

tor Singletary, as we drew near a neat far writing master, under pretence of visiting a neighboring town, left his lodgins and house, during one of our morning drives A tall, healthy young woman, in the never returned. The last I heardof him, he om of mattonly beauty, was feeding was the tenant of a Western penitentiary. chickens at the door." She uttered an exelamation of delight, and hurried toward -- Poor Julia, driven in disgrace from her vis Preceiving a stranges in the wago she paused, with a look of embarrassmen "My friend, who is spending a few weeks visit her: "and although not unused to with me," explained the doctor

She greated me civily, and pressed the doctor's hand warmly "Oh, it is so long since you have calle on us that we have been talking of going up to see you, as soon as Robert can get away also of its death from the cornfield You don't know how title Lucy has grown lately, You must

, op anderse her

"She's coming to sceme herself." renhd the doctor, beckoning to a sweet, blue yed child in the doorway. The delighted mother caught up her darling and held her before the doctor.' "Dosen't she look like Robert?" she inquired. "Ilis very eyes and forehead; bless

' here he is now. A stout, hale, young farmer, in a obeck ed frock and a brown straw hat, came up from the adjoining field "Well, Robert," said the doctor, "hot do matters stand with you ! Well L hope.' "All right, Doctor We've paid off the last cent of the mortgage, and the farm is all free and clear. Julia and I have worked hard but we're none the worse for it." "You look well and happy, I am sure," answered the doctor "I don't think you are sorry you took the advice of an old bachelor, after all." The young wife's head dropped until her lips touched those of her child Sorry !" exclaimed her husband-Not we lithere's anybody happier than we are within ten miles of us, 1 don't know them Doctor, I'll tell you what I said to Juha the night I brought home that mortgage ; well said I, that debt's paid, but there's one debt we can never pay as long 'I know it, but Dr. Singletany wants no better froward for his nation, as the fitting penalty of God's bro-daughter-the tall blue eyed, brown looked dence, of man's duplicity. The rascally girl you noticed at church the other dayset the example among the young people of treating her as their equal and companion One widwinter evening I took Julia with me to a sick patient of mine, who was mis fering for the lack of sittendance. Th fathor's house, at hat found refuge in the dwelling of an old woman of no very credi-table character. There I was called to low us, on grandy level just elevated above the great salt marshes, stretching far away scones of suffering and sorrow, I had nover to the sea. The night set in dark and hefore witnessed such an utter abanden. stormy. The fierce north-costerly wind ment of grief, shalle, and remorse. Alas! swept over the level waste, driving thick what sorrow was like unto her sorrow ! snow clouds before it, shaking the doors and windows of the old house, and roaring The birth hour of her infant was the hour in its wast chimney. The woman was dy ing when we arrived, and her drunken hus The agony of her spirit seemed greater ort Barnet loves you with all the strength she gonfessed, that when Robert was a home, he had asked her to become his wife.

"Oh, doctor," she exclaimed, "how can than she could bear Her eyes were openband was sitting in stupid unconcern in the corner of the fire place. A little after ed, and she looked upon herself with loathing and horror She would Admit to no midnight she breathed her last Lope, no consolation ; she would listen to no In the meantime the storm had grow palliation or excuse for her guilt. I could only direct her to that source of pardon and jar of the great waves as they broke upon peace to which the heart-broken and contrite hear never appeals in vain the beach "It is a terrible night for sailors on the In the meantime, Robert Barnet shipped on board a Labrador vessel. The night becoast," I said, breaking our long silence with the dead God grant them sea-room!' fore he left he called on me and put in my hand a sum of money, small indeed, but all Julia shuddered as 1 spoke, and by the dim thashing firelight I saw her weeping I knew that her thoughts were with her old he could then command. "You will see her often." he said "do friend and playmate on the wide waters not let her suffer, for she is more to be pit-"Julia," said I, "do you know that Robied that blamed." I told him further, that I would do all in I told him further, that i would do nin in or the torte both and and and a strength my power for her, and added that I thought of an Kanest and true heart?" far better of her, contrito and pention is be trembied, and her voice fallored as far better of her, contrite and penitent as she was, then of some who were busy in olding her up to shame and censure.

