ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Pet—Your "lines" are very politely declined. You had better send them to the young gentleman for whom they were written.

DISAPPOINTED—Your request came to late. The affair was in print, but as we did not use names you need not "fear of folks finding out who it was," unless your "broken heart" tells on you.

STUDENT—Fata Morgana, is an Italian phrase meaning fantastic atmospheric appearances which are common along the coasts of Sicily.

FARMER—If you will look at our New York Market reports which are corrected weekly, you can ascertain the prices.

ADVERTISER—Yes sir. The WATCHMAN has a larger circulation than any paper in this section of the State, Our mail books which are open to all who desire to see, will show that.

FRIEND.—Mr Eurey, our associate has not been here for several weeks. He is paying a visit to friends in Illinois.

J P R.—Your job will be finished and forwarded to you, early next week We are short of hands and pressed with job work, or it would have been sent before this.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

GETTING ALONG.—The brick layers on Bush's block, have reached the third story

THE FIRST SNOW.—Snow fell to the depth of several inches, on the mountains near this place on Friday last

VENISON.—From all accounts venison will be plenty hereabouts, the present season As yet we have neither seen smelt or tasted any, and don't know who has.

THICK.—Thieves are said to be thick, in the vicinity of town We hear of quite a number of hen roosts, granaries, and spring houses that have been robbed during the past few days.

IN TOWN.—Our friend Thomas B Nolan esq Tom looks as natural as when acting "devil" in the WATCHMAN office May prosperity attend him.

A LARGE OWL.—An owl measuring five feet between the tip of its wings, was killed a few days since by Mr Samuel Leitzell, of Patton township

CAUTION.—As cold weather is approaching, fires will soon be required It is a wise precaution to now make a thorough examination of your stove pipes, flues and chimneys, and see that they are both clean and secure If they are not make them so at once

ANOTHER IMPROVEMENT.—In addition to the improvements we have noted during the summer, as being made to our town, is the large brick residence, now in the course of erection on Allegeny street by Mr. Charles Mcafferty It has been but a few weeks since it was commenced, and is now ready for roofing

REPORTED.—We hear it rumored that Capt Cummings of this place, is about taking the Bingham House, Philadelphia If the report is correct the Bingham will have a large run of custom from this section of the State, for "Bob" is known to be one of the best landlords in the country. We would be sorry to have him leave here, however, and almost hope that the report is incorrect

LEAVING US.—Quite a number of our citizens are selling out and moving with their families to Philadelphia Among the rest Mr Adam Baum, Moses and Ferdinand Loeb, Marx Loeb, and others And notwithstanding these removals scores of families, who wish to settle here, cannot obtain houses Could not our capitalists put up forty or fifty good dwellings They would not be without tenants a day

RUNAWAY.—A horse attached to the meat wagon of Mr. Longwell, took a notion, on Tuesday last, to run away, and finding a post in front of the residence of Mr Milligan, unloosed himself from the wagon by running against it and breaking both shafts off After making time at the rate of about 2.22 down the pike for a few miles he stopped and was brought back perfectly cooled off

FINE APPLES.—We are under obligations to Joseph Baker, Esq, of Harris township, for some specimens of splendid apples, raised on his farm near Linden Hall Among them were the celebrated "Baker," a large red apple, which drew the premium at the late fair, "Red Winters," "Pomegris," "English Russel" and several other varieties the names of which have escaped our memory Mr. Baker will please consider our hat off, and accept the thanks of all connected with the WATCHMAN, for the elegant treat

SHOULD BE CAUGHT AND PUNISHED.—We understand that a few days since some miscreant, attempted to wreak his vengeance against the B E. V. R. R Company or some of its employees, by burning the ties and timber, from under the track of the road at a little bridge, near the Mudlick property. Through the vigilance of the engineer Mr Robert Smith, the condition of the track was noticed before the train reached the spot, otherwise a serious accident might have occurred, and a number of lives been lost This is the third time that attempts have been made in that neighborhood to throw trains from the track The wretch who is guilty of the act should be ferreted out and punished.

