Coup-Bi-conen Munden!—Shooting of an Officer A most heart-rending tragedy sesurred may Contre Bill, in the neighbor-hood of Col. Ligar's store, on Monday last, the 26th Lastard. R opposing that, on Sunday night, two young mon by the name of Campbell, brothers, with recently returned from the army, got drunk at Centre Hall, and during the spree fired pistols and threw stones into the windows of our old friend, Major Neff, and committed other deviltries in the neighborhood, his a matter of course, a warrant was issued for their arrest the mext day, which was put late the hands of Constable Bear, with orders to take the young men into custody. In proceeding to ity, the constable was attended by saveral other persons. Being on the look-out, near the store of Mr. Love, it was told the officer that the young men were coming that way, when he quietly slipped into the store, hoping they would enter before they passed, and calculating to arrest them there. But they seemed to suspect all was not right, and pessed by without stopping. The offcor thereupon sallied subit duranti, meanpanied by his peace. Overlaking the young men, the constable arrested them, when one although a work or really although a letter wrested from him, however, and he was se-oured ; but, thring the struggle, his comthe offer through the Apert, and then made price and showed us the quality of his goods, we his escape, the others being to much more came to the conclusion that it would be little panion got loose, angldrawing a pintol, shot And in make any parmits, A saware of the same of the large stars in the country hand so give our year then ke parabane.
