THE DEVIL'S DELIGHT.

To breakfast one morning the Devil came Down, By demons and varaals attended : A headscherbad darkened his brow with sfrown From h is orgy last night, or the weight of his

- 12

But his presence infernal was splendid. In a robe of red fiame was Diarblo drest, Without smutch of a cinder to soil it : Bius blasses anysloped 'his thror' and his chest, While the tail, tied with ribbons as blue as the vest. Completed his Majesty's toilet

No masquerade devil of earth could begin, With his counterfeit horns and his more tail, To look like his model, Original Sin, As of lava and lighting and bitters a He sat and compounded a cocktail. and gin

But to give, in all conscience, the Devid his due, He seemed sorrowfal rather than irate; And his Majesty moped all the dejeaser through with a twitch, now and then, of the ribbons of Then follows a list of Popes, Schencks, Sheridans, such as can be matched nowher

And the look of a patient pirate.

Then a smile, such as follows some capital joke Of a Diekens, a Hood, or a Jerrold. Bweet, playful, and tender, all suddenly hroke O'er the face of Sathanas, ar turning he spoke, "Go, imp !. Dring the file of the Herald "

The papers were brought, and Old Nick ran his (In default of debates in the Senate) (In default of debates in the Senate) Over crimes-there were plenty-of terrible dye Over letter and telegram, slander und lie. And the blatherskite Jeaders of Bennett,

There were frauds in high place, official decoit ; There were sins-we'll not name them-of ladies : There were M Crete dies; Mexican murders, and murders i

Crete, By the thousand—all manner of villainies sweet To the Hearld's subscribers in Hades

But the numberless horrors of every degree. Did not wholly dispet his dejection : "The Heral's a bore-l'm aweary," says he, Then, uprising, be added, "What's this?' Ten-

By jingo ! here's Brownlow's election !

"Ho, sariel 1 fill up till the beaker runs o'er !" Cried the Derli, growing joyous and frisky A white hot ferruginous gobiet he boro. And the liquor was viriel "straight," which he nìes.

swore 'w. Was less burtful than tangle-foot whisky, "Fill up ! let us drink," said the Father of Lies "To the mittel whose claims are most

"It the invite whose chains are weighty !" . . . And a light diabole signs out of his eyes That made the thermometer instantly rise To fully five thousand and eighty.

"I have knights of the garter and knights the lance. Who shall surley hereafter for sin burn : I have writer of history, ethics remance, In Bngland, America, Germany, France, And a gay little poet in Swinburne "Reformers, who go in for infinite smash ; The willows' and orphaus' oppressor ; D. D.'s by the dozen, whose titles are tranb ; To be written with two little dis and a dash ; Aud many a Father Confessor

"And besides all the hypocrites,"chuckled the Devil, "Who serve me with Ave and Credo' ave tyrants that murder, commanders that I have ty government.

Dahomey, Mouravieff, Butler, O'Niell, Thad. Stevens, Joe Holt, Escobed

"But the man of all others the most to my mind The dearest terrestrial creature, Is the blaspheming priest and the tyrant combined Who mocks at his Maker and curses his kind, In the garb of a Methodist preacher.

"And so long as of Darkness I'm absolute prin-From his praise there shall be no Jøductie From Ais praire unore sum; on an array of the work of the second second

Then the Friend, with a laugh no language that may tell, Drained his cup, and abasing his crown low ied, "Hip, Hip, ." and a boisterous yell ent round till the nethermost confines of Hell Re-schoed ' Three sheers for old Brownlow". —Land We Love. Cried

VOTES OR BAYONETS --- WHICH ?

It was remarked by the learned buthor of Discourses upon Tacitus," that "Laws and Constitutions framed by the best and wisest nen, have first or last become the sport and conquest of the worst, sometimes of the it, why have a Constitution ? Unless it is most foolish." This melancholy thought is abundantly illustrated in the present condition of our country. The leaders of the faction in power do not hesitate to declare ing foe, it must be equally so to defend that they have "reputiated the Constitu- from a usurplag Congress. What more Their papers speak unblushingly of right has Congress to strip people of their the "healthy progress of the revolution They deponde a return to the Constitution and laws in force when they came into power, as "going back to the guilty past," France ? Every State has the same right and as "returning like a sow to her wallow-"rebellion and treason.

