THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTRY.

GROWING "BUCOS".—The gutter at the lower end of Allegany street, and the split in the abolition party.

Good.—At the recent election in the borough of Phillipsburg, the straight out-abolition ticket received but four votes.

Fires.—A house owned and occupied by Mr. John Kline, between Oicetown and Phillipsburg, was consumed by fire on Monday night last.

The Committee appointed to go to Harrisburg, to see the Governor in relation to the Railroad Bill, recently passed by the Legislature, have returned, reporting favorably, and that his Excellency will, in all probability, veto the bill.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Jane Andrews, a widow lady, lately engaged as cook at one of the number camps near Phillipsburg, accidentally shot herself in the bowels, on Monday last, while handling one of Sharp's repeating pistols. It is feared that the wound will prove fatal.

BAIL ROAD.—Meeting.—A large number of our citizens assembled in public meeting on Tuesday evening, March 6th, 1860, at the court house, in Bellefonte, with a view to a full expression of opinions regarding the recent legislation at Harrisburg, hostile to the interests of the Atlantic and Great Western Railway.

On motion, Hon. George Boal, of Harris-burgh, was called to the chair.

The following named gentlemen were chosen Vice Presidents:

S. T. Shugert, Bellefonte.
Jacob Balmer, Howard.
Daniel Z. Kline, Spring.
William Mauck, Penn.
Roland Curtis, Boggs.
David Weaver, Spring.
Joseph E. Mitchell, Beaver.
M. S. McAllister, Cambria.
John H. Barnhart, Spring.
Richard Conley, Bellefonte.
Benjamin Liggett, Library.
John Hooper, Bellefonte.

On motion, A. B. Hatchfield, and J. D.
Shugert, were appointed Secretaries.

On motion the following named gentlemen were appointed a committee to report resolutions, expressive of the views of Centre county, assembled here:

H. N. McAllister, R. H. Duncan, W. H.
Kline, E. C. Humes, P. B. Wilson, D. G.
Bush, J. H. Linn, who reported the following, which were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the Bill entitled "An act to authorize the Philadelphia and Erie Rail Road company to construct branches of Rail Roads from the main line," which passed the Senate and House of Representatives, almost without consideration, and now awaits the approval or disapproval of the Governor, merits no delay, but the universal concurrence of a virtuous people.

Resolved, That we call upon the Governor to disapprove of the Bill for the following reasons/First, Because it grants to a great and growing monopoly the right to make Rail Roads at pleasure, and to charge exorbitant rates of freight, to the entire injury of the State.
Next, With power to borrow by mortgaging the branches of all or any of the roads, money sufficient to build and stock the same.

Second.—Because it charter the Pennsylvania Rail Road company lessors of the Philadelphia and Erie Rail Road to thwart, hinder and delay the construction of the Central and Great Western Rail Roads, and all other roads not under their supervision and control, by simply filing maps of their projected roads in the office of the secretary of the commonwealth, which, without more, will validate the to the location therein indicated.

Third, Because it places in the power of one, and only one, the chief controller of the underdeveloped resources of one half our territory in this, that the N. C. and O. L. Territories, and the forests of timber, may not for five years at least after the filing of the map be reached by rail, at the will and pleasure of the directors of the Pennsylvania Rail Road company, and in the manner which will make expensive traffic may be filed even after a company has been formed, a sure market and a character applied for those locally interested, and that upon the very line surveyed by them.

Fourth, Because the enormous and exclusive right imposed no obligation whatever, on expensive railroads, and the Rail Roads, to construct and maintain them in every respect of the state, and with considerable expense, of our representatives against the will of the people, who if afforded an opportunity, would consider it by large majorities in every county of the commonwealth.

The meeting was addressed by Gen. Benner, Col. Blatt, and D. G. Bush, esq.

Our motion & resolution of our citizens was appointed to proceed to Harrisburg, by the first train, to present the resolutions, and proceedings of this meeting to His Excellency, the Governor, for his consideration, and to use their influence to induce the Executive to interpose his veto to guard us from such foolish legislation.

The following named gentlemen were named as the delegation:

E. C. Humes, Roland Curtis, H. N. Duncan, James A. Foster, Robert Valentine, J. M. McCoy, W. H. Kline, S. T. Shugert, John Hooper, D. G. Bush, Richard Conley, J. H. Mitchell, J. B. Caldwell, F. M. Blauchard, J. C. Kline, Charles McCafferty, J. H. Myers, G. W. Bush, W. H. Dickey, W. H. Dickey, J. H. Myers, W. H. Dickey, H. N. Duncan, W. H. Dickey, D. G. Bush, W. H. Dickey, D. B. Caldwell, W. H. Dickey, Dr. J. H. Myers, W. H. Dickey.

On motion the following named persons were requested to address the delegation:

A. B. Hatchfield, General Secretary, J. D. Shugert, Vice President.

O. P.—A grand Parade and Celebration of the I. O. O. F., consisting part of members from Grand Lodge Lodge, No. 220, and Clinton Lodge, No. 28, was held at Millheim Tuesday, the 27th of February.

On Monday, the 26th, a few members and citizens of Millheim, accompanied by the Millheim Brass Band, under the leadership of Prof. Bellows, proceeded to Madisonburg to escort the O. P. to Millheim, where they arrived about 6 o'clock. At 6 o'clock a meeting was held in the Town Hall, which was filled to its utmost capacity.
Many persons being unable to obtain seats, the audience being held outside.
The meeting was opened by the Chief Marshal, J. U. Bryan, an ode was sung by the O. P. under the direction of Prof.
Bellows. A prayer was then offered by Prof.
Bellows, esq.

The Band then discovered an appropriate time after which G. O. Dele-er, delivered an address to the people, which was very cheering and instructive, which was followed by a speech from the Band, and the audience dispersed.

On Tuesday morning the O. P. assembled again in the Town Hall to prepare for the parade. At about 9 o'clock the parade was formed, with near 70 O. P. in full regalia and under the control of Marshal Brown, headed by the Band, paraded the streets of Millheim to the gaze of hundreds of men, women and children. After the parade, a meeting was held at the Hall, and in a very short time the Hall was filled to overflowing, many persons being unable to gain admission into the Hall. Music by the Band, after which the O. P. sang an ode, followed by Prof. Hitchcock, esq., in a solemn and impressive prayer. Addresses were then delivered by G. O. Deleer, in the English and Jacob Sheld, esq., in the German language. Both speakers in their remarks, brought up the principles, teachings and workings of the order. What true old Fellowship consists of, what it is to be a good and a true O. P. The speakers were listened to with that attention that we seldom see in assemblies of the kind, and no doubt, removed from the minds of the people, that judicial and opposition to the Order had before manifested. We know that some good has been accomplished, and with that are we content. Music by the Band, and a few remarks by Prof. Hitchcock, esq., after which Prof. Bullow was requested to sing a song, which he did, much to the amusement of young America, and older persons included.
An ode was then sung by the O. P. and while the Band discovered music, the assembly dispersed. After dinner the O. P. left for Lock Haven, much pleased with their short visit to Millheim. Kind wishes and heartfelt thanks are due the citizens, (especially the ladies) of Millheim and vicinity, for their manifestations of kindness towards the O. P. in endeavoring to make their visit, pleasant and agreeable.
The order and regularity of things are in a great measure owing to the efforts of D.
H. Ziegler, W. A. Tobias, R. M. Haiges and A. E. Shafer. A word or two in regard to the Band. It is composed of gentlemen of respectability, and promises to become one of the No. 1 Bands in the State.