"God bless you for these words ?" he said, grasping my hand "I shall think of pose, the brave generous follow." them often. They will be a comfort to you talk so ? It is just because Robert is As for Julia, God was more merciful to so good and noble and generous, that I dare not take him at his word. You, donted ber than man. She rose from her sick bed thoughtful and humbled, but wich hopes would have despised me if I had taken ad that transcended the world of hersuffering vaniage of his pity, or the kind remen brance of the old days when we were chi and shame, She no longer murmured against her orrewful allotment, but accept dren together. I have already brought to much disgrace upon those dear to me." ed it with quict and almost cheerful resigwas endeavoring to convince her, in reply kindness than to see us have happily togeth- ken laws, and the needed discipline of her that she was doing injusting to berself, and er, and do for others what he has doue for spirit. She could say with the Psalmist : wronging her best friend, these happiness The judgments of the lord are true, and depended, in a great measure, upon her illage had an only daughter, named Bessie s young lady not quiet seventeen, possess d of refinement and every virtue and ac complishment which nature could give or money procure. She hall a form of exqui eite symmetry and grace, and a tare voic which cultivation had trained, to produc the most perfect harmony. -she was indeed a most charming suger and bells of the country

For some months past there has been prowling around Brady's Mills a most ogerish looking mulatto supposed to have formerly been the slave of a brither of Mr. Dean living in Georgia. This monster has lived in a filthy but a the foot of Beady s accuration, with an old womon who seethed to by mistress, mother and housekeeper, altogether -No one knew shalt thou est bread " A trade is a his name, but by the ways of the town he was designated as Dan Sorungh

On Monday the second of Septembermore violent', there was a blinding snow Miss Bessie being at home, having left falling in the air, and we could feel the school at Bultimore, where she was attendhan gold —Ez ing, on account of the serious illness of her mother, went, unsecompanied, to spend the afternoon with a neighbor, some distance away, and returning in the early evening around the mountain, a sudden thunder hower came on, and meeting Dan, was in luced by him to seek shelter in the hut. Aias! poor child, no sooner had the doo been shut, than the fiendish demon seised upon her, and dospite her piercing screams nd struggles and in the presence of the old witch women, he committed upon the chuste virgin the foulest of trage of which the human mint can concerve or man is capable. fle then dragged her insensible rou out of the hut. The cool air revived her and again her lips uttered a shrill ory, whon this strage beast, in human shape standing upon her prestrate form, with the iusane idea of putting it out of her power to tell of the crime, orushed open her mouth with the heal of his boot, and with his hyena claws he tore the poor girl's tongue from her throat A small buy, driving the cows in the vacinity, hearing the screams gave the alarm, but before help could arrive, the field had fled The excursing torture of the delicate sufferer and the frantic anguish of her parquis, ad imagination oan conceive She is said to be in sudving condition-days There are hundreds of them Baber will it, it is better that we suffer them t men who have seen better days, men of dig ten millions of graves and hids with education and business ability, who envy them the ten millions of Southern people the mechanic who has support for himself and stamily in his handloraft. Parents uncoffined and forgotten, than that we, with nake a great mustake when they impose for our sense of honor as a people, and live forever, the world huted and self hated sen mon the brain of their boy the task of supporting him, without preparing his hands for emergencies. No matter how favorable finels of its hopeless, wakeless death ____ a boy's circumstances may be, he should enter the battle of life as every prudent general enters the battle of armies-with a Three or four days have elapsed since the dark and horrible transaction narrated reliable reserve to fall back intion in the ase of disaster. Every man's aristocracy below transpired, at or near Felwelling's has ennobled labor, and he who would diparage it must set himself above the Di vine principle, "In the sweat of thy face

Horrible.

"friend in need ," it is independence and wealth-a rich legacy which the poorest father may leave to his son, and which the drawn from the bigh road into the woods richest should regard as more valuable her ories stifled by a cloth of some sor

Condition of the South.

