Democracy is the foundation of a different kind of a higher law. It recomzes the purity of the Anglo Saxon blood it cannot degrade the civilized world by the moders and or has been defined by the control of the control of the civilized world by the control degrade the civilized world by the control of the control this great American nation are no better man the rights that properly belong to the reflect that all this has been him, and consign to everlasting disgrace done to took the rittle Sambo in the every attempt to build up a mongrel me cradle of Aboliting, liberty Let constitution, and makes war upon every draw th migh infringement of that sacred compact -It has always been in open hostility to laws which oppress the people. It forcesaw the rathering storm, and warned them. Had the warnings been heeded. the dark clouds of civil war and their concomitant evils, would have never hung in portentious significance over the already envisible remater on that Godey destiny of this nation But a strange Possessia infatuation seemed to possess the may gods of war seemed to have been invoked in the madness of the hour Slavery was the scape goat, upon which they rode with their wide awake lamps into power, and upon which thousands marched unfortunately into, the very jaws of death Negro enfranchisment and political power were the objects in view Millions of treasures were thu expended and mourning and desolation overspread the land One after another the guarantees of the Constitution were taken away, until we had scarcely any government at all. Little did the rank and file of the army suppose, they were fighting to degrade themselves by enfran chising the negro, much less did they suppose that they were waging a war of confiscation or extermination upon the South. They believed as they had been told, that they were fighting for the resthe they were fighting for the resortion of the country and for the price servation of the laws.
