HERMIE.

There is a name, one precious word, I seldom speak, yet often heard; Though uttered by the careless crowd, Too secred 'tis too lisp 'aloud.

That name is music to my ear. But now I breathe it with a tear. In tender accents, low and mild, Twas thus we called our blessed child.w

In by-gone hours and former days, Twas joy to view his prattling ways, E'en now, methinks, I see him sti!!— His gladsome smile my heart would thrill

I see his toys—and here's a tress Of silken hair, all loveliness— It is the same that once did grace The brow of my sweet "Hermie's" face.

It paints so fresh my little boy ! Oh, how I prife the shining toy! Though tears will to my eyelids start As now I press it to my heart.

Oh, blessed name! most sacred word! In Heavon it shall again be heard, And broken tics rejoined shall be, As angels waft us, love, to thee.

"THE SECRET MOTIVE."

A Plot to Overthrow the Government !"-What Lincoln's Attoreny General thinks of the Disunionists in Congress.

In a letter to a meeting of conservative itizens of St. Lous, the Hon. Edward Bates. Attorney General in Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet subjects the Freedmen's Bureau Bill to merciless analysis, in which he exposes with unmistakable distinctness the ulterior revolutionary object of the proposed statute, and denounces with appropriate but logical severity the dangerous subterfuge of its contrivers, which was counteracted by the rompt and bold interposition of the President. We subjoin the letter referred to: St. Louis, February 24, 1866.

Gen. E. B. Brown, President of the State Cen-tral Committee Conservative Union Party : Sin: I am honored by the receipt of your note of this day, inviting me to be present at a mass meeting of the citizens of St. Louis, to be held at the Court House this evening at half past seven o'elock, for the purpose of endorsing the action of President Johnson in vetoing the Freedmen's Bureau bill, and in support of his general policy of national reconstruction.

I am very sorry that the bad state of my ealth forbids my attendance, and the more so because I believe there will not be a man at the meeting who feels a greater abborrence than I do for the bill whose wicked career has been stopped by the President's rimely veto. My feeling upon this subject does not spring entirely from my disgust of the factious spirit and ridiculous egetism of the clique which now domineers over Congress, but from the intrinsic demerits of the hill, ascertained by a careful examination, of its provisions. I think I understand it can see (the most casual reader can see) its glaring and definant breaches of the Constitution-and I think I can see also the h idden motive, the secret design of the conspirators, who planned the scheme to overfurn out Government of law, and set up in its stead a frightful military oligarchy And this wick-ed purpose betrays itself in several provisions of the bill, which are so arranged in the dontext as to seem, to a hasty observer, to object, the protection of the freedmen. The bill provides (in its first section) for 3d, 1865) to establish a Freedmen's Bureau. and extends it to all refugees and freedmen in all parts of the United States. It empowers the President to divide the United States into districts, not to exceed twelve and with the selvice and consent of the Sen ate, to appoint an assistant commissioner for each district. Twelve districts! That is the exact number into which Cromwel divided the Commonwealth of England, and governed each district, despotically, by one of his own Major Generals. This section goes on-"or the said Bureau may, is the discretion of the President, be placed under a commissioner and assistant commissioners. to be detailed from the army." And the soi does not specify either the raph or the color of the persons so to be detailed from the army to rule the nation through the Freed-

be secondary and subordinate to the ostensible men's Bureau.

Section two empowers the commissioner to divide each district into sub-districts, (not less than a county or parish,) and to assign to each sub-district vat least one agent, either a citizen, officer of the mymy or enlisted man." The section goes on to say, "each assistant commissioner may em ploy not exceeding six clerks; and each discriminated against, in any of the particular mentioned in the preceding section of ING. this act, under, not the Constitution and taws, but such rules and regulations as the War Department, shall prescribe."

These are some of the enormities of the retoed bill, framed in the wantonness of partisan power, in contempt of the written Canstitution, and in open violation of the historical opinions and traditionary faith of the people of the United States.

As all these thousands of officers, agents, and employees of the bureau may, at the discretion of the President be detailed from may be an enlisted man in the army, and forthwith to Stoystown, the nearest tele-pied. If this decision had been rendered white or black, as may best muit the fancy. of the detailing officer.

Only imagine such a military organizaion, with's despotio head at the sent of the Government, and despetie members per. vading the whole mass of the community and exhibiting its power in organized form, in every sounty and parish, and the President bound, by Trumbull's bill, to extend military protection over them, against every effort to restrain, by legal and civil means, he wantonness of their arbitrary power!

Think you that the people of the United States are already for far degraded into passive obedience as to submit tamely to such an aircolous outrage, even if sanctioned by the unanimous voice of T factious Congress, and approved by a subservient President? No, verily. They are not yet ready to abandon their Constitution and renounce all hope of legal liberty, by giving over their lives, liberties and properties, to be disposed of at the caprice of petty officers and agents of a petty division called a bureau. They will insist upon their legal rights as demand the protection of the laws of their country; and if charged with crime, or drawn into controversy about property or, contracts, they will insist upon a court and jury, and will refuse to be tried by any petty despot, "detailed from the army," whether he be white or black. Constitutional government and Moorty by law are worth fighting for. We have just passed through a bloody war to maintain them against a set of traitors, and I make no doubt that the people will be as ready, if need be, to resist in the same way any other set of traitors who seek to desiroy the loyal Government by insideous artifice and bold idea as to the tendency of his teachings, or usurpation.

An emment English publicist, (Mill,) on representative government, gives it as his the people of this county nover to be foropinion, that "representative institutions gotten. opinion, that "representative institutions of the reading of their permanancy upon the readiness of the people to hight for them in case of the people to hight for them in case of the people to fight for the people to fight for the people to figh for this, they seldom obtain a footing at all, and if they do, are almost sure to be over thrown as soon as the head of government or any party leader can muster force for a coup de main is willing to run some small risk for absolute power."

I think it a fortunate thing for the counry, that the Radical faction is so demented as to pick a quarrel with the President beown defeat, and consequently, the restorasake it is pretended that this wrong is done, than God. We adjure the people to think at last he marched to eternity by a different will not long fail to see the hypporisy and of this matter. God never intended the ne- line. And now we judge his soul is marchwill not long fail, to see the hypprorisy and gross and whites to be equals and when you ing on!
