CHURCH MUSIC.-It is unnecessary to spen of the importance of good music in the devotion-al services of the chuich. There are many churches in our land, where all attempts to praise God in sacred hymns act as a hinderand rather than a help to devotion, especially in the port the voices. Where a choir cannot be brought together from the same cause, congre-gational singing has failed, and devotional music languishes in desolation.

The voices need a suitable instrument to sus this purpose since, from its method of construcion, it is not capable of resonant power

The American Organie, particularly the style with the deep, support sub-bias and super-actor' coupler, are objectally adapted, from their deep, voluminous tone, to assist in the service of song n the house of the Lord - Their quality of tone bends finely with the human voice, without the unpleasant ready effect of other instruments, while the great variety in the stops and valent enables the organist to introduce very beautiful

The celebrated author in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful prat tice, that the alarming consequence of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the appheation of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which-every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

£2. This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.
