Here sail is the denocratic-form of government; and that form of government, by the confes ion of European stitus time, "gives a power of which no other form is eached be, because it meorpe rates overy man with the State) and armies every thing that helongs to the soul."

Where, in part history, does a parallel exist to the public happiness which is within the reach of the people of the United Stafes? Where, in any part of the globe, can in-stitutions be found so withed to their habitor so entitled to their love as their own trea Constitution? Every one of them, then, in whatever part of the land he has his home, must wish its perceivity. Who of them will inot acknowledge, in the words of Washington, that "every step by which the people of the United States have advanced to the character of an independent nation, we can to have been distinguished by attraced to the character of an independent nation, we must to have been distinguished by some token of "Providential agency," Who will not join with me in prayer, that the invis-jile hand which has led as through the cleads that zhouned around our path, will so guide us contact to a perfect restoration of informatial foction, that we of this day may be able to trans-mit our great inheritance, of State Government in all their rights, soft the 48-neral Government to its whole constitutional vigor, to our poster-its and the constitutional vigor, to our poster-its and the constitutional vigor, to our poster-10 its whole constitutional vigor, to our posterity, and they to their the u.h. control rations? Mr. R. E. Sellers—Denr Sir: I think it a du'
I owe to you and the public generally, to stat that I have been afflicted with Liver Complaint for a long time, and so badly, that an abstest formed and broke, which left me in a very lide state. Having heard of your celebrated Liver riles being for sale by A. E. Sharp, West Liberty, and recommended to me by my physicist, Dr. I. Smith, I concluded to give fluen a far trial. I purchased one box and found them just what they are recommended—the best laver Pills crossed, and, after taking four boxes.
I find the disease has entirely left me, and am now personly well.

Respectfully yours,