The Round Table a Republican Journal, concludes as follows, a lengthy article on "The Condition of the South:"

The plain meaning of the pseudo-Recon truction acts of Congress, new being pushd to their most merciless consummation simply this, 1st. To Register in th South the entire negro population and such whites as may be with them in supporting the Radical Congress. 2nd. To prohibit the registration of the wast majority of the whites who have a real interest in the quiet and presperity of the country. ard. To submit to the voters of the States thus registered, whether they will or will not old a convention-for the reconstruction of heir States under the Congressional plan Under this mode of procedure it may be teen what a hopeful future lies before the South and the whole country. Either the States will vote for convention or for no convention The white vote will be largely cast against convention, for the present military rule with all its disadvaniages at least affords protection, while reconstruc tion such as has been perpetrated in the to relieve him of his epidermis stand no more, but completely exhausted, yielded up the ghost-the monster dying a horrible death. The girl was conveyed to her home, where everything was done to relieve her suffering, but she died the next State of Tennessee gaves hills protection but to negro brigands Tue radical whites Avalanche

~A wife with a capital isn't always a cap ital wife ---- The impeachment of the President has been hanged into the impale of Congress.

--- The mongrel party is swfully sick with our own hands, should dig the one grave the "blue plague." They caught it at the late elections.

us may be wrong, for none but Gun is right You have a right to your ideas-we ---- "The ocean speaks eloquently, and for have a right to ours, for they are all born ever," says Beecher, "Yos," retorts Prontide, "and there is no use of tolling it to dry up." of a higher power, to be operated on by acts, events and arguments. But we would add to your happiness, here. 'An other will care for you in the Herenfter, as year amounting to over $52,000,000. He will care for all of us. You teach us by your daily example many things. We beuse, where a party, to which she had been invited, was given, when she was by Nether a better the she had been invited, was given, when she was Washington hotel is built, is supposed to jby car-it can be had. You are tired. Then rest. Go home and be with those who are with overtaken by a negro man and forcibly ing into the river. ---- The Charleston $S_n C_s$ if every says that there has not been a case of yellow fover in dignity bahind you. Open your heart,- pressed over her mouth. Taken to a se that city this year. On the contrary the city has pluded and desolate spot, she was tied of been remarkably healthy oluded and desolate spot, sur week -----Genoral Schofield has left Richmonu io-the negro, and there dotained for a week while the black scoundrol effected his vile while the black scoundrol effected his vile trick commanders have been sailed to confer with the President. ing able to offer the slightest resistance. -----Bills to enable colored men to sit on ja-Two men, who were out hunting, unex pretedly owns upon her, still tightly bound ries, and repealing the stay, and exemption and alone Her captor had left her at the laws in labor suits, have been introduced in the Tennossee Legislature.

noment either to procure food or pursue tome other purpose. Learning from the wretched girl the circulistances of the ----- Tho asses who put Phil, Sheridan on their shoulders in Baltimore appropriately enough imagined themselves to be beasts of atrocity practiced upon her, they concealed hemselves until he should return. Nor burden.

-An old Indian chief offors himself, and had they long to wait-and, upon his com not be. Your forms may be bent or usiv. ing they at once seized and secured him Believing that the victim should pronounce but do you not know that the most he ful flowers after grow in the mest ranged, spect sentence upon him, they awaited her deunsheltered places ? The palace for the -A covern with a fathomless lake has cree. It was to flay him allve They at been found in Wyandot county, Ohio. A fath-omiess lake, generally means one which can't be once proceeded with their hunting knives love in the mandian, but somehow if wears not very careful business will crowd all sounded with a fish line. est resounded with his ories and impreca-there is of beauty out of the heart. This is tions as they stripped the skin from the soles of his fact to his thody . By the time why God has given us Sabhaths and Saturout the Domocrate have carried about two to one This makes the legislature safe for the Democday nights, that we may leave -business, in they had progressed to his waist, he could acy next spring.

the office and heart-eleaning, PT Forgive, as you would be fargiven, Aove -An Irish absentee is said to have s you would be loved. Do as you would this comforting message to his steward : Tell be done by. Suppose you were a weary the tenants that no threats to shoot you will territy me. prisoner at home, and think how, welcom would be the spming of har you love, to be ----- A Havana papertaunts the United States day la great anguich .- Memphis (Tenn(

