BUCHU.
(From Dispensary of the United States.)
DIOSMA ORNATA. BUCHU LEAVES.
Properties.—Their odor is strong, disagreeable, and somewhat acrid; their taste is bitter, and analogous to menth.
Medical Properties and Uses.—Buchu leaves are gently stimulant, with a peculiar tendency to the Urinary Organs, producing diuresis, and like other similar medicines, exciting diaphoresis, when circumstances favor this mode of action.
They are given in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, Chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, Morbid Irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, Disease of the Prostate, and Retention or Incontinence of Urine, and in all cases in the parts concerned in its evacuation. The remedy has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections, and Dropsy.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu is used by persons from the ages of 18 to 25, and from 35 to 55, or in the decline or change of life; after Confinement or Labor Pains; Bed-wetting in children.
Dr. Keyser is a Physician of over thirty years' experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College and of the University of Medicine and Surgery at Philadelphia.

Dear Sir—In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buchu, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not think there is any form of preparation of it I have not used, and in the various cases of the diseases where such medicine agent would be indicated. You are aware, as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and the reputation it has acquired in my judgment is warranted by the facts.

I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu, in the shape of pills, tincture, decoction, tincture, fluid extract, and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Twenty years' experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits, and without prejudice or partiality, I give your proceeding over all others. I do not view a thing according to its bulk, if I did, our Buchu would outdo you, but I hold to the doctrine that bulk and quantity do not make up value—if they did, a copper cent would be worth more than a gold dollar.

I value your Buchu for its effect on patients. I have cured with it, and have seen cured with it, more disease of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other Buchu, or any other proprietary compound of whatever name.
Respectfully yours, &c.,

TRUTH FROM THE RECORD OF 1864.
---SHODDY AGAINST THE PRIVATE SOLDIER!---CLYMER FOR THE SOLDIER!
The disunion press is full of lies in regard to the action of Democratic Senators in 1864, before the Senate was organized. After its organization, viz: on the 30th of March, 1864, Senator Hopkins offered the following resolution: (See Record, page 586.)
Resolved, That the Committee on Federal Relations be instructed to bring in a joint resolution instructing our Senators and requesting our Representatives in Congress to vote for a law requiring the payment of non-commissioned officers and privates in the service of the United States in coin or its equivalent.
Upon this resolution Senator CLYMER, now the Democratic candidate for Governor, spoke as follows: (See Record, page 587.)
I do not know, sir, that the Senator from Washington (Mr. Hopkins) was about to offer a resolution of this kind; had I been aware of the fact, I might have been able to form a more correct judgment as to his intentions in so doing.
JUSTICE TO THE SOLDIERS.
I presume he designed to perform an act of simple justice to those who, on the tented field, are struggling for the maintenance of this Government. He himself avows his intention to place this meritorious class of our fellow-citizens, so far as relates to their pay, upon a footing with those sleek, well paid, well fed, truly loyal, and most discreet gentlemen who, in this time of trial, are idling sunny hours in the courts of Europe as our foreign ministers, while the soldier is enduring the pains, the trials and the dangers of a campaign. Contemplate the picture; the one class clothed in purple and paid in gold, the other clad in homespun and paid in greenbacks! The one surrounded by all the luxury which gold can buy, the other in their individual persons and in their families, enduring all the want and misery which paper money entails! An unprejudiced observer, sir, would not, it seems to me, be likely to attribute an sinister or improper motive to one who attempts to equalize in some degree the condition of these two classes. Surely, sir, the disparity between one hundred and sixty dollars a year—the wages of the soldier—paid in greenbacks—and the salaries of our foreign ministers, ranging from seven to twenty thousand a year, paid in gold, is of such magnitude that it should not be "disloyal" to attempt to equalize it.
TALK AND NO WORK.
To me, sir, it is strange, passing strange, that those who profess so much love for the soldier, who are eternally parading themselves as the soldiers' friends, who would make the soldier believe that every one outside the pale of their political communion is his enemy, whose whole stock in trade is to yell that they are "loyal," and to boast that they love the soldier better than wife or child, should here to-day resist a proposition so fair and just. By your deeds you shall be tried. Honayed words of satey cost nothing. To sustain this resolution and the enactment of its purpose into a law, might impose some slight additional taxation upon your "loyal" gentlemen, and that would cost something. You cannot afford that. Oh! no! Full some praise, laudation without stint—that you can give; it is in your line; but when the soldier asks for the means wherewith to supply his wife and little ones with the bare necessities of life—wherewith to resist the vicious system of finance inaugurated by the Republican rulers, have been raised to fabulous prices—you turn your backs upon him and brand as "disloyal" every man who dares to advocate his claims. That is a species of disloyalty of which, for one, am neither ashamed nor afraid. If it be "disloyal" to stand by, guard, protect and defend the poor and humble against the rich and powerful; to be in favor of the soldier rather than of the shoddy contractor then I am disloyal. It is a kind of disloyalty of which you, gentlemen on the Republican side, will never be accused by those who know you. Where the spoils are, there will your hearts be also.