SANFORDS OPERA TROOP.—One of the best troops that is traveling, gave a concert in the Court House last night. The audience was large, and from the applause that greeted the performers, one could conclude was highly pleased. And we do not know how any one could attend and not be highly it pleased. Those that wanted fun, had it in abundance and the lovers of music were not disappointed—there was plenty of that, with jigs, jokes and sentimental songs thrown in. The troops is a full one, made up of first class performers, with the inimitable Sanford at the head The performance is chaste, and we know that those of our citizens who were not there last night missed quite a treat. But as Sanford intends giving another concert tonight, and also one to morrow night, there is chance for them yet to hear and see.—We say go to the Court House to nigh if you want to have a hearty laugh and hear good music

A LITTLE AFFAIR THAT DIDN'T COME OFF.—No town in the State of equal size perhaps, has more pretty, warm hearted loving girls than Bellefonte Most of them have their lovers, and some find the old adage, "the course of true love never runs smooth" exceedingly true. At least such has been the experience of one of the dear little creatures, whose name we will not mention, but of whose disappointment we will tell. Not that we love to tell of disappointments, but as a warning to others, who may be tempted to do likewise, and not know just how to get at it

To begin at the beginning of our story, we must state, that the little "ducky" of whom we are writing, found, sometime last spring, an admirer, whom she admired, more than she admired anybody else But her fond parents didn't admire the style of her admirer, nor approve of the mutual admiration that had sprung up between these two young hearts But opposition only made the fires of love burn brighter, and stolen interviews, loving epistles, meetings by moonlight, and determination to "love and love ever" was the result The sweets of spring went by. The flowers and beauties of summer sped away and still they "loved on," in who in place of becoming reconciled was becoming more and more irreconciled every day Something must be done The "cold cold winds of winter," would soon stop their stolen interviews, under the shades of the pines of Half moon hill, or down where the waters sang so sweetly along the Milesburg pike And they concluded, to sail down the stream that had heretofore been so roughly for them, in one boat as man and wife Arrangements were made. The watchful eyes of "papa" were to be eluded, and the pair was to become one, without the knowledge of any one, saw the lucky parson, who should get the fee for tying the knot Tuesday night last, was the time fixed. The family, that in the morning was to be minus one fair member retired as usual, the expectant bride along with the rest Time passed again On towards, the "we sma hours, mair familiar, imagined she heard stealthy footsteps on the back stairs The old gentleman was awakened, and after listening a short time, concluded that there were burglars about, and hastily arising he drew on his pants, lighted the lamp, siezed the poker, and sallied out to meet the robbers" But judge of his surprise, instead of encountering a half dozen of over grown desperadoes, to meet at the foot of the stairs his good looking daughter of "sweet sixteen," fixed up in full rig, with hand box, valise, shawls and other accouterments hanging on her arm An explanation was of course demanded, but before one could be given a light tap was heard on the hall door and a masculine voice sang out in suppressed tone, 'Hurry darling, I'm waiting!' Light began to break in on the surprised parent and he transferred his attention to the street door Daughter expostulated, begged pa not to go out there or he would catch his death of cold; but pa was unrelenting, and in a moment stood on the porch, confronting the worshiper of one of his household, in full traveling rig, with buggy and horses in the back ground This of course was an unexpected meeting and the ardent admirer without waiting for explanation left. The old man stormed awhile and the fair being, who such a short time previous was picturing to herself the future happiness that awaited her, when she could sit and look up into the affectionate eyes of her legal lord, and sing

"Am I not fondly thine own,"

went back to bed, reflecting over the fact that

"Disappointment lurks in every bud and flower"

The lovers was last seen at one of our livery stables, settling for a two horse rig, which he swore was two wide for one and not wide enough for two And last night as we passed by the dwelling of her that longed to be a wife, to day, we heard in doleful strains coming from the window of her room,

"Ah for wings to soar," &c"

She is said to be better this morning, and although frequently talks of blighted hopes, broken hearts &c., it is thought she will recover, without any serious trouble

FARMERS AND THE INTERNAL REVENUE TAX.—We give below in condensed form some of the decisions of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, which are of particular interest and importance to our farmers