"Pshaw !" said the Doctor, catching up | thy judgment is right." his reins and whip. "You owe me nothing But I must not forget my errand, Poor old widow Whiting needs a watcher to-night. and she insist upon having Julia Barnet, and nobody else What shall I tell her * "I'll go instantly. I can leave Lucy now as well as not "Good bye, neighbors "

"Good bye, Doctor

As I drave off, Leaw the Doctor draw his hand hastily across his eyes, and he said nothing for some minutes 'Public opinion," said he at lentgh, as when I found heriby the hedside of a Datient Beautiful it was to see this po if pursuing his meditations aloud, "Public opinion 18, nine cases out often, public fol-ly and impertinence. We are slaves to one young girl, whom the world still looked upn with scorn and unkindness, cheering th a dare not take counsel of our condesponding and imparting, as it were, he soiences and affections, but must needs have popfitar prejudice and custom to decide for us, and at their bidding are sacrificing love faint ; supporting on her own besom, through weary nights, the heads of those who, while in health, would have deemed and friendship, and all the best hopes of our lives. We do not ask what is right and her touch rollution, or hear her singing for the ear of the dying some sweet } hymn of best for us, but what will folks say of it .hope or resignation, or calling to mind the | ible above the snow. How few dare to seek their own happiness by the lights which God has given them o msolations of the Gospel and the great ave strength to defy the false pride and the ove of Christ. prejudice of the world, and stand fast in the "I trust," said I. "that the feelings of liberty of Christians. Can anything be more pitiable than the sight of so many who should be choosers and erestors unde satisfaction we abbor and censure folly and God of their own spheres of utility and happiness, self-degraded into mere slives sin in others. It is a luxury which we can of propriety and sustom-their true natures not easily forego, although our own experiundeveloped, their hearts cramped and shut nd error are bitter enough without the agup, each fraid of his neighbor, and h gravation of reproach and ridicule fro ighbor of him, living a life of unreality, ithout. So you need not be surprised to deceiving and being deceived, and foreve learn that, in poor Julia's case, the charity walking in a valu show ? Here. now, we have just left a married couple who are hap of sinners like herself did not keep pace with the mercy and forgivness of Him who py because they have taken counsel of their s infinite in purity. Nevertheless, I will do honest affectious, rather than of the opinur people the justice to say that her blameions of the multitude, and have dared to be true to themselves in defiance of impertialess and self-sacrificing life was not without

"What became of Robert Barnet?" I inentigonaip." "You allude to young farmer Barnet and his wife, I suppose," said I. guired. 'He came after an absence of several "Yes. I will give you their cases as an ation. Julia Atkins was the daughfer of Easign Atkins, who lived on the wer of masign Atkins, who first out all even seen his isther and motion. It was work atkins by the person of millroad, just above Desson Warner's. not mention Julia, but I saw that his errand were not mistaken," said I "Julia is here, When she was ten years old her mother died with me concerned her. I spoke of her ex- and you owe your life to her." He started and in a few mothbs afterwards her father married Polly Wiggins, the tailoress, a selfish, shrewd, managing women. Julis, poor sirl had a hard time of it ; for the Ensign, "Doctor." said he, at length, with a heaiturally, was too weak and yielding to in-tating and subarrassed manner, "what itagh-hearted old fellow, and so I am; but derpose between her stid his strong minded and sharp-fougued wife. She had one friend, howver, who was always ready to up my mind ta ask her to become my wife?" It would be at the start smypathize with her. Robert Barnet was the son of the next door neighbor, about ten wholly made up your mind," said I. "Ang the ever had parished save himself.

when, born upon the strong blast we heard a faint cry, as of a human being in distress, I threw up the window, which Through her exertions she obtained em-phymonin a respectable family, to whom she endeared herself by her faithfulness, opened seaward, and we leaned out into the wild night, and listened breathlessly for obserful obschenge, and unaffected Diety.thesound Her trials had made her heart tender with Once more, and once only we heard it, sympathy for all in affliction.