Now, who have wrought this fatal change? Are they men of character, of high socia or of renowned statesmanship 7

The Democratic Walchman.

VOL.XII.

BELLEFONTE, PA., FRIDAY NOVEMBER 15, 1867.

"STATE RIGHTS AND FEDERAL UNION."

der was never commutted in this country. of government, and maintains an equality meaning of the Constitution of the United of Democratic editors to even join in swell. Instrates, while his own account stell remain. on every side It may be a terrible thought States. But, though all these propositions ing the Tartarean thunder of the African we may shile at such assailants and say, du for the wretches who made war, not only on will be conceded by every truthful and com party. All praise, all respectful mention, your best, your labor is vain, your efforts ownlows, Ben Butlers, Stantons, Holts, the institutions of our southern States, but petent lawyer, it will be asked, "bow can out of Newgate's wretched calendar ! God also on their spoons and wardrobes. God the Fresident help himself?" Now, in the Grant, or Pope, is aid rendered to the re-! I have said, while the Mosaic account is just, and there must some day come a first place, has be attempted to help him- pudiators of the Constitution. It is assisting to of oreation itself remains we may smile at help us' And these are the characters is just, and there must some day come a first place, has he attempted to help him-who have subverted the government formed settlement for all these things. by Washingson and Jefferson ! The proud of Drgin the meantime, our business is to serve, protect, and defend the Constitution tree of liberty desteored by worms ' The stop ine march of this revolution-of this of the United States,'' has he not made greenest and most fragrant of all the leaves Africanization of the United States. How himself a party to the usurpations of the of summer killed by vermin. But we speak too strongly; for it is not even now says. So say we, if voting is allowed ac-cording to the provisions of the Constitutoo late to save the tree of liberty Aleady we hear the strong winds in the tops tion. But if not, what then ? Are we such fools as to rely upon voting where no legal of the trees which will at length sweet down through the forest, driving the ver voting is allowed, by reason of military innin into the sea The fate of the Gadereau terference ? Or do we propose to pérmit swine already menaces the malignant repu lators of their country's Constitution The of the Union, by negroes, used as congres only hope of these wretches is in the su sional voting machines, worked by its own pineness or discouragement of the friends military tools ? If that is our programme, we deserve execution here, and eternal and supporters of the Constitution. When hese poorly exclaim, "all is lost !" the damnation hereafter. To allow our country to be thus Africanized, to permit our own eyes of the conspirators brighten with hope ut every word of determination ' and defi unce sends the chill of despair to their hearts They have not one hour's lease of ble in the sight of gods and men Do we power beyond that instant when the Demo-

