of this announcement.

THE RAILROAD AGAIN.—The citizens of Union and Centre counties, says the Milesburg Telegraph, are again called upon to take stock in the Lewisburg, Centre and Spruce Creek Railroad. We hope no false fears of failure will deter the men of capital along with their means and influence to assist in the early construction of this road. We have most positive assurance, by men who have the means, and whose interests demand its construction, that the road will be built. It is very important that the people along the proposed route should have a voice in the location of the road.

THE 103rd SECTION OF THE ACT OF ASSEMBLY OF JULY 24, 1839, PARTON'S DIGEST, PAGE 381 READS AS FOLLOWS: "If any elector at any election, shall neglect or refuse to receive the vote of any qualified citizen, each of the persons so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty, nor more than two hundred dollars."

Count the votes as any planer on these points? Election boards are requested to take note of its provisions, and act accordingly. Again we say to every man who is qualified to vote under the Constitution of Pennsylvania, go to the polls and offer your vote. If it is rejected, the election board will be indicted and punished according to law. This may be depended upon and all persons interested are requested to take note of this announcement.

THE RAILROAD AGAIN.—The citizens of Union and Centre counties, says the Milesburg Telegraph, are again called upon to take stock in the Lewisburg, Centre and Spruce Creek Railroad. We hope no false fears of failure will deter the men of capital along with their means and influence to assist in the early construction of this road. We have most positive assurance, by men who have the means, and whose interests demand its construction, that the road will be built. It is very important that the people along the proposed route should have a voice in the location of the road.

THE 103rd SECTION OF THE ACT OF ASSEMBLY OF JULY 24, 1839, PARTON'S DIGEST, PAGE 381 READS AS FOLLOWS: "If any elector at any election, shall neglect or refuse to receive the vote of any qualified citizen, each of the persons so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty, nor more than two hundred dollars."

Count the votes as any planer on these points? Election boards are requested to take note of its provisions, and act accordingly. Again we say to every man who is qualified to vote under the Constitution of Pennsylvania, go to the polls and offer your vote. If it is rejected, the election board will be indicted and punished according to law. This may be depended upon and all persons interested are requested to take note of this announcement.

THE RAILROAD AGAIN.—The citizens of Union and Centre counties, says the Milesburg Telegraph, are again called upon to take stock in the Lewisburg, Centre and Spruce Creek Railroad. We hope no false fears of failure will deter the men of capital along with their means and influence to assist in the early construction of this road. We have most positive assurance, by men who have the means, and whose interests demand its construction, that the road will be built. It is very important that the people along the proposed route should have a voice in the location of the road.

THE 103rd SECTION OF THE ACT OF ASSEMBLY OF JULY 24, 1839, PARTON'S DIGEST, PAGE 381 READS AS FOLLOWS: "If any elector at any election, shall neglect or refuse to receive the vote of any qualified citizen, each of the persons so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty, nor more than two hundred dollars."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

TALBOTT'S PILLS.—Anti Dyspeptic. Composed of highly concentrated Extract of

ROOTS AND HERBS.—The greatest medicinal value, prepared from the original prescription of the celebrated Dr. Talbott, who has cured many cases of Dyspepsia for twenty years. An infallible remedy in all Diseases of the Liver, or any derangement of the Digestive Organ, and in the cure of Diarrhoea, Dyspepsia, Scourful, Jaundice, Biliary, and Liver Complaint.

"I have used the formula from which your Pills are made, in my practice for over 12 years; they have the finest effect upon the Liver and Digestive Organs of any medicine I have used, and are the most perfect Purgative which has ever yet been made by anybody. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their stimulating properties stimulate the vital activity of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed dyspepsia, distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases, and being purely vegetable are free from any risk or harm. No person who has used these Pills will ever be without them."

These pills purify the blood and remove all impurities from the system, being a positive cure for FEVERS, Headache, Piles, Menstrual Disorders, and Hereditary Taints. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their stimulating properties stimulate the vital activity of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed dyspepsia, distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases, and being purely vegetable are free from any risk or harm. No person who has used these Pills will ever be without them."

For the Borough of Belleville and Spring and Denver townships at the Court House in Belleville, Pa. For the Borough of Harris at the house of Martin Murphy.

For the Borough of Curstain at the school house of Robert Mans.

For the Township of Burnside at the house of Martin Murphy.

For the Township of Curstain at the school house of Robert Mans.

For the Township of Harris at the school house in Houbartburg.

For the Township of Harris at the school house in Houbartburg.

For the Township of Harris at the school house in Houbartburg.