She seemed inevitably drawn towards the lowt smothered, despairing cry "Some one is lost and perishing in the snow," said Julia. "The sound comes sick and suffering In their presence the ourden of her own serrow seemed to falleff.

in the direction of the beach plum bushe nurse I ever knew ; and I always felt eure that my own efforts would be well seconded once "

She snatched up her bood and shawl, and was already at the door I found and lighted a lantern, and soon overtook her The snow was already deep and badly drift-ed, and it was with extreme difficulty that wn strong, healthful life to the weak and we could force our way against the storm We stopped often to breathe and listen : bu the rearing of the wind and waves was alone audible. At last we reached a slightly, elevated spot, overgrown with dwarf at plum trees, whose branches were dimly vis-"Here, bring the lautern here !" oried

Julia, who had strayed a few yards from me. I hastened to her, and found her liftthe same instant recognized--Robert Barnat. Julia neither shricked nor fainted ; but, kneeling in the snow, and still support ence tells us that the consequences of vice | ing the body, she turned toward me a look of earnest and fearfulinguiry

"Courage," said I, "he still lives. He is only overog me with fatigue and cold."

With much difficulty, partly o strying, and pauly dragging him through the snow, we beeded in getting him into the house where in a short time he so far recover as to be able to speak. Julia, who has been my prompt and efficient assistant his restoration, retired into the shadow of the room as soon as he began to rouse himchance in this State the Democrats could carry the Senate and Bouse of Representaself and look about him. He asked where he was, and who was with him, saying that his head was so confused that he thought months, and sailed on me bafore he will his head was so confused that he thought even seen his father and mother. He did he saw Julia Atkins by the bedside. "You cellent deportment and useful life, dwalt up, and gased around the room. I bestoned upon the extenuating circumstances of her Julia to the bedside, and I never shall for ror, and of her sincere and hearty repent- get the grateful earnestness with which he grasped her by the hands, and called upon God to bloss ar. Some folks think me a while men. -----

A romantic young men is South-west-orn Missourf, has committed suicide in a manare to excite the envy of a Parisian. He put immedifies as angle of a "Virginia istif fance," and using an archelverge a lever he raised the robey put his band ba-der it and caused his neck to hat broken by the miling weight of fance timber. "I should think better of it if you had a mile or two below, and he feared that all and the negro voters who' are interested a nortification having set in, and her invalid subverting all decent rule and authority mother cannot long survive the shook. Dan will, of course, unite in favor of a convention Borunch is still at large. The old woman Now, suppose, although the case is hard]; was taken into custody the next morning possible, that the convention is by such and stated that the brute returned during nockery of suffrage rejected. Then the the night. The woods are being scoured radicals will avail themselves of the cry of in every direction and he cannot long escape -Patriot and Union.

Radical Misrule,

Among the many ways in which Radical aisrule prevents the Democratic party from blaining power in this Commonwealth, "gorrymandering" the State for Senatorial and Legialative purposes, stands suppose-and this is the only supposition pre eminent. By this process the people justified by the registration which being are defrauled of their rights, and the min. made-that the convention is desired, then ority prevented from having a voice in the | it is practically a negro convention. It affairs of the State. The returns from the will frame a Constitution that will throw city, when examined carefully, furnish the whole power of the State into the bands evidence of a most significant and startling character with Feference to this subject. The aggregate Democratic vote for Representatives in this city is 51,222. As the Democrats only elected seven members to fiscation of the property of white men by the House, it will be seen that it take I, 817 votes to obtain a Democratic Representhe community were softened toward her." ing up the body of a man who was appar-"You know what human nature is," re-piled the doctor-"and with what hearty tern fell full upon his face, and we both at ets. Upon this poll they obtain elven aelves will look upon the transferring of members, thus showing that 4,508 votes are sufficient to send a Representative to the State capital. These figures demonstrate | With a penniless negro legislature to tax the fact that it takes 2,809 more voies to and defences while must to be taxed, the elect Temporatio member to the State issue cannot long be doubtful. In every the fact that it takes 2,809 more votes to