USURPATION OF THE SENATE.
Possibly, sir, the Senator from Washington offered the resolution with an additional motive—that was, to relieve himself, and those who sat with him politically, from the base and unfounded charge that we were opposed to an increase of the pay of the soldier. When this Senate was organized, as we then believed, and as you subsequently admitted by proceeding to elect a Speaker, a resolution was offered on the opposite side of this chamber, instructing our Senators and requesting our Representatives in Congress, to vote for a bill increasing the pay of the soldiers. We then voted against it, as under similar circumstances we would do day. We told you then that by no vote of ours would we ever recognize your high handed act of usurpation. We told you we would vote against any and every resolution, even should you offer one asserting the divinity of God himself. We stood up for a principle, and we triumphed. You offered the resolution, as you offered others, for the purpose of making the clap net sag against some one of the soldiers and others. You paraded your vote throughout the State as a high crime and sin, when you knew in your hearts that every representation you made, up to our position, was simply false. But the resolution of the Senator from Washington was disapproved. It was stricken by a two-thirds majority against the rank of the faithful. You guess your seat in the Senate, and are swollen up with undischarged blood. You have said and spent all to no purpose, gentlemen. We intend to expose your duplicity, and we have done it. Hence, those tears. I advise you to cover your intentions in some more skillful way, or I shall again draw aside the filthy veil which shields you from open contempt.

PAY THE PRIVATE SOLDIERS.
But, sir, what will be the effect of the resolution should Congress enact a law in accordance with its spirit? Will it not be precisely what you gentlemen forced us to vote against, when you attempted usurpation? The soldier will be paid in coin or its equivalent; that is to say, his wages will be increased by the difference between gold and greenbacks. If gold at the end of any month is sixty per cent. above greenbacks, the common soldier will receive twenty dollars and eighty cents, instead of thirteen dollars, for his month's services. If you were honest in your proposition to increase his pay, how can you object? When he entered the service, his pay was thirteen dollars per month in gold, for then gold was not above par. The resolution simply proposes to keep our pledged faith with the most meritorious of all public servants; with him who defends our homes and freedoms. Tell me, gentlemen, were you honest or dishonest in your proposition? You shall not evade an answer by calling me disloyal. The word has no terrors for me. Three years ago you paid the foreign minister and the private soldier, in gold. Why, to-day, do you continue to pay him who is basking and revelling in the smiles of royalty, and refuse it to him who, amid the roar of cannon and a storm of bullets, is bailing in your defense? Answer me if you dare. We will not be deterred from making the inquiry by threats or denunciations. We know our rights and will maintain them. We will stand by the Constitution and Union of these States, and we tell you, eye to eye, do you continue to pay him who is basking and revelling in the smiles of royalty, and refuse it to him who, amid the roar of cannon and a storm of bullets, is bailing in your defense? Answer me if you dare. We will not be deterred from making the inquiry by threats or denunciations. We on this side of the chamber claim for ourselves as much interest in our devotion to the Government founded upon the Constitution as you claim to possess. WORK FOR NEWSPAPERS.—We clip the following from an exchange. It is true, and we commend it to every man who has an interest where he resides. Nothing is more common than to hear people talk of what they pay newspapers for advertising, &c., as so much given in charity.
"Newspapers, by enhancing the value of property in their neighborhood and giving the locality in which they are published a reputation abroad, benefit all such, particularly if they are merchants or real estate owners, thrice the amount yearly of the meagre sum they pay for its support. Besides, every spirited citizen has a laudable pride in having a paper of which he is not ashamed, even though he should pick it up in New York or Washington. A good-looking, thriving sheet helps to sell property, gives character to the locality, and in all respects is a desirable public convenience. If, from any cause, the matter in the editorial or local columns should not be quite up to your standard, do not cast it aside and pronounce it of no account until you are satisfied that there has been no more labor bestowed upon it than has been paid for. If you want a good readable sheet it must be supported. And it must not be supported in a spirit of charity either, but because you feel the necessity for it. The local press is the power that moves the people."
OPPORTUNITY FOR PEACE.—In the Pennsylvania House, yesterday (4th), Mr. Markley, Democrat, offered a preamble announcing the President's proclamation declaring the rebellion at an end; and a resolution halting the return of peace, and embodying a request from the Representatives that the Governor cause a salute of thirty-six guns to be fired in honor of the event. The House refused to have the resolution considered.
