

The Democratic Watchman.

BELLEFONTE, PA., FRIDAY, MARCH 12, 1867. VOL. XII. NO. 12.

WHY? BY RETEL LEXX. How kind Reuben Emmond is growing of late...

For I am a school and stupid old man. Quite willing to do all the good that I can...

THE SEARCH FOR A WIFE. BY "VIRGINIA." Reader, I am going to tell you how it is...

Reader, I am going to tell you how it is I happened to be a married man, and not the independent old bachelor I had planned...

"No thing," he replied, without taking the cigar from his lips, "nothing," except that Congress...

Additional charm Tom, my boy, I am going on a pilgrimage to worship at his shrine...

He left soon after, promising to call that evening for the opera, previous to taking his wife to the party...

Three days had passed, sixteen visits had been paid, the opera visited twice...

Three days had passed, but they seemed months instead of days. When on the morning of the fourth...

"Hello!" Frank, you are the very man I was looking for...

"Yes, sir," he replied with a bow, and left the room to convey said compliments to his comrades...

"No, thank you, I dislike looking for partners; but look here old fellow, make no more engagements for me...

"You will excuse me, I know, when I tell you how very much surprised I was to find in you Miss Harrison, the realization of my...

AN ELOQUENT OPENING.

While collecting natural curiosities, near the river Duiper, in Russia, a gentleman suddenly noticed an immense volume of smoke rising in the distance...

The inhabitants of this part of Russia used to set fire to the woods in the beginning of spring, for the swampy forest thickets are the favorite resting places of wolves...

My situation, says the gentleman, was very dangerous, for the only road leading to the plain was cut off, and from it an ocean of flames was driven by the wind directly towards me...

The fire approached me with great velocity; a few minutes longer, and I should have been obliged to leap into the water myself. I observed the quick approach of the horrible ocean of flames with a dead like fear...
