ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

MARY.—We do not charge anything for our answers. We are always glad to render any information to our correspondents we can.

SAM.—We have always thought that the riddle to which you refer had no answer.

TRUE.—A deed where the consideration is five hundred Dollars or under, requires a fifty cent stamp, and for each additional five hundred or fractional part thereof fifty cents

STUDENT.—Justinian flourished long after the destruction of all that was great in the Roman Empire

YOUTH.—Mary, Queen of Scots, was a cousin of Elizabeth, and mother of James I.

WILL.—The rule in your case is that each one takes the half.

O H.—We know nothing about the person to whom you refer.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

SOFT.—The roads and the laboring man, who believes his general interests are enhanced by voting the abolition ticket

GOOD.—The grain crop throughout the country, is said to look exceedingly well and promises a full harvest.

LIFE.—The agent of Greely's conflict On people loves the nigger, but not in such doses as Horace administers

SHOWS PERSONAL.—The new signs on our streets, and the intentions of the mongrel majority.

—Ex-Governor Curtin, sailed for Europe in the Steamer Fulton, on Saturday last —The Agricultural College has forty students, the present session, and a faculty of twenty professors.

— Had a huge time—Young America, serenading a newly married couple on Bishop street, Tuesday night

—Rev Mr Pardoe, newly appointed pastor of the M E Church, will preach in that edifice on Sabbath next.

—A slight skirmish, between two of the "nations wards," of the female persuasion, took place in front of our office on Tuesday night last. Wool alone suffered

SECURE YOUR SEAT.—The pews in the M E Church, will be rented to morrow Saturday evening at 8 o'clock Persons who desire seats for the coming year should not fail to attend.

ONE HUNDRED and forty three families, together with any amount of single individuals, will leave this country for different parts of the west during the coming spring and Summer

WAR LIKE.—We noticed at the depot a few days since, two large brass cannon, intended for the Agricultural college Whether the faculty has determined to blow learning into the students, or brains out of them, with these pieces of Artilery we can not say

ROUSED.—The house of Mrs M A Hastings on Spring street, during her absence some time since, was broken into and robbed of jars of fruit, meat, flour, and in fact all the edibles that could be found upon the premises, together with clothing, bed clothes, linen &c

SMASH UP.—We understand that the 4 o'clock train, which left this place for Tyrone, on Monday evening last, met with an accident at Milesburg, which detained at the greater portion of the night. A broken rail threw the engine from the track, overturned the tender, and placed the baggage car directly across the road The halt was rather sudden throwing the passengers from their seats, bruising them some, but fortunately no one was injured to any extent.

RIGHT.—A meeting for the purpose of raising funds for the destitute of the South, was held in the Court House on Saturday evening last Committees were appointed to solicit subscriptions, and we understand that over five hundred dollars, have already been raised Let the good work go on Throw in your might friends, and remember that "he who giveth to the poor, lendeth to the Lord," although in this instance we are simply returning a little of what we have stolen and destroyed

HAS IT DIED A NATURAL DEATH!—We should like very much to know what has become of the Mifflin and Centre County Rail Road For almost a month we have had no word of it at all Since the charter was secured, the whole matter seems to have fallen through, or is progressing so very quietly, that many have forgotten that such a movement was ever talked of. What has become of it, has it died a natural death, or has it got lost in the mountains?

For the WATCHMAN.

Messrs Editors,—Thinking perhaps the following condensed statement of the proceedings of the "Band of Hope," in this Borough, might be of interest to your readers, and encouraging to the youthful members connected therewith, we have availed ourselves of the privilege of your columns in making the following report. The Band of Hope was organized in Bellefonte Academy Room No 3, March 8, 1867, consisting of six members. On the 16th, inst, seventeen new members joined; and on the 23d, inst, ten others were added to our number. We now number thirty three, and bid fair to become a good society. Our Superintendents are Mrs C Humes, Mrs M J Kephart, Miss K I Thompson.