Legislature than it does to elevate a person ounty taxes will be laid in the same way by negroes upon white men. In the town belonging to the Badical party to the same If the city was honestly and and oltion negro councilmen will vote fairly districted, the Democrats would have themselves large salaries, create unneces elected a majority of the members of the sary offices for purposes of plunder and fo Legislature. This will not be dealed when ouds, under-take enormus jobs of fancifu ands, under-take enormus jobs of fanoiful improvement. Justice administered by neg the figures are examined. The Radical hold power by force, fraud, and trickery, ro magistrates will be a farce: redress o and the people are beinning to understa will be impossible. Lib rage will be amply secured. The liberty of that fast and ast upon it. With a fair death will be the only security to man who rime is that they were born white. tives by a large majority. As it is, the stream of public condemnation is mounting "Lot the Bogthern people unk themselve, whether this is what they mean, if not, i to a hight from which it will some overleap the infamous Redical districting of the s high time that they bestir themselves for it were better to have taken the advice State, and place in the balls of State legislast certain gentle Congressmen and put i tion a majority of men in favor of the death the men, women, and children of the Union, the Constitution, and the Fights of South at onge, that to deliver them to such a fate as now impends. Mon of the North, look at this plotdy drawn of the South by a conservative ablitionist, view it over and over, and the sk yourselves, whether are these radioal with us!

HT love-our Davil.

MARRIAGE OF A HINDOOJCIRL TO AN IDOL. That following curious account of the uarriage of a Hindoo girl to an idol is given by the Onde Gazette . Southern contumacy Mr. Stevens' huld

"Some time ago a paper of the northwesconfiscation is brought into play : the orn provinces announced the arrival of an South is wholly ruined by this villainous atrocity for merely saying, as our gener old Deccan Brahmin with his family in the town of Muthra, where Rungacharee, the ous Congress has invited her to say, that she profers the rule of military matraps to high priest of the Ramanoojee. sect, greatly atronized him The old Brahmin has two the harder rule of uninstructed negroes daughters, one a grown up girland the oth-t or only nine years old. While resuling at m and white bravees. On the other hand Muthra the younger girl gave out Krisnsjee (one of the incarnations of Vishu, the Hindoo god,) appeared to her in a lream and proposed a nupital sliance with somp married to an idol worshiped in of negroes and white men who hope to pro-Hindoo temple. The ignorant and supersti-tious rejoiced at this absurd marriage, and fit by the suffrage of negroes. The pro scription of white men will be more sweeping than Congressional prescription. Con ear; eighteen thousand couplets of the their negro rulers will be sure to follow: and the indirect confiscation will be more Bhagwut, a work in the Sanskrit language. They have now arrived in this city and put up in the vicinity of the Gole Dorwess .very morning Hindoos' of all ages and sexes bongregate there to hear the meloditheir subjects' property into their own po ous resitations of the two girls. Both the session as the one great end of government girls consider themselves as dedioated to the service of the God Krishns, and after their daily recltations are concluded they make no hesitation in accepting such pre sents of money and sweetments nearers may choose to give them We have little doubt that they have already respe rich harvest from their deluded. -PARDON BRFORE TRIAL --- OR TUS day last, John W. Genry' pardoned him Radicals of Schuylkill County before trial -The number of lawbreakers thus releas ed by this pockes parden Governor has a ready amounted to scores, and has sunkhin baneath the respect of every honorable law-abiding man in the State who is sognisant of the facts. His own party mem bere declare that his note in this regard ad mit of no appology or extenuation, The people are justly punished for also ing suc an arrant humbug ap the gubernatoria office. We confidently predict that he will never hold another office within the gift of the people.-Patriot and Unique, Sept. 80-

7

-A Radical Editor oriesaloud, "draw at the light Well, Rad, pass one around your noof and we'll draw it, says the chear-ful Prentice.

of all the p statues proposed to the memory of Abraham Linceln, not one has been procted.

-----Twenty-five counties in Indiana show an ggrogate Democratic gain of 9.153, and fati hanges are reported the same way. A great nooratic State mass meeting is called fo the eighth of January next at Indianano fis. -Mayor Welch, of Georgetown, D. C.

has resigned, in consequence of charges of en bessioment preferred against him whilst acting as tax collector. Welch was elected last spring by the negroes and Rads. nore!

