Doing Good Surview -Mr. H. Y. Stit zer, J. Smith Barnhart, W. H. Larrimer John P. Mitchell, A. B. Henderson, and A A Kerlin are all doing good service in the cause of the Constitution and the Union. These gentlemen are speaking every night and are entitled to the thanks of the Democ racy and the country.

HEALTHY .- The political health of the State is good A vote taken by the young men of that Institution a few days since re sulted in a Democratic majority of five which we consider evidence that the rising generation are taking a right view of the n political questions of the hour We trust the students of the Agricultural College may always be as true to their country as they have been in this matance, and thing of himself, he goes on (modestly) t that they will oppose to the bitter end whatever tends to degrade the white race.

THE HOWARD MEETING The joint diswell attended by both parties, and passed of in the best manner, with no hard feelings on either side. Nothing occured to mar the harmony or interest of the occo and the speeches of both the gentlemen who stood for mas the champions of their respective parties were listened to with profound attention and sespect. An arrangement had been entered into before speaking commenced that there should be no applause or interruptions on either side, and this agreement was strictly ad- tract is absolutely chilling. It is a regular hered to The consequence was that everything was conducted in the most courteous manner. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather during the day, there were about four hundred people present, and the meeting was hold at the depot in the open three quarters of an hour in duration, when he says himself that he held the audience Mr. Orvis (Democrat) followed in an argugument of one hour in length. Mr. Hutchison are spell-bound even to a greater extent by then took the stand again for an hour and thus astonishing exhibition of the associate Mr. Orviz closed with half an hour. Hutchson did his best, but he was no majoh for Drvis His speech was what would be called good one, and was well delivered, but it abounded more in high-flowing appeals to the passions and prejudices of his audience fore us has the name of John W Geary at tried to make, and relied more upon the roundness of his periods and the forsoundness of his premises or the powof of his logic He made, in short, quite a good order to keep himself posted as to the rad spread-eagle speech, but the little impresn it left upon the minds of the people was speedily dissolved by the sledge hammer logic of Orvis, who made a most power ful speech, even for him, and proved every rtion and position by the authority of such eminent jurists as Judge Bushrod Washington, John Bannister Gisbou, Mar argument, and had the best authorities right refunded. He, thinking that probably the before him, prepared to prove everything he wn trumpet as loudly as possible is order reight and influence in the community. Of course, when we use the term "weight n reference to him. we refer to his egotis or the question of his muscular "weight" was definitely stilled by the little rencone which took place between him and John im from a complete trouncing We are, however, digressing from our legitimate subject, and must return to the matter in

-At the last term of court, Hutchison was one of the two counsel selected to supfort Mr. Orvis in his defence of the pris was ratherlin the position of aid de-camp to Orvis, and his business was to carry ou the directions of his chief, for which service lie was to have the privilege of making a speech and was to receive a certain smal ount of compensation in the shape of United States currency. In short, he was a kind of small dog under the wagon, whose usiness it was to growl around the outer educe of the case and drive away petty an oyances from the chief ogunsel

Now, to show the extreme egotism of the ann and the impudent complaisance with students at the Agricultural College in this which he forces himself upon the public of last week, (the Central Press,) his ow totice of his own speech on that occasion It is about the vainest, the coolest and mo impudent piece of self-praise we have ever bly, the counsel regularly employed in the case, in order to get a chance to say some

remark

At 2 oclock P M., Mr. Hutchish no pened the argument for defence, and until 5.30 held the large concourse of people split hound with his earnest appeals to the jury. He commanded the company in the late war in which the prisoner was a private soldier, and thus, beside the relation of counsel and client, there was the tree between 'them. As he in the course of his argument warmed with the subject, his interescentings, his eloquent appeals, his butter, seathing denunciation of alleged perjured witnesses, the depth of his reasoning, built up for him a name Mr. Hutchison has taken his place among the highest of the legal fraternity, and though young in years and in his profession, has well earned a reputation to be envied by much older lawyers.

Coolness is very refreshing on a waru day, but the temperature of the above ex bolition blow, and will be quite likely to freeze up all the admiration which the few friends of this very eloquent young pettifog-ger may have for him when they understand the circumstances of the case. His fin-"logio," bis "bitter investive," and his "magical doquence" would have been far Hutchison, (Abolition:st) in a speech of by some other person than hunself. Though spell-bound, the people of this communit are spell-bound even to a greater extent b editor's abominable impudence.

DUNIAM VE KURTE -The Union Reput lican of the 7th instant, a paper published than in argument or common sense. He was not able to prove the few points he tried to make, and relied more upon the ferocious style. It appears that Dunbas who opposes life things of the Rump Con green and the election of Stephen F. Wilson tried to get an exchange with the Press, cal movements in this part of the distric but was refused the courtery by the abol tion managers of that concern, who were tion thus obtained to their disadvantage at to the disadvantage of the ladical part Mr Dunham then aubscribed for the paper was refused him, and the money was no funds had not reached the Press editor wrote to a friend in this place to pay the

As for Captain Smith, if the scars of honorable wounds received in the service of his country are not sufficient to save him from slander and misrepresentation, nothing tha we can say in his behalf will avail anything with his ungenerous and contemptible as-sailants. But he needs no defence. He was a brave and gallant soldier said bears upon his person the certificate of his devo tion to his country. It is because his talks to the soldiers of Centre county are telling powerfully against abolitionism that he is hus assailed; but the Captain don't care He intends to fight now as he fought in the war-for the Union of the States, and all earnest and sincere lovers of the country will thank him for his efforts to stay the his fellow soldiers of the hypocrisy and inso highly for their voter The Democracy of this county recognize in both of the men alluded to in the above paragraph devoted and carnest champions of the cause of the country, and instead of asking them to ease their labors they have bidden then God speed and urged them onward in the
