LETTER FROM MILESBURG.

Mr. Epiron : I see the vile, vituperative fact falsifying, negro workhiping and white man debasing shoddy grgan of Bellefonte, in its issue of 2d ult., refers to the suit instituted by Dr. Adams of Milesburg. who had been down South, not in the army, against certian beys, for rist. And then glosts over the defeat of justice; and the proper and just execution of the laws of the this unboly and wicked crusade, laying land. And yet has the daring effrontery to try and pass himself off as a loyal citizen Reid might be forced into the United States par excellence. Ist he denounces the dootor, as a venomous copperhead .... as to the venomous, it is hurled back with contempt, South shooting Democrats. The son who had and reference is made to, his article as proof atways before been a quiet, sob that it properly belongs there As to copperhead, if he means the amalgamation of races by the term, it is hurled back with the same contempt ; but if he means the to indulge in incbriety ; in a short time he selvation of the country from ruin, anarchy, and misrale, by the triumph of Democratio and being treated. principles. (like that of ancient Isreal by looking upon the brazen serpent, and being Bealed;) then it is accepted.

But het us some down to the fasts in the case : that Mr. Reid was a maturalised cliiten of this republic, is true ; but that he forgot the obligations of his oath, is just as utirde. The Constitution was the bond of Reid having been engaged for some months union between him and this, Republic.-When the first draft was made, he was Urafted, reported, and was exempt.
