OF BERES COUNTY. 1 Congress

It is the misfortune of the American people, just now, to be represented in Congress by a set of men who, instead of carrying out the wishes of their constituencies for the peace and welfare of the country, are doing their best to obstruct and defeat the peaceful and amicable solution of the great questions which now engage the attention and demand the highest abilities of the purest and best minds in the country. Instead of trying to allay the, apprehensions of the people and to bring about a complete. and harmonious remaion of all parties and sections, --- so necessary to the future good and prosperity of the Republic,our Senators and Representatives, with the exception of the few who sustain the President, seem to be endeavoring to plunge the country into still greater unhappiness and deeper degredation.

Astonishing as it may seenf, the intere-te of the negro race, with these men, take precedence of the necessities of the white man. Their legislation is all for "the black, and the morbid desire to do or say connething for the children of Ham, almost amounts to frenzy. The dizease has become altogether chronic. and no romedies that have yet been tried, seem to be of any avail in curing the odious distemper. Denunciation, ridicule, threats and shame are thrown astay on these man. They appear to be lust to all sense of decency, and exult in the very disgust which they create in the minds of all carnest and sincere people. We look upon the actions of these men in perfect wonderment, slow to believe, and convinced against our wills that men, within whose veins flows the blood of the white race, can cherish in their hearts such black designs against the best intareats of the white man and the purity and integrity of the white man's institu-

This, however, is only a single instance of the abourd and disgueting legislation of our abolition Congress. There are many other instances that might be mentioued, but the above is sufficient to show the animus of this contemptible body.-Millions of dollars are wasted in this destitute whites destitute, 100, not be single office in this section of the country shoulders of the tax-payers of the councause they are (like the niggers,) unwil has been vacated, in order that it might be try. owing to the recent immense influx of freed niggers into the district, get sufficient employment, at good wages, to keep gaunt fumine from their doors. In Washington city alone, there are hundress, nay, thousands of people who are living in the utmost misery, and who do not know, when they eat their meals on one day, whether they will have anything to appeage their hunger on the next .---And yet, Congress can overlook this, white misery, which has, in a great measure. resulted from its own unwise legis. dving for want or even kept as charges, lation, and at the same time appropriate $25,000 loward the support of a lot of just passed, Congress or the State Leglazy, impudent niggers, who were far better in slavery, and who, now that they have been freed by abolition injuscould take time to attend to the wants of tice, find their chief delight in sitting idly in the galleries of the Uapitol, listening to disgusting harangues from aboli-But now, when votes are wanted, when every effort of abolitionism has failed to tion orators. Price $8 per annum We have so often commended this staunch democratic magazine, that its almost punecessary to say anything more in its favor. It should, however, be in the hands of every reading and thinking man-not democrats, only, but men of all parties and opinions. It is ably edited, and numbers among its contributors some of the first minds in the country. The number for April is now before us, and is most interesting. "Bertha Seely, the Heroine of the Old Dominjon" is continuell, and is of absorbing interest. There is also a scathing political history Federal Government to be a compact hetween the States. There is also a steel portrait of General Beauregard, with a sketch of his life, and an article on "General Sherman in Raloigh."
