THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

IMPROVEMENT.-Mr. Edward Brown is making an improvement on Bishop street, in the way of a new store room next to Baum's liquor store.

CERTAIN .- If Mr. Cook, the street commissioner, continues a little while longer at the work he has been at during the past few days, our streets will be as clear of filth, as the country will be of abolitionism in a few

DARING ROBBERY. - We understand that the room of Dr White of Pine Grove, was entered by two burglars one night last week. who tobbed him of over seventy dollars, and threatened they would kill him if he made

THE REASON. -- We have seen three abolipassage of the negro equality bill. The reason they are so much tickled about it, is said to arise from the fact, that neither one of them can get a white woman for a wife, and this bill gives them the right, and protects them in it, of marrying as black a wench as they can find, provided there is any debased enough to have them?

CARRYING OUT THE DOCTRINE .-- We have heard it whispered, whether correctly or not, we will not attempt to say, that a fair lass, a descendant of a "loyal" family, residing not a thousand miles from this place, some time in the Sumner of '64 was induced by her love for the down trodden, to emigrate South and become the teacher and protector of a lot of little "cuffees." How matters went down there report sayeth not, but it does say that this blooming damsel returned home week before last, and on Wednesday of last week presented her father, with a bright mulatto grand son. The old man it is said swears considerably about the matter and says if he did talk amalgamation, he had no idea that any of his family would ever practice it.

IN PURANCE VILE .- For "kicking up a row," at the Cammings House, on Saturday last, fighting, and otherwise disturbing the peace, a pugnacious individual of this town. named Charles Sturgis, was on Monday arrested and taken before Chief Burgess Beaver, who after hearing the case, fined the gentleman tweety dollars and committed him to jail for twenty days. We hope the severity of this punishment may have a salutary effect on some more of our "gay and festive lyoung sports, and lead to a better observance of the law in future. Paying_twenty dollars fine and going to jail for twenty days is rather more than an equivalent for getting on a "bender" and "sporting" around "loose" on the streets. We hope some of our "fast" young bucks will, at least, consider it so; and if they have no regard for their own morals or the morals he community, let their pecuniary and personal interest plead for the maintenance of law and order.

PROPEROR ALFRED ARMSTRONG .- An O'ld Friend.-From the Ponnsylvania Educator and Teacher we clip the following notice of the gentleman whose name heads this arti-Years ago Professor Armstrong taught the Academy in this place, and no superior scholar or better teacher, either before or since, has ever presided over that 'classic ground." He was a man of great erudition, a superb classical scholar, and an orator of graceful and impressive eloquence. Besides all these he was a true Christain gentleman, an honorable, upright man, and a good friend and neighbor. Universally beloved, his departure from this community was greatly regretted, and good wishes and prayers followed him to his new home. He went from this place to Columbia, in Lancaster county, and while in that place won the highest respect and esteem of its citizens.

Latterly, we observe that Mr. Armstrong has become connected, as Principal, with the Williamsport, (Lycoming county) High School. That his splendid abilities will greatly ski in advancing that institution to the highest degree of perfection, there can be no doubt, and the people of Williamsport of the not coubt, and the people of Williamsport of the professor Armstrong to its halls of learning has one of his old pupils we are gratified that we are thus enabled to add our testimony to the many evidences of his moral worth and excellence, and we copy, with his order of the many evidences of his moral worth and excellence, and we copy, with Dyspepsia or Norvous Debility, to go to their druggist and get a bottle of Dr. Strick and the name of the many evidences of his moral worth and excellence, and we copy, with Dyspepsia or Norvous Debility, to go to the strick and get a bottle of Dr. Strick and the name of the nam this community will read it with much in-

The schoel was then scarcely more than an ordinary public school. None of the higher branches were taught, and it hardly deserved to be called a high school.

It has since been organized, classified, and classes started in the higher branches of an academical education. All this has been accomplished by the account of a parameters of ademidal education. All this has been accomplished by the energy and perseverance of Prof. Armstoug. *

Prof. A. has spent the most of his life in teaching the Latin and Greek classios and the higher branches of education. Perhaps there is no man in the state is his profession, who has more various, therough and extensive acquaintance with literary and scientific knowledge.

As an instructor, too, there are but few his equals. Long experience, and therough scholarship have made this a first class teacher, equalled by few, surplassed by none.

His manners, highly oultivated, affable and kind; in disposition, a gentleman in every sense of the word, have made him, a much beloved teacher, whom pupils love respect and venerate.

If thorough scholarship, large intellectual attainments and long experience in teaching can give a just claim to consideration, it is due to Prof. Armstrong.

It might be added, that Prof. A. though somewhat advanced in life, has now botter health, and in consequence more vigor and enenergy, than at any former period of his lite. We congratulate the citizens of Williamsport, and the Directors of their common schools on the acquisition of Prof. A. to the Pepartment which he how so creditably and usefully fills.
