ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

FRIEND—Your matter shall be attended to early next week.

DAN—If the Democrats turn out, and we have every confidence that they will, "Old Centre," will give CLYMER and WRIGHT, eight hundred majority.

VOTER—Certainly you are entitled to vote The election board of Snow Shoe township was convicted, at our late court, for refusing to accept the ballot of an alledged deserter.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

—The Rev C F Hoffmeier, will preach in the Reformed Church at this place, on next Sabbath morning and evening

Meeting at Howard.—A meeting of both parties will be held at Howard on Tuesday evening next Speakers on both sides will be on hand to discuss the "Constitutional Amendments" and other issues. We hope the affair may pass of pleasantly to those who attend, and profitably to the country

The Lock Haven Mass Meeting.—Quite a number of our citizens attended the Clymer Mass Meeting at Lock Haven on Wednesday last They report it as a magnificent affair, and bring back the most encouraging accounts of the Democracy of little "Clinton"

Sentenced.—William Campbell, who was convicted last week of manslaughter in the killing of Constable Bear, was sentenced on Friday morning last, by his Honor Judge Linn, to eight years hard Labor and close confinement in the Penitentiary, with a fine of five dollars and the costs of the prosecution. The sentence is more severe than was anticipated from the verdict of the jury, but it is a just one, and will be a warning to reckless individuals that a man's life is under the protection of the law

Thanks.—We are under obligations to our good friend Col. W W Brown, for several bunches of as fine grapes as we ever tasted The samples presented us were, Concord—Deleware and—we forget the name of the other,—but it was a good kind anyway. The grapes were raised on the Col's own lot, and prove that as fine grapes can be grown in this, as in any section of the country

The Concert.—The concert given by Mrs Dunham and her class on Saturday evening last, was well attended, and well repaid those attending it. It was in fact a treat, but would have passed off much more pleasantly had better order been observed, by the young scallawags who kept up a continual hooting, howling and whistling We have often wondered when attending public gatherings in this place why the parents of the scores of boys who are permitted to attend, do not teach them more sense or better manners It is certainly not very creditable to any parents to raise children as rude as many about this town are, and unless a different sort of training is resorted to, or the "powers that be," maintain better order, concerts and public meetings in Bellefonte, will be no place for ladies to attend.

Base Ball.—We have received the score of a game of base ball played at the Agricultural College on the 8,most between a picked number of the Junior and Sophomore classes and a picked nine from the Senior and Freshmen, which we will give next week The following is the scores made by the "Liberty" of Bellefonte and the "Clinton," of Lock Haven, in their match game, at the Inter place on Wednesday week last

The Pennsylvania State Fair.—The Pennsylvania State Fair, which is to be opened at Easton on the 25th inst and to continue for four days, is already exciting a very great interest all over the Keystone State and New Jersey, and we have every reason to believe, as we have stated before, that it will eclipse all others ever held by the Society. A State Fair is a matter of interest to thousands of people, and from no public exhibition can they derive more useful information and find so much real satisfaction and enjoyment.

The Secretary's office was opened yesterday, and rapid progress has already been made by the Superintendent, Mr Higgins, on the magnificent grounds of the Farmers' & Mechanics' Institute, where the exhibition is to be held. Everything is being placed in complete and ample order; even the fences surrounding the enclosure, and the stalls, shedding, &c., are being overhauled, cleansed and whitewashed. The track for the trials of speed is also being put in good order, rolled and hardened, and will, no doubt, be one of the finest and best tracks in this locality; the amphitheatre near the course is to be covered, as a protection from the rays of the sun, and enlarged to double its capacity.

The large and commodious Hall, second to none in the State, for the display of articles on exhibition, is also in good order, and will be very handsomely arrayed and decorated with flags, bunting and flowers, and everything that will adorn Of the decorations we shall speak more particularly at another time.

A large building, thirty-two by one hundred and fifty feet is now in process of erection for the display of agricultural implements, which will be very large. A splendid tent, purchased for the occasion, eighty feet wide and one hundred and fifteen long, will be erected for the Floral and Fruit departments of the Fair, in the centre of which will be a beautiful display of water jets, surrounding which will be a handsome rustic scenery, rocks, trees and flowers.

—Hon. Sambo Gumbo, the aristocratic Black contractor for laying the Water pipes along Allegheny street, commenced work on Wednesday morning with a force of the "pet lambs" of abolitionism. Like a true aristocrat, the Hon. Sambo Gumbo does not do any work himself, but stands off in a dignified attitude and "bosses" the operation. When we came to the office on Wednesday and saw this band of black amoors tearing up the ground in true African style, to the excission of numbers of poor white men in this borough, who would have been glad of the job, we reflected that such were the results of abolitionism, and that if the people want to dance to radical music they must not complain if they are asked to pay the colored piper. But we can't blame the darkeys. They have the right to the work and should have credit for being willing to undertake it Rather should we turn our attention to the causes that have produced this state of things and to the men who thus give the preference to the negro over the white man. The respectable and intelligent white citizen who was the competitor of Hon Sambo Gumbo, and who offered to do the work, all things considered for less money will not feel flattered at this importation of blacks into the Borough. We just ask the white men of Bellefonte to consider this matter, and if they are satisfied that their own interests are not in danger, then they can go and vote for this state of things to continue by polling their suffrage for John W Geary But if, after a dispassionate examination into the tendency and ultimate result of this state of affairs, they come to the conclusion that their political and pecuniary interests are endangered, then we ask them to express their opinions to that effect by casting their votes for Hiester Clymer