1st Farmers will not be required to make return of produce consumed in their immediate families

2d The farmer's profits from the sale of live stock are to be found by deducting from the gross receipts for animals sold, the purchase money for the same. If animals have been lost during the year by death or robbery, the purchase money paid for such animals may be deducted from the gross income of the farm

3d. No deduction can be made by the farmer for the value of services rendered by his minor children, whether actually paye for such services or not. If his adult children work for him and receive compensation for their labor, they are to be regarded as other hand laborers in determining his income

4th Money paid for labor, except such as is used or employed in domestic service, or in the production of articles consumed in the family of the producer, may be deducted

5th. No deduction can be allowed in any case for the cost of unproductive labor. If house servants are employed a portion of the time in productive labor, such as the making of butter and cheese for sale, a proportionate amount of the wages paid they may be deducted

6th. Expenses for ditching and cleaning new land are plainly expenses for permanent improvement and not deducted:

7th. The whole amount expended for fertilizers applied during the year on the farmer's land may be deducted, but no deduction is allowed for fertilizers produced on the farm. The cost of seed for sowing and planting may be ducted

8th. If a person sells timber standing, the profits are to be obtained by estimating the value of the land after the removal of the timber, and from the sum thus obtained deducting the estimated value of the land on the first day of January, 1862, or on the day of purchase, if purchased since that date.

9th. Where no repairs have been made by the taxpayers upon any building owned by him during the proceeding five years, nothing can be deducted for repairs made during the year for which his income is estimated.

10th. A farmer should make return of all his produce sold within the year, but a mere executory contract for a sale is not a sale delivery either actual or constructive is essential. The criterion by which to judge whether a sale is complete or not is to determine whether the vender still retains in that character a righ: over the property; if the property were lost or destroyed, upon which of the parties, in the absence of any other relation between them than that of the vender and vendee would the loss fall

REORGANIZATION OF THE BELLEFONTE BRASS BAND.—We are glad to learn that the Bellefonte Brass Band is about to be reorganized, this is a step in the right direction. There is no reason why Bellefonte should not have a Band and a good Band—A few years ago this town could boast of one of the finest bands in the interior of Pennsylvania, but the breaking out of the war owing to several of its members joining the army it became virtually silenced On Saturday evening last, the remaining members (eight in number) held a meeting and decided to reorganize, by filling up the vacancies out of the best musical talent offered The committee appointed, at that meeting to make the necessary arrangements have secured the services of their former teacher, Prof. John Rowbotham of Philadelphia, who will meet the Band on Monday Nov 12th. We congratulate the members of the Band on their sucess in securing the services of Mr. Rowbotham who has the reputation of being one of the best teachers of Brass Bands in the State The necessary expenses attending the organization of a brass band for tuition, music, &c., is very considerable, and we hope our citizens will take the matter in hand and see that there be no lack of material aid, for upon the amount raised will depend the amount of instruction given and as a necessary consequence the character of the music produced and the standing of the Band

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Oct. 27, 1866

P GRAY MEEK, Esq.—The following (the latest translation and rendition of HAMLET) is respectfully submitted to the judgement of the classic admirers of Shakespeare at 'Agricultural College"

HAMLET AS A YANKEE.—If Hamlet had been a Yankee "way deown East," the following might have been the interview between himself and his ghostly father:

Ghost—"I am thy father's spirit——

Hamlet—"Yeou don't say so! Why old man give us your flipper How do dew?—When'd ye come deown?"

Ghost—"Doomed for a certain term to walk the night——"

Hamlet—Why on airth don't you take the boss cars, and ride? Or do they quit too airly for ye? Where do ye hang out in the day time?"

Ghost—"And for the day confined to fast in fires——"

Hamlet—"About how fast are you, old man? Tew-forty?"

Ghost—"Till the foul crimes done in my days of nature are purged away."

Hamlet—"Are you purging bad? Here's a little cholera medicine" (Produces a bottle of stuff provided gratuitously by the Board of Health.)