-The New Albany (Indians) Co granted a divorce to a man named Banks, er the ground that his wife was a victim to klo mania-an irresistible desire to steal, not call if Radicalism ?

-----Captain George W. Alaxander time in command of Castle Thunder prison in Richmond, Va., and who fied to England when her. Next day the girl was with great the war terminated, is said to be lor in an East India vessel safting from Liv erpool.

-A giraffe, owned by a Mr. Craven, which egan to renerate the girl as an inspired had been for some time on exhibition at Medi-eing. Both the girls have learned by ns, died at Seville, Oblo, a few days ago. The began to venerate the girl as an inspired owner had been offered, and refused, $5,000 for the animal intely-

------Louisville Intelv held a colorder telegram announcing Brownlow's death." That is, the streets presented a meet jolly appear. anes over the melancholy event, But the 1.07 was too good to be true.

they were convinced in their own minds the offrage is a heller manie still. Their disgust is unuttermble.

deplaced this meneration ought never at pay a dellar of the principal of the public date The way the dabt is still increasing, we think those who hold it will be lucky follows if it it paid a hundred generations hence.

----- The Mongrel papers attribute their lat overwhalming disasters to "Josal and, mingr panser," Well, if sier os anse, produce mah tramadous repuls, what will become of the rasels next time when the mofor chuser will be n full blast.

the sits triamph of the Astancersoy is the series Presidential compaign. by anying "personally we have an easier time when our proving it could be porest i " in the timed pholosopher has a good prospect for a yary long rest.

properties and the second problem in the sec ith you one night, if not each go by the places of dissipation, of wicked ess, where people would not so congregate If they did not forget. If you would have home happy, try to make it so. Light the hamp of life and keep it alled with the oil of love, oure, affection, tendernass, and caresses, that it may not go to sleep in the dark when the work of life is ended. Children often fears to go to sleep in the daik, but there is another sleep, and a more the rible darkness ! Only this, and nothing

Working man and brother, we care not that your language, or how much you dif-er from us in opinion, to you we talk to any be wrong, you may be wrong-each of see you nobly striving and would help you

We all seek happiness. Let us see how ou and of you. Throw your labor /and Talk of the beauties of the past you have seen, and congratulate yourselver that so some one has a harder one. Think if there are not near you those you would on my ac-

If you love, love more. If you hate, hate less. Life is too short to spend in hating any one. Why war against a mortal who is going the same road with us ? Why not expand the flower of life and happiness by learning to-love, by teaching those who are near and dear the beautiful lesson ? Yours hands may be hard, but your hearts need ount changes places with, much misery which has befailen gibers has escaped you. No matter how hard your lot f such thing can be.

ight

Opinions are but opinions

We

Suppose we fall asleep in the office this Saturday night; and, neglecting to have trimmed our lamp, aweken to find but darkness and gloom, and underisinity, We may find matches, but of what avail if there be no cill? We may dianal live again, but if there be no lamps of love to lighter our future, better that we lived, oven in work of Home can be bepp if we make it of Do not expect to call all the forward po may find matches, but of what avail if Do not expect to quil all the flowery." Do not, simply to please yourself! We repose -- do not, simply to please yourself, for therein lies the shroud of happinter ! Sive as in given. " Hoop bick the biller wills. Others may be wary and the plant words, unspoken are never remembered ?

Ga here to-night. If you would he happy, go home. If there in mahendiums there take done." and kindle more. Have your sumbigs Bouilty your retiligipla 100. Rodp-your beart warmanit your blilla standy. Save rather this, was te. der die days go by fastof thesi we day ALL ARE YOR may overlake us, be it, has others who first the week in the grant; mhirlpol of , flow-Numano Bugrasamin Onno-il The follow ing secting was proved to be insurant to in the Constitution of the insurant overwhelmingly defaited the "insurant and an anger and the section of the secti ner averste at mit int ante the state attent of the set Wieldenseres virett Ab daig draftet the million of Taxad on the shill fin anation allow be paint and he and the desired states of the second states of the in estentie für führen ihren einer beiter alle einer beiter eine Berne beiter einer beiter ein beiter einer b tricts have been gerrymand dissident in work for the good fresh!

an their