He's a Negro Still.

Whether or not the white masses of our country will ever get through doing tor the negro, what he is either incapaof doing, or to lazy to do, for himwif, is a question the future alone can History furnishes no example of a people willingly enclaving thenigreater follies-we may say crimes-com. mitted by men who claim to be intelli-QUIXOTE, in his madness turned loose a bing. The people of this contry—the laboring masses, have turned loose four py, received from them &complete drubmillions of negroes, and for their philanthropy, have been impoverished beyond calculation and enslaved almost beyond the hope of redemption Don QUIXCTE, mad as he was, was satisfied with the drubbing, and left the convicts, without ttempting further to make them the, ornaments of society he contemplated having them, but our people cazier than the crazy Spaniard- seem not to satisfied with the result of their folly. or to learn wisdom from that most exper s ve teachers - experience, but go on, just as though the experiment of negro "freedom'" had been the most perfect success, and as if every movement of puritan abelitionism, was dictated by prudence, reason, justice and right. To secure the so-called 'freedom' the negroes of the Southern States now enjoy, the white men of the country, paid. or mortgaged their property and to pay, billions upon billions of dollarsfilled a million of graves with brave men -- a country with cripples, widows and orphans—the land with mourning and olation, and destroyed a government that boasted of being the best the sun' ever shone upon After these sacrifice one would have thought that they would he willing to stop-to turn their atten on to their own interests - and let Sam ho prove that he was fitted for the new order of things, for the new position is life, which their philanthropy and love had opened up for him But no. "free dom" was not a great enough boon to be must be furnished with food, be provid period and pettyd. -because it was said had been "oppressed And enough for him Agencies to protect him have been established, schools to educate him have been built up, laws obliterating all barriers to his progress have been passed; statutes doing away with all distinctions of race or color have been exhausted to make him in all re--color, condition, character and ments of the world

And yet with all these-with all that is he but the same indolent, thriftless, in any way that he is capable of apprecrating the position of a freeman? Has tempted the accomplishment of a single to believe that they have not foolishly thrown away their money, wickedly   fquandered their time and senselessly and idiotically, empoverished themselves to accomplish that which God never de-

We ask you laboring men-you wh work from "dawn of day till dusk of eve" -for it is you, who "pay the piper"what good all you have done for the negro has accomplish? You made up the army and gave him "freedom"-an object, he had not ambition enough himself, to attempt to gain, you created a you established schools to educate him, and heas shown you by his indolence and ignorance that he has no desire or capacity to be educated; your representatives passed laws, giving him the same opportunities in life you enjoy, and be s appreciated them by becoming more worthless and helpless than ever. Look about the country and tell us if what we have been saying is not the plain unvarnished truth? If after all you have done for him, the negro is not a negro

And after you reflect for a moment, tell us, ye toiling masses, who vote to support free negroism, when you intend to stop doing for the negro, and do for yourselves. Have you no sympathy for your own race? No pride for your own blood? No feeling for your country or no respect for yourselves? If not, in the name of all that is just, turn yourselves into servants for negroes, wait and attend upon them to your hearts content, but let the thousands of white men, who feel like working for themselves and their families do so, without having their earning taken for taxes to to be a candid fact, that his chances now keep your proteges. If you think you for this position are better than either have not yet done enough for them, do CURTINS, UAMERONS, STEVENS'S OF FORwhat you wish to do yournelves, but don't for decency's sake make laws compelling others to assist you. Don Quix-orz, took the drubbling for his madaese; you should be willing to bear alone, the results if your folly.

A Word to Democrate

Democrats we have a word of advise for you. The political campaigns for the season are over, but your work, if you would succeed in the end, is only commencing. Now is the time to perdo the work for next fall. Passion and prejudice is allayed—political, bias and partisan bigotry is set aside, and mens ason can be appealed to on behalf of right. It is the time for you to work .-CESS OF DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES IN THE your organizations as has generally been your custom immediately after the elec fion-fill them up-perfect them-make your arrangements to hold weekly or monthly meetings-raise your funds to secure sound reading for those, who are willing to read and learn. These long selves, as our have done, to carry out a mights are a splendid time to circulate missisken philantheopy, and the historian of the future may still have to record ing men, have time now to read a good when in the summer or during the ordi nary political campaigns they could not gent and who think they are free Dos and poportunity to glance over them QUIXOTE, in his madness turned loose a and our political opponents will read and score of convicts, and for his philanthruster of convicts and for his philanthruster of convicts drub.

> portunity could be afforded, to create healthy political feeling over the entire country It is a mistaken ideas to leave the real work of a political canvass, to be done few weeks preceeding the election. The prejudice that lays hold of mens minds the partisan feelings that control their better judgement, during the excitement of the campaign is generally so strong that it eannot be overcome, and nothing can be accomplished save the rallying o our forces, and the gathering up of the few stragglers that may fall from their ranks You is the time to recruit on forces, to nake accessions to our numbers to show that we are interested in the cause for which we battle, and to

we just quote one more horror. A trademant and his wife ruined themselves by drink. The woman fell ill, and lay in in describable filth on her sick bed for months On a Saturday she died, and remained intouched toll. Thursday. The hashand that day obtained ten shiftings to secure the necessery attendance, but instead of devoing the money to its propper purpose, went and got drunk with it. He went home in this state and slept with the corps! On Friday some persons sent a fibarse to take away the body, but when the men saw no person to go with the funeral, they took her out and threw her down in the room again, where she lay till the police had her buried on the following Saturday. As a sequel we are told, "an old woman, who lived un'derneath, was so much shocked that she died that inght." Such is the account which inverpool gives of use!!

There is time enough in the future to overhaul the so many storms, tear out the rotten planks which weaken us, that our struggle with tyranny may be triumphant and declaive if the arm of the democracy has been feble, it is because it has been bound with, fulse issues and tied down to indefensible policies. We fear that, like the world around it, there has been incorporated too much shoddy and gill gingerbread to make the old fellow appear "respectable," in these degenerate days. Usu ually without thought, they blame the land lord for taking the whole amount, and sometimes consider him a sharper. If tenants only feit that they themselves are responsible for high taxation, which in case of mismanagement might have been prevented by the election of good men to office, they would probably be more sensible of their duties in municipal affairs. In New York, some hindigers are now making the precise state of their tenants in good government visible by printing on their receipts for rent how much of it goes for taxes, and how much the taxes now exceed those of ten years ago.
