WHAT THE OLD SAW-PISH SAW. There was an old saw-fish down in the sea, And he was as queer as a fish could be. A fish of rather remarkable strength. Some eighteen or tweenty feet in length. At the end of his nose, and his upper jaw, lie carried a terribly powerful saw

He lived far down in the briny deep, Where the lobsters play, and the delphins leap. It came to pass on a recent day, That the Telegraph Calle was dropped that way "Ho! Ho!" rays he, with a fishy laugh,
"I see the Atlantic Telegraph!"

'It is certainly clear to me. What its effect on the fishes may be." "Rut, whether it's evil, or whether it's good, It shan t pass through this fielghborhood." "Lillor good, I know what I'll do;

I'll get at the thing, and saw it through! So he sawed it through with his terrible saw, Winch he carried about on his upper jaw. Just about that time of day, The arguals ceased at Valencia Bay!