For the Township of Harris at the school house in Houbartburg.

For the Township of Harris at the school house in Houbartburg.

For the Township of Harris at the school house in Houbartburg.

For the Township of Harris at the school house in Houbartburg.

For the Township of Harris at the school house in Houbartburg.

For the Township of Harris at the school house in Houbartburg.

For the Township of Harris at the school house in Houbartburg.

For the Township of Harris at the school house in Houbartburg.

For the Township of Harris at the school house in Houbartburg.

For the Township of Harris at the school house in Houbartburg.

For the Township of Harris at the school house in Houbartburg.

For the Township of Harris at the school house in Houbartburg.

For the Township of Harris at the school house in Houbartburg.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

GENERAL ELECTION PROCLAMATION. Pursuant to an act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act relating to the elections of the Commonwealth, approved the second day of July, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine," RICHARD CONLEY, High Sheriff of the County of Centre, Pennsylvania, do hereby make known and give notice to the electors of the county aforesaid, that a GENERAL ELECTION shall be held in said county, on the SECOND TUESDAY, 10th OCTOBER, 1865, at which time County and State officers will be elected, to wit:

One person for Auditor General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
One person for Surveyor-General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

One person to represent the county of Centre in the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

One person for Commissioner of the county of Centre.

One person for District Attorney of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

One person for Auditor of the county of Centre.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NEW FIRM NEW GOODS!! AND NEW PRICES!!!
HIGH RATES RUDDEN OUT!
GOODS AT OLD FASHIONED PRICES!
HOPFER & KELLER.
(Formerly Hoffa Bros.)
Would respectfully inform the world and the rest of mankind, that they have just opened out, and are daily receiving a large STOCK OF GOODS OF ALL KINDS, which they are offering at the very lowest market price.

DRY GOODS!
Consisting of the latest styles of
PICNIC AND PLAIN ALPACA,
PICNIC AND PLAIN WOOL DE LAINES,
SHEPHERD PLAIDS,
BLACK SILKS,
SCARF SILKS,
IRISH POPLINS,
WHITE GOODS,
White Counterpane,
Linen and Cotton Sheetings,
Cheests,
Cassimeres,
Belticks,
Flannels, &c.,
Shepherd Plaid Balmorale,
Black Cloths,
Cassimeres,
Vestings,
Knapsey Jeans,
Woolens,
Ladies Cloakings,
Faux Velours,
Middlesex Cloth,
Repellants, and

PLAIDS OF VARIOUS COLORS
GENTLEMEN'S WEAR
A full line of Cloths, Cassimeres, Sateenets and Vestings, all kinds and prices, with which will be sold cheap. We have constantly on hand a large and well selected stock of ALL KINDS OF CROCKERY,
GROCERIES, MACKEREL, SALT,
&c. All kinds of country produce taken in exchange for goods, and the highest market prices allowed. FRIENDS AWAKE TO YOUR INTEREST! We feel satisfied that we can suit your taste as well as your pocket.
Belleville, Sept. 8, 1865.

CROCKERY AND PROVISION STORE!
GEORGE D. PIFER.
Announces to his friends and the public generally, that he has opened a GROCERY AND PROVISION STORE, in the room formerly occupied by Mr. Sternberg as a clothing store, two doors above Mr. Livingston's book store, and near the Post Office, where he is constantly on hand the very choicest GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, TOBACCO & ASSORTED FRUIT, &c. These he will sell as low as possible, for cash or country produce. He hopes by strict attention to business to secure a respectable share of the public patronage.
Aug. 4, 1865.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.
The undersigned very respectfully informs the public, and especially lovers of music, that having obtained from the manufacturer the sole agency for the sale of the following instruments, STEINWAY & SONS'S PIANOS, MASON & HAMMOND'S CABINET ORGANS AND CARHART, NEWMAN & CO'S MELODIONS.
He is prepared to deliver to persons wishing good instruments the above at Philadelphia and New York retail prices.
Circulars sent promptly upon application, with any additional particulars desired.
N. B.—Every instrument is warranted for five years.
B. M. GREENE,
Huntingdon, Pennsylvania.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.
Letters of Administration on the estate of John M. Green, deceased, late of Rush township, having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same, to present them, duly authenticated, for settlement.
LVV DAUGHENBAUGH,
Administrator.
Sept. 8-65.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.
Letters of Administration on the estate of Samuel Carlie, deceased, late of Rush township, having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims against the same, to present them, duly authenticated, for settlement.
JESSE L. TRAP,
Administrator.
Sept. 8, 1865-65.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.