President, E C Humes, Jr; Vice President, D Lieb; Secretary, George Bont, Assistant Secretary, W R Brackbill; Financial Secretary, J H Potter; Assistant Secretary, W H Hilibish; Treasurer, C N Clure The pledge of the Society is to abstain from the use of all spirituous and malt liquors, Wine or Cider as a beverage—from Tobacco in every form and from all profanity

All boys and girls from eight to twenty years of age, are cordially invited to join the Band of Hope The object of this society is to establish an earnest and efficient organization, based upon a moral and religious foundation. To educate the rising generation into habits of sobriety, and organize the youth of the land into societies until every Home becomes a citadel of Temperance. Ministers of all denominations, Sabbath School Superintents, and Teachers—all parents, friends, and sympathizers in this good movement, are most earnestly invited to aid in the good work—to the extent of their ability.

Very respectfully yours,
Bellefonte, March 26, 1867. COM:

FROM KANSAS.—The following letter from Monrovia, Atchison County Kansas, dated, Jan 28, has laid on our table for several weeks, and is now given to our readers, at the especial request of the friends of the writer

Messrs Editors:—Before leaving Pennsylvania I had to promise a great many of my friends and acquaintances that I would write them and give my opinion of the country where I intended to settle, namely the State of Kansas I find, I have promised to much to write to every one I would desire, and have therefore concluded to request you to publish in your paper, a few lines which I think may prove satisfactory to many inquirers

I have lived in this State about one year, have travelled over the central and north eastern portions, have also been very inquisitive about this portion of the State I did not see; and my intention is to give an unbiased account of what I believe to be the qualities of this State. In the first place, there is an excellent soil capable of producing as many varieties of grain as is grown in any other State The central and Southern part of the State, is also well adapted for fruit, but the northern and western part is not, although it is excellent for small grain It is claimed, and well it may be that this State stands second to none in the advantage of soil and climate The general impression of persons coming from the East, is that timber is so scarce to improve it I will hear admit that it certainly is a great drawback to its early settlement, yet it is claimed that the immense quantity of grass on the Prairie more than compensates the want of timber, in the advantage of raising stock Where there is no timber, and not under cultivation, there is a fine growth of grass Beside this there is a great deal more timber in the State, than any one would have an idea of, just traveling through it The roads are on the highest ground, and the timber on the lowest, mostly along the streams. You can get on some high point of Prairie and see ten miles with apparently no timber, yet there may be several miles of timber between those points Then there are many portions of the State where there is plenty of timber to improve it thoroughly There is also splendid building rock unsurpassed any where Lime stone of the best quality for lime with an abundance of stone coal This latter crops out near the surface in many places in the State The country is also well supplied with water by springs, streams and surface water for stock and water power But for drinking and house use it is recommended to have cisterns or wells Water can be obtained by digging from twelve to forty feet Using this latter water, you avoid the only apparent sickness accredited to this State As for the health of the State, I have to say that I believe it will make if not now, one of the healthiest in the Union, at least our physicians say so I know of no prevailing disease in this country, except Intermittant and Ague fevers and those in their mildest forms And my opinion is that when we will be able to till and pasture the large fields of Prairie, and also so many thousand tons of Hay from decaying on the fields, which produces a very bad smell in the fall of the year, we will not be annoyed by the fever There has been but one death in the neighborhood since I came here, and that was quite an old lady. As for society we have quite a conglomeration of characters. We have emigrants from all the States, and also from foreign countries Some religious, some moral and some perhaps neither, yet in many portions of the State, there exists very good society. The greatest of efforts are made for schools and churches I do think the shortest of financeering for these purposes is brought forward Where there are ten scholars, there must be a school house, and where there are forty, there must be a graded school, and in a town or city, with a population of two thousand, a College and Commercial School In short they are a go ahead set of people You must not come here to find ignoramuses or misers Old fogyism is fast right of, and all modern improvements are aimed at sharply, and with such a spirit imbued in the hearts of this people with the various advantages as climate soil and central locations affords will soon set them much of a check commerce and trade The Centre Line of border is traversed by steam boats The central and northern portion of the State by the branches of the Pacific Railroad. The Atchison Topeka Sante Fee and New Mexico Railroad will soon be put into operation, with various other connecting branches, which will make this State compare favorably with her sister States in public improvements. I could say a great deal more in explanation of what I have hinted at, but I fear I will be to lengthy, yet I cannot close without inviting those whom I think would be profitable to the State and themselves, to come and settle here It has already been intimated that this State needs improvements Hence that class of men who earn their bread by the sweet of their brow, Farmers, Mechanics, and laboring men who are laboring under the disadvantage of the east, will certainly find this country more remunerative Those who follow idleness and expect by aptness and intrigue to make a living, are respectfully requested to stay where they are The country is running full of speculators and those who wish to make fortunes in a short time, either honestly or dishonestly and a curse rather than a blessing to any country and certainly to this State. And now in conclusion, it will be worth four times the cost to come and see it. It will only take two days and a half, and cost about forty dollers, and I venture the assertion, that no one that can look beyond his name into neighborhood, ever would live either, time or expense I would urge no one to spend his time or money without benefit I have travelled in fourteen States, have spent time and money, and much as I like money I am not sorry but am contented to make Kansas my future home Truly yours,

