.Rule or Ruin.

Radicalism in Congress, radicalism in the State Legislature; all constitutional obligations laughed at and spurned; the firm union of the States on the basis of fraternal affection, and equal rights under the constitution and laws, sought to be prevented by partial and persecuting legislation & the moderate policy of President Johnson repudiated by the principal leaders and, apparently, a majority of the Republican party: the negromade the pivot upon which radical policy and measures are made to turn, and permanent possession of power by those who now hold it, regardless of the interests of the country, the avowed object in view; what a dismal period of our brief history we have reached. It is enough to set the blood of free horn white American citizens boiling; enough to excite the worst passions in every true patriot's it is a privilege of which no change of cirheart; enough to stir up the spirit of commander and enries me. To the accepted prayafs of our widows and orphans, our rebellion anew, and call for a rush of armed multitudes to Washington to dissolve the Congress now sitting there, to read the daily proceedings of that revo-It a merciful Providence so ordain it, we hope to live and die among you, mutually consoling and bearing each other's burdens. It a merciful Providence so ordain it, we hope to live and die among you, mutually consoling and bearing each other's burdens. I pray God we may be restored to the home of our childhood, "for how can we sing our to change the nature of government; to change the nature of government; to substitute an arbitrary for a mild form; to centralize power; to elevate the negro and degrade the white; and, finally, having accomplished this, and prepared the minds of the people to receive, without question, any stretched arms. out opposition and without question, any law they choose to enact, strike down constitutional liberty at a blow, and I will enclose within this note the names Republic, themselves the monarchs and aristocracy of the land.

Who, of any degree of intelligence, is so blind as not to see that we are rapidly approaching this point, unless the people, awakened to a sense of their outraged rights, rebuke the active traitors at the ballot-box, or, failing in this, fall back upon the natural right of revolution and crush them by violence!

It is not to be much longer quietly borne by the people at large, that a coalition of New England fanatics, never favorable to the Union as it exists under the Constitution, should now, being in power, go on deliberately in their efforts to destroy it, and with it the liberties which the blood of the revolution and the wisdom our fathers gave to us.

We warn themein time, and we beg of them to heed the warning, that if they persist in their present course, they will raise a storm to which the one through which we have recently passed, will be but as a zephyr to a whirlwind. None but a rabbit-hearted people could submit to such measures of government as this Congress has proposed-and we are not yet prepared to believe that the descendants of the patriots of '76, and those who have fled from the oppres lands and become citizens of these states are such a people. However, a persistence in their present course will soon solve the problem and determine the question whether we deserve to be a free a bloody, bungling, wasteful war which people or have so degenerated as to be fit only for a condition of slavery.

- Defeat comes to all dismay only to cowards, is an adage that we believe every democrat has taken to heart. For notwithstanding the defeats of the past five years, nothwithstanding the contumely and abuse that has been heaped upon those who cling to the faith of their fathers; notwithstanding the outrages and acts of despotism that have been inflicted upon members of that old "party, yet never did we see a more determined spirit, or a feeling that promised more certainly of success, than at this time. From every part of the State, and not only from this State, but from all parts of the country, we have the most cheeping, most hopeful news. The star of Democracy is looming up, as the black cloud of abolitionism casts its dreary shadow over the country. The effects of puritan abolitionism are teaching a more salutary lesson to our people, than all the argument statesmen have ever been able to produce.

Let the Democracy be of good cheer. Let them look for success, but not without labor. Although our enemy is shorn of much of his strength; although division and dissension, are visible in their tanks; although scores are descring them daily; yet we must show the great veting masses that we are right, before they will give us that support necessary to make our principles, triumph without a doubt. If we go, to work now; if we labor as though we believed the future of our country rested upon the exertions of each individual member of our party, if we but do our duty, to ourselves and our country, abolitionism will go down amid the exertions of the second our country, abolitionism will go down amid the exertions of the second our country, abolitionism will go down amid the exertions of the exertions of each individual member of our party, if we but do our duty, to ourselves and our country, abolitionism will go down amid the exertions of each individual forms of the company hald an election for a board of Directors to serve the energing year, when the punishment was inflicted, it elicited acting but sighs and groans. Letter from Mrs. Jefferson Davis.

The following letter has been addressed by Mrs. Jefferson Davis to the Secretary and Agent of the Ladies Southern Association :

MILL VIRW, Ga., Dec. 4, 1865. MIL VIEW, CAL, Dec. 3, 1005.
Mr DEAR SHE: I am in receipt of your very kind letter in the name of the Ladies' Southern Aid Association, having "for its object the purpose of Hacing" me "and family in circumstances somewhat commensurate with their estimate of me and mine, and begging that I will, at my carllest convenience, designate a place to which the means so collected may be conveyed, so that they may "safely and satisfactorily" reach me.

From our desolated and impoverished friends I scarcely expected such an expression of material sympathy, though my powers of gratitude have been almost daily taxed to thank those who have, with so much heart eloquence, pleaded with the President for him who, though unsuccessful heart given you all he capable his beat ful, has given you all he could—his best energies—and whose only hope of future happiness lies in the sweet trust, often expressed, that he has not lost your confidence and love. Ignorant of all which his own people have done for him in his painful captivity, his devotion is unabated. "The unfortunate have always been descried and betrayed, but did ever man have best to complain of when he had lost the power to serve? The multitude are silent. Why should they speak, save to bim who hears best the words most secretly uttered?

"My own heart tells me the sympathy exists; that the prayers of the family hearth are not hushed. Be loving and confiding still to those from whom I have received much more than I deserve: far more official honors than I ever desired. Those for whose cause I suffer are not unworthy of the devotion of all which I had to give." This is the message of love which is sent through prison gates to our own people. I say our people, because both of us have been brought up with you; one of us was born in Mississppi, the other came to her in suffering but heroic women, our brave and true men, our innocent little children, I look for the restoration to my little children of their agonized but Christian father.

