THE FIRST .--- The first one-of the spring style of bouwets, -the "Gipsy"-that has yet come to town, passed our office, on the head of one of the fair sex yesterday morning. It was manufactured out of some grayich material, and with the paucity or trimming that adorned it, resembled more elesely- a "sigk"buckwheat cake, a little out of shape-than anything in the bonnet line, we have ever seen.

To THE POINT .--- A few days since as we were sitting by our table, bothering our brains for local, a friend from the country drepped in to pay his subscription. Hear we thought was 's splendid chance to find H. H. Rothrook, and while there were shown out if any thing new or strange had occured lately in his section of the county, and consequently went to guizzing him, which resulted in our assertaining, that somebody's house, somewhere or other, had caught fire by home manns or other, and had burnedhe sould not tell-whether entirely up or not. If any of our readers know of any ouch an ecourrence, they can put it down fer granted that this notice has reference to that fast.
