BANKRUPTCY AND RUIN MUST FOL-LOW. The wasteful extravagance of the Rump Congress has been the theme of many a con emnatory article in the newspapers, and the subject of much animativersion among be bardworking iax-payers. Among many other useless or questionable expenditures may be mentioned the following $75,000 o Mis. Lincolu; $40,000 for daubing som perishable caricalures upoh the celling of be rotunda ; $25,000 to the vagrant negroes lying around the capital; $15,000 to Clara Sarton for making lists of missing soldier &c.; $6,000,000 to Missouri for imaginary rar expenses; $12,000,000 for the Negr Bureau ; $100,000 to carry Thad Steven's esolution of congratu', ion to the Czar of Russia ; and several more million to buil and arm a lot of forts in New England .-Among other projects of expenditure only yet partially acted upon or attempted and defented, are the Ningara canal,$10,000,000 -- all for private pockets; the Pacific railroad, several hundred million—a grand field private plunder; the soldier s bounty bill, $200,000,000-one fourth for the veter. ans and the balance for "loyal" thieves the air-line railroads and telegraphs, mil ions more for pflifider ; the negro bureau $75,000,000--vetoed, &c Besides all these, several million dollars have been wastefully spent in smelling and white washing co sittees, sent out to manufacture disunio apital. These had hundreds of other exenditures and projects of expenditures show how recklessly the money ... rung from the people in inxation is squandered.

But the wasteful extravagance of the Disunion faction might, in time, be remedied. That is not the worst feature of their acts and schemes. Their course of captiousness, hatred and injustice toward the whites of the South and their natronage of the black race is keeping alive distruand-ill feeling, and so greatly unsettling the ousiness and financial prospects of the cour try that the week'y loss to the people in gen eral prosperity may safely be estimated at The country cannot endure this state of things much longer.