If a merciful Providence so ordain it, we erect a monarchy on the ruins of the Republic, themselves the monarchs and aristocracy of the land.

And directions of gentlemen to whom the contributions of which you speak may be inclosed. And instead of the elequent voice which so often has poured forth his love to

How so when your disunion members of Congress claim that the Union is now disfolved, and refuse to let it come together ? "It has abolished Slavery everywhere, xcept in Delaware and Kentucky.

And now it is starving the niggers to death or feeding them from the treasury. "It has placed the national credit upon a footing with that of the best nation Europe."

The Republican party took the national credit at par—run it down to 275 below par, and has it now at 40 cents below the standard.

"It has given an unprecedented impetus to our domestic industry by means of a pro-tective tariff."

The impression seems to be that Mr. C. Will the matter will then be discussed there. The impression seems to be that Mr. C. will get the seat. It will be remembered that no certificate was issued by the Governor to to either of the contestants. Coffroth had a certificate signed by four out of the five Return Judges of the district; Koentahad trumped up four bogus Return Judges, who in connection with the regular appointed judge from Bomerset county gave him a bogus certificate. The Attorney General decided that neither of the returns were regular; Coffroth being deficient in not having any returns from Somerset county, and Koontz being invalid because signed by bogus Judges. The case was left to Congress for decision. The question now decided by the Committe on Elections gives Coffroth his seat prima facia, but leaves Koonts free to contest his right to it on the merits of the case. If Cotroth has justice done him he will not have any cause to fear the further efforts of Mr. Koonts as there is no doubt that he was legally effected.

SINGULAR CASE .- One of our exchanges, says there is a young man in a town in Vermont who can not speak to his father! Previous to his birth some difference arose between his mother and her husband, and for a considerable time she refused to speak to him. This difficulty was subsequently healed—the child was born, and in due time the contract to the beautiful with its ice car, which is expected to afford unusual facility for travel upon the frozen rivers in that region. An exchange gives the following description of the rehicle:

"It will be built like a common passenger car; a pilot house will be put at the forward end of the car, and immediately back of that will be two engines Carl2.—Back of these will be a ten feet boiler, 62 flues, and in the rear of that will be the passenger apartment. There will be four bob sleighs in which the car will rest—two passenger apartment. There will be four bob sleighs in which the car will rest—two at each end—with fixeen feet apace between the forward and rear bobs. In the centre of the car will be a wheel, something similar to a cog wheel, which will cut the ice and thus propel the machine. A wheel will be in the rear to steer it by some means we did not learn. They seem to be sanguine that they can make the thing work. It will require the ice, we should presume, to be quite smooth and even, to run this car, and although we hope they may make it work, little shirt we hope they may make it work, yet we think we won't take passage on the irst trip."

-The Washington correspondent of the Ballimore Sum, (Republish) says that For-ney's Chronicle is the Author of the Ben Wade assessination hoax, as well as the Griffin story about the amputation of a ne-gro's feet, and that about the alleged oruelty of Texas physicians to the brother of Andrew Johnson. The fellow who importuned. Wade for his signature to a recommendation for office, the other day, was a Massa-busset's man, who subsequently visited Senstor Wilson on the same errand. It seems to be a part of radical tactics to only invested every sort of tale about "re bostility" and "rebel revenge," but to even torture the acts of Yankee office hunters and torture two acts of rankee onne nuners and fanatics into-tue same channel. It is diffi-cult to say whether a radical politician most hates the Southern people, an honest man, or peace and good will. Perhaps if that class of "patriots" had done some fighting on the field of battle, when the war was gothey would not be so irritable and choleric now.

THE RUMORED CABINET CHANGES .- The Philadelphia Ledger of this morning has the following special despatch from Washing-

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 .- Mr. Stanton in-

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Mr. Stanton in-tends to retire on the 1st proximo. It is not known who will succeed him. Frank P. Blair, Jr., lately Major General of volun-teers, is named. Should Mr. Stanton's retirement involve an entire remodelling of the Cabinet, Gov. Andrew, of Vassachinetts, is also named; but that is not probable, if Mr. Adams re-places Mr. Seward.

Of course Mr Doclittle is spoken of. His entire accord with the President causes his name to be brought up whenever a vacancy in the Cabinet is likely to occur, Should he enter the Cabinet, however, it will probably be as Secretary of the Interior.

Good GIRL.—An exchange paper tells the following:

in his dungeon—softened his prison walls with sunny pictures of loving eyes and outstretched arms.

Grief and gratitude seem to impose upon me silence. I would, but cannot say more. I will enclose within this note the names and directions of gentlemen to whom the contributions of which you speak may be inclosed. And instead of the eloquent voice which so often has poured forth his love to his dear people, now mute, I offer a wife's, and a mother's, and a country woman's gratitude to you and those you represent.

I have the honor to be, very gratefully and sincerely yours, Varena Davis.

The friends of Secretary Stanton desire him to accept the mission to England for him to accept the mission to Enginer, so that he may avoid the numerous trials which will be brought upon him by his victims for false and malicious imprisonment. It would be better to give him a Hatiani consulate, for it is doubtful if he will ever be able, hereafter to assimilate with any thing or creature not naturally black.

-Wade said in the Senate, in 1868. that "when he heard a man in these times talk all the time about the Constitution, he suspected him of being "traitor." The old man was right. No one can be a friend to the Constitution without being an enemy to the Rapublican party the Republican party.