An Omission.—In some remarks in regard to the conductors on the Bald Eagle Valley Road last week, we unintentionally neglected to mention Mr. Roland Richards, who runs the Passenger Freight train which leaves Lock Haven in the morning. It is a matter of some comment among travelers why a conductor of Mr. Richards ability and integrity as not given a train of more importance He is one of the most thoroughly men we ever knew in any position in life, and the company in doing itself an injustice as well as him by keeping him in a subordinate position He is fitted to run any train, and is a man of genial good temper and the utmost suavity Travelers over the Bald Eagle speak of him most highly Like a faithful servant he makes the interests of his employers his own, and while he is always willing to accommodate the public in so far as he has the right so to do, he never suffers anything he can control to militate against those interests We understand that a new passenger train is soon to be put on the road, and we would suggest that the appointment of Mr Richards to its conductorship would be highly satisfactory to the traveling public along the line of the Road We are led to make this recomendation from the fact that Mr Richards is too modest a man to ask for anything himself, and for the reason that the people in this part of the country, who are acquainted with his sterling qualities as a man, as a citizen and as an officer are earnestly desirous of his advancement

The Democracy of Lock Haven.—Last Friday night we had the pleasure of attending a meeting of the Democracy of Lock Haven at their Club Rooms, which was addressed by Mr M'Cormick, the talented young District Attorney of that county, who made a logical and able speech, and by W. Furey, esq., of Rockford, Illinois Notwithstanding the intense darkness of the night and the fact that the rain fell in torrents, the attendance was fair, and the utmost enthusiasm prevailed Mr Furey was exceedingly happy in some of his remarks and kept the House in a continual roar of laughter and applause His complimentary allusion to our gallant friend Beellenbach, late of the Democrat, brought down the audience in a perfect storm of approbation, and for a few moments nothing could be heard but shouts and cheers Truly must the veteran editor be a favorite with the Democracy of Clinton, when the mention of his name can produce such enthusiasm. Altogether it was one of the most interesting meetings we ever attended, and showed that the watch-fires are burning brightly in our sister county

Don't be Extravagant.—The local columns of the Altoona Tribune has the following item, which contains so much truth that we extract it for the benefit of our own readers Extravagance is a sin which should be watchfully guarded against, or it will bring the richest man to a paupers grave Here is the item

"If the poor house has any terrors for you, never buy what you don't want Before you pay three cents for a jewsharp, my boy, ascertain whether you cannot make just as pleasant a noise by whistling, for which Nature furnishes the machinery; and, before you pay seventy dollars for a coat, young man, find out whether your lady would not be just as glad to see you in one that cost half the money If she would not, let her crack her own hazle nuts and buy her own clothes When you see a man spending two or three dollars a week foolishly, the chances are five to one that he'll live long enough to know how many cents there are in a dollar; if he don't he's pretty sure to bequeath that privilege to his widow When a man asks you to buy that for which you have no use, no matter how cheap it is, don't say yes, 'until you are sure that some one else wants it in advance." Money burns in some folks pockets, and make such a big hole that everything that is put in drops through—past holding

"A tree is known by its fruits."

The above is a scriptural quotation that appears in the Press of the 7th inst and is credited to the Register. They have it "so said Solomon" Cannot these nigger loving editors tell the truth, even they quote from the holy Writ. This saying was not Solomons, but by one who said of himself "behold a greater than Solomon is here," that same authority has also said that "liars shall have their part in the lake that burns with fire, &c.', How do they expect to escape the damnation they are heaping up for themselves, for they have put on lying as a garment, from the least, to the greatest of them, it is their principal stock in trade True the Press and Register may plead their ignorance of the Scriptures, but this cannot be done for the "leaders," as they claim all the religion decency &c., of the land, to which may also be added equality, for at their late Philadelphia Convention abandoned women and wooley headed negroes, were admitted as equals. Heretofore they denied that they were for negro equality; by their own acts they prove it. Poke it at them in Centre county and they will deny again And to cap the climax of this Philadelphia affair they fired their own wigwam and then ran away by the light with a lie on their lips saying that the copper-Johnsons" had done it. "Verily verily shall they receive their reward, for as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness so shall," the truth prevail, and the great Democratic principles be triumphant. Let its opponents call it by whatever name they please. When it was dubbed Locofoco, it prospered and now copperhead is bestowed upon it by the Radicals thinking that under this they will be able to "bruise its head" forgetting that they themselves have a "heel" by which they will surly be griped up in the end. VENUS.
