FOR GOVERNOR,

HON. HIESTER CLYMER. OF BERES COUNTY.

🙏 County Meeting.

A mass convention of the Democratic party Centre ; county, will be held in the Court House, at Bellefonte, Tuesday evening; April 24th, 1866; for the purpose of ratifying the resolutions adopted by the County Conven tion, held in January, last. A full representation of the party is requested. J. H. Orvis,

Chairman

The Hiding Place.

The continued croaking of the disunion press about the love of that party for the soldiese, has more significance about it than many may imagine. It is intended, not as a proof of "their devotion to these who foughtstheir battles for them, but for an entirely different purpose-to draw public sitention from the real issues of the day and to hide the defings and designs of the leaders of that party. They know that the popular feeling is against them, they know what the public verdict would be, were the folitical questions now at issue put fairly and squarely before the people, they know that abolition disunionism is doomed. unless the voting masses can again be dup ed into its support; they feel that power and plade is passing from them and that their only hope, is based upon their success of averting public attention from their principles, and centering it upon this profes sion. And this is the manner in which they are attempting to do it.

Charge them with favoring negro suffrage, and they will answer you, by telling how much they "love the soldier." Charge them with being the supporters of the infamous negro poor house bill, and they will reply by saying the"soldier's services must be rewarded." Charge, them with being disunionists, and with endorsing the mad chemes of Stevens and Sumner who are laboring to prevent a restoration of like Union, and they will reply by telling you how much they would "sacrifice for the soldier." Charge them with being the advoostes of negro equality and they tell you how much they have done for the soldier. Charge them with favoring the rich by exempting their wealth from taxation, and with oppressing the poor, by compell. ing them to pay so much the more to make up for this exemption, and they answer by telling how they love the "brave boys in blue." Charge them with advocating measures, that are in direct violation of the Federal Constitution, and they will tell you of their admiration for the "brave defenders of our country's cause." And so on through the whole catalogue of questions that are now before the people for decision.

They are in favor of negro suffrage-They are in favor of the negro bureau bill -They are opposed to a restoration of the union-They are in favor of compelling the poor, to pay the taxes for the rich-They are in favor of negro equality and amalgamation-They are in favor of violating the Constitution in order to have their doctrines succeed-They are in favor of tariff laws that will prevent competition from compeliing New England manufactures to lower to carry out these dogmas -they fear to ad- suffrage and equality. tiempt to avert dy. and

When will Congress Adjes vades the country in reference to the doings of the present Congress, the question is frequently asked. with incanse anxiety. It is unmistakeable that the people desire an early close of the present solsion. The evidences which the radical majority, in country since the close of the war, They it is both Houses, are giving of their determination to rule or ruin, are creating much slarm throughout the country. The design of murder, robbery and rapine which are which they meditate to crush the President, if they can do so without too much danger to themselves, has become so pelpable, that the masses are beginning to foar that personal violence may be attempted upon the Executive, as a fitting sequence to the insults and outrages which they have lately been meanly offering him. The injuitons logislation, too, which is daily being foisted upon the country, to the advantage of the negro and the disadvantage of the white man, is another painful reason why the people desire an early adjournment of the "Rump Congress.", The tendency of near-ly every important measure which they have yet passed has been to degrade the white, man to the negro's baser level, and to elevate the child of Ham to an unnatural. and revolting equality with the race which

God made, morally and intellectually, his superior. To these measures, the people, though long ground down -beneath the heel of party opinion and demagogueism, object, because they are beginning to see the ovil results which are likely to follow their adoption in the almost certain ruin and demoralization of society. They are at last beginning to realize the fact that intelligent, organized society in this country is fottering upon its basis through the insidious innovations made upon it by the abelition party in favor of the negro race. . They are beginning to behold, with fear and trembling, the swaying to and fro of the walls of the great superstructure of religion and morality which have been reared with so much care and with such tender regard for the best interests, happiness and prosperity of all of our fellow-beings. This dire result they now see has been brought about by the attempt to lift a class of beings, whom God placed in a condition of servitude, out of their legitimate sphere into a condition of perfect equality with another class whom God intended to be masters and superiors. Such a reversion of the proper order of things could not fail to produce a corresponding effect upon communities in the endangerment of-Sil the opprished principles upon which society is founded, and upon which the different classes of mankind hold their relations with each other. Hence the alarm now manifested by the people at the acts of representatives whom they them selves placed in power. But the radicals say they will not adjourn this summer; but will prolong the term until it is time for the opening of the next session. In this way they hope to perfect wiped away. their schemes of negro equality and to render the President powerless for good to the country. They fear to adjourn, lest separa. tion should weaken their resolution to stand han of Pittsburg, Hon. Andrew Stuart of Fayby each other in the crusade against the President. They are afraid of the influence of the people over individual members, and dare not trust themselves among their constituencies. They know that the hearts of the people are with the President, and that should they go home indignant frowns would meet them at every corner. Hence tion policy if elected. they fear to weaken their majority by a return of their members, even for a brief sea. son, to the people from whence they came, Such a course would, in all probability.