Ghost—"But that I am forbid to tell the secrets of my prison house, I could a tale unfold——"

Hamlet—"Don't unfold it here: not if it is one of them tales to be continued in the New York Ledger"

Ghost—"Whose lightest word would harrow up thy soul—"

Hamlet—"Fetch on your hurrar."

Ghost—"Freeze thy young blood—"

Hamlet—"Git aout! you tarnel old refrigerator!"

Ghost—"Make thy two eyes, like stars, start from their spheres——"

Hamlet—"Dew tell! You couldn't say aboout what time they'd start?"

Ghost—"Thy knotted and combined locks to part——"

Hamlet—"I have parted with about all on 'em neow, 'specially on the top of my head"

Ghost—"And each particular hair to stand on end, like quills upon the fretful porcupine"

Hamlet—"Neow look a here, old poppy, don't fret yeour darned old porcupine over me"

Ghost—"But this eternal blazon must not be to ears of flesh and blood List, list, O list!"

Hamlet—"Yeou be gol darned Didn't I list in Jean Peabody's Hum Guards when yeou fled into Canada, takin' yeour draft with ye? Better go and 'list yourself, you tarnel old critter 'stead of prowlin' around nights, disturbin your blood relations Git eout!"

[Exit Hamlet, greatly enraged against the "phorint" for urging him to "list."

(For the WATCHMAN.)

MR. MEEK.—I trust you will pardon me for asking the privilege to again trespass upon your columns about "them letters." Justice was only asked in the first place for KLEPPER This has been obtained but the Press in acknowledging it, does it with such bad grace Cannot these renegade radical miscreants render to Cæser that which is his, without going off on a tangent and making such long faces Another set of letters is wanted They can be accommodated provided it will pay, and they don't again want all the glory. There is doubt whether Kurtz is the author of the article signed "them letters." Certain signs therein point to another source. There is croppings out that cannot be mistaken By whom it may, they undoubtedly belong to that class of animals that spoke when "Balam spoke" for little ponies can but hold up their heads and stare to see how the ass doth kick and rear. Nothing but sheep and "sheep heads" enters into their minds.—This however is natural for it is not long since poor deluded Kurtz suffered himself with his political principles to be bartered off like a sheep in the "shambles." The bill of sale is yet extant and may be be ressurrected. I flatly deny that there is any posion in that "copperhead heart" ascribed to me in anywise whatever towards poor Kurtz, for truly he is more an object of pity than of scorn At the same time it is just as well for them to keep cool and not to rant so, least they get more than they bargained for of

A female has been born in LA CROSSE with two perfect tongues. If she lives and marries, won't her husband catch it? Nothing but a pair of Graham & McAffery's excellent shoes, would give her a pleasant countenance.

AMERICAN LIFE DROPS are a sure cure for Diphtheria, Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat and Bronchitis.

CAN'T AGREE.—Three things that never agree—two cats over one mouse, two wives in one house, and two lovers after one young lady. There is one thing, however, that all agree on and that is that Sussman's sell as cheap, if not cheaper, than any merchant in town. He has a complete stock of everything.

THE HAIR RESTORER that gives the best satisfaction is Pestachine. Used and sold everywhere.

THE FINEST OYSTERS—We have seen for many a day came to us from Henry Yager's Saloon yesterday. Those who are in the habit of taking a dish of oysters once in a while are advised to go to Yager's He keeps none but the best, his tables are nice and clean, all the usual etceteras are there, and besides Henry himself is always in a good humor,

"CATCH" advertisements have latterly come into common use—very much, occasionally to the disgust of the serious trader. These are generally placed among "Notices" in city journals, or in the columns of reading matter of the country weeklies Many of them are exceedingly ingenious, and display no small degree of talent in their compilation and adaptation. For example, in this paragraph we "snake" in the fact that Harper & Bros have the largest assortment of goods, ever brought to this place, which they are selling at exceedingly low rates.

AD NOTICES.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL—For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are its cures, that in almost every section of country are persons publicly known who have been restored by it from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs incident to our climate. While many interior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten

We can assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done

Great number of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and other eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them The agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given, with also full descriptions of the complaints our remedies cure

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S Comp Ext Sarsaparilla the one to use Try it once, and you will concede its value