J. B. SCHAFFER.
Late, of Nittany Hall, Pa.

THAT CROSSING.—The crossing between Mr Milligan and the property lately purchased by J P Gephart esq, of Dr Mitchell, is still left untouched It is not only wrong, but it is an outrage against the citizens of that part of town Children can not get to school without wading through the mud and water wetting their feet, and running the risk of sickness, colds or croup resulting from it; Ladies can not cross without becoming drabbled, and men have to plod through the mud at the expense of boots and pants, when a simple order from the Town Council, would have the place repaired in halfan day.

CLOSE.—We have quite a number of close fisted men in this section of the country but the closest we have heard of for some time, was the chap who went into Hirshler's saloon on Saturday last, and traded two raw eggs for two boiled ones, and wanted three cents worth of bread to boot, in order to save frying for a dinner.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—A meeting of the members of the Bar, and officers of the Courts of Centre county, was held on Friday evening the 22nd of March 1867, which was organized by the appointment of James H Rankin esq, as chairman, and James H Lipton esq, as Secretary.

The Chairman stated the object of the meeting to be, to take some action in reference to the death of Delaune Gray esq, a member of the Bar, when

A committee, consisting of Messrs. James A Beaver, W H Lourimore, and George M Yocum, was appointed, to draft a suitable minute expressive of the sense of the Bar.

After some time the Committee through its Chairman, James H Rankin esq, reported the following, which was adopted.

It is impossible for us at any time to know the object or the reasons of God's dealings with his creatures We seek to explore the divine mind in vain, and feel that we tread upon forbidden ground, when we attempt it. We can only accept his providential dealings with us as the doings of one who is wiser than we are—who knows best what is for our good—who "doeth all things well"

Delaune Gray esq, a member of the Bar of Centre County, the worthy object of devoted attachment in his family—of unlimited confidence among those with whom he was associated in business—of profound respect and esteem in the community, is removed from our midst by death. We dare not ask why. We dare not point to some one less useful in the community, or less beloved by wife and children, and say why not he? We are left only the satisfaction of bearing our testimony to his worth as a man—to his unbounding integrity to his conscientious and intelligent discharge of duty, to his dignified and courteous demeanor to his fellow men—to his social virtues and the purity of his domestic life.

We extend to his family our sympathy and condolence in our mutual loss, which necessarily falls with peculiar crushing weight upon them.

We recommend that this minute be spread upon the records of the Court and published in the county papers, and that a copy be furnished to the family

JAS H LIPTON, Secretary. JAS H. RANKIN President.