But it is not with the murder that we not have to do. We desire simply to remark the extraordinary prevalence of crime in our country signs in close of the war, The ising it is an absolute double drives wheal marking it is an absolute double drives and it is an absolute double drives and self and see the marking it is an absolute double drives and its and its is and self and see the marking and rate at my agricultant at store on Bishop its and absolute double double drives and desolution for which here and absolute double double drives and desolution for which here are and absolute double drives and absolute double drives and absolute double drives and absolute double drives and absolute drite drite drite drives sounds of wee and desolation for which he has a natural affinity. The love of gain; 100, which is inherent in the nature of man, and which no law prevents the soldier from taking from an enemy on the battle, ield, is an almost irresistable inducement, to those who have learned these fearful lessons in the lawless school of "glorious war," o take the life of the private citizen in deance of humanity and right. But war leaves its influence on the minds f peaceable citizens who never saw a batile. Its very existence in a country has a tendency to brutalize the impulses of the people, and to render them hard-hearted and unfeeling. In the triumph of a victory they pay no attention to the groans and ories of the wounded and dying, and learn to look upon such things as mere trifles, in compari on with the rout of an approaching enemy All the finer feelings seem to be deadened while the had passions of our nature becom fully aroused. We talk of war to our neigh bors and we teach war to our children. Murder, for a time, becomes a commendable thing, and we set a premium upon it by our hurrahs and our approbation. We recount with delight, the numbers of our enemy slain, and look upon our own loss as a triffe not worth repeting. These are the lesson and effects of war, and they linger with people long after the strife itself has ceused. In this day and age, then, we cannot wonder that the terrible scenes of the battle-field are reproduced in our midst, or that murder has become, like amall-pox of cholers, an epidemic of malignant form. Let us pray that the holy teachings of the Bible and the severe administration of the law may soon do, away with this fearful thing, and restore us once more to that state of peace and happiness which once existed, and when all the stains of blood shall be public attention from them by howling about their devotion to the soldier. And what does all this pretended devotion and love amount to ? Tear aside the fimsoy well that hides this political deception and see. Who hold the offices throughout the country ? Stay at home disunionists. Who fills the clerkships about the public officeal Cowardly home guards and political wire pullers. Who receives their nominations in counties where that party has decided majorities ? Loyal Leaguers that scented the battles from afar. Who voted against paying the soldiers in coin or its equivalent? Disunion members in the State Senate. Who chested the soldier out of his pay? Abolition patriots (?) Who fed him on musty beef, and furnished him straw hats, rotten fish, paper soled shoes and shoddy; clothes to wear? Abolition contractors. Who says the negroes fought better tlish the white soldiers ? The repregentatives of thus disunion abolition party. And yet these very men. who have defrauded the soldier in every conceivable way ; who have attempted to disgrace him by leading the public to believe, that negross made belter soldiess than did these white men; who fill the offices that should be given to the wounded and disabled soldiers; who kick them off their povements and tarn them from their doors, and whod and support such a horrid outrage upon heap all kinds of indignity upon them, their race and upon common desency ? Are and turn them from their doors, and whole have the audeelty in order to cover up their real designs, to talk-"bout"their "love", their "devotion?" their "sacrifices" and their "determination" to mward those who

"flew to their country's restue." Let no one be decelved by this hollow, this noisy, this deceptive presention. It is only used as a stump behind which the ab-lions of freedmen are weeping and tremb-olition party attempts to hids. It is not the friand of while men, how san, it be the government." ment; but yaless an almost miraculous change_should take place in the abolition sentiment, of which there is no probability, there will be no adjournment, and the coun-try will suffer the evils of unwise and malignant legislation for months to come. And in view of this impending misfortune, let us hope that the people will be careful to of the Republic. A BAOT THEY DARE NOT DENY, --- We no tieed several weeks since, the fact that Congress had considered one bill that expressly > to many to know that it has passed another. The list one is to impose "a fine ad exceed-ing $1,000, and imprisement not exceeding one year," upon any white man who shall deprive any negro of the right of marrying his daughter, or any wench the privilege of taking his son. Infamous as this may esem yet it is a fact, and we dare any supporter of Summer, Stevens or Geary to deny it. Let the white men of the country remem har this. An act-such as we have stated. has passed both houses of Congress, and ev ery abolition journal in this State endorses it. Are man, in whose veins flows the proud blood of the Caucasian, willing to submit to they willing to support a party that endor-ses such miserable, such detestable acts ?----The party now in power does. Their party editors know it, their party speakers know if, and we dare then to deny it.