o people have endured since the dawn of But we hear the plethoric voice of some ngholder, or some witless political octogenarian exclaim, "that is recommending evolution !" No, it is recommending rebearts of the Southern people. One of the istance to revolution-resistance to opression and despotism. We are already New York dailies, which supported the war with all the malice of a gent n the midst of revolution. We say stop it Stop this African revolution, even though inn, in a recent issue pays ; "If the peo ple of the North had any adequate concept require an everlasting check upon, the ion of what is going on in the South, they respiratory organs of all the repudiators of he Constitution in our land. If it must would rise en masse and sweep the whole reconstruction scheme, with all its machincome to that, it is a privilege they hold from the Almighty God, to have their ery, and all its doings, clean out of exisbreath stopped for the benefit of their coun ry. The leaders of this African revolt inflicted upen the Southern people ? Be-cause the Democratic press of the North nines. Then all the Instruments regim of with the lungs of a Stentor boast their rev olution. Even those who hold it unlowful fails to meet this wrong with a spirit of de-cent resentment. Such orimes against libo resist government, never imagined it to be unlawful to resist the deviation from erty are to be properly met only with an justly escaped hanging as a murderer, and Says one of the profoundes uplifted axe. authors of the last century : "To resist the abuse of government, is to assist govern-ment." Was it wrong to resist such a knife is gleaming at your throat. Now bloody idiot as Nero, or such madmen a Caliguia and Claudius ? Why then can it take care ! Don't be rash-ion't be too Above sil things, don't speak too be wrong to resist a Congress which is more brutal than a Nero or a Claudius ? If it is loud, for we are about to do a little voting whose classical maxim during the unneces on this distressing business. Ab, yes ! we lawful to resist one tyrant, is it less so to esist a hundred ? If Congress had but are to vote the assassin's knife out of his hand. And the voting against bayonets ons head, would it not be lawful and rightous for those who are cruelly plundered and murdered by it, to cut it off ? Are the no doubt, do the business Let us believe of great generatehip, or high-toned man it implicitly that our poor country will b heads of a hundred tyrant more sacred than the head of one . The Wirtuous voice well done for as long as we allow the conpirators to understand that we mean to of mankind has applauded the expulsion of arquin. But was Tarquin half so black have fixed all the machinery to do' the vot and odious as this illegal body that insolently calls itself Congress ? Of what avail are laws and liberty, however excellently ing precisely according to their plans. But framed, if they arg to be parsively given up to the meroy of lawless rage and caprice ? If we are forbid to defend the Con titution, and the liberties guaranteed by an axe ! that is a disloyal and terribly re- | was born of the passions and lies of prenabellious thing, so they say. An axe twenty thousand pieces, and possibly break to a level with the bleached bark of a tanthemselves into twice as many. Ah ! they | yard, where the war pluked him up Sher re more afraid of an axe than of a million What are the votes of a hundred unlawful to make a Constitution, it cann thousand white men ? Have they not five cheat the mortgage which the gallows holds be unlawful to defend it. If it be lawfu undred thousand voting negroes ? True, to defend our Constitution from an invad the "black darlings" have rather short of playing the part of Adonis to the sucmories just now, so that they are unale to recollect the names by which they York city. have been "registered." but "Congress" property than any other robber ? What will only have to add some other screw i more right has Congress to destroy the gov the voting machine to overcome that difficulraments of States, than Great Britian ty. The only thing which the consnirator cannot surmount will be pluck and deter mination on the part of the Democratic par ty. Whenever the leaders of that party they are such truths that they must be can be inspired with the patriotic idea that spoken. They have been delayed too long

all the shallow

to hang a military governor sent by Con ing in the mire." The proposition of "re- gress, that it would hang one sent by Engring the old Union" is stigmatized as land or Russia. No State has any more delegated to Congress the right to govern the battle of victory over the repudiators of it by military rule, than it has delegated the Constitution must be fought on the open auch a power to France; and all powers no field of principle, with the weapons of truth, instead of the dodges of cumping and indelegated are eternally and inslienably the position, of of following that a government, property of the States It would be a per-isit not rather true that a government, property of the States It would be a per-which was "framed by the best and wight feety lawful and a perfectly just thing for which was "framed by the best and wight feety lawful and a perfectly just thing for trigue, there will come a very sudden col. Vice The example has been set us by the Pope and Schenck Woe the a 'gountry Wade a a been destroyed by the "worst and ny of the States to hang every one of the meu" has been destroyed by the "worst and any of the States to hang every one of the appendix of the party. Nor used we seek to intimi dered into the ears of the leaders of the States to hang every one of the former to be avery former the section of the states to hang every one of the leaders and a folt minimum dered into the ears of the leaders of the states to hang every states and work and a folt sight with the block of the states to be avery the section of the states to hang every member of Congress to role African party. Nor used we seek to intimi dered into the ears of the leaders of the states to be bencorsito party, until of the states to be bencorsito party, until the states to be the states to be bencorsito party, until the states to be avery member of Congress to the states to be sound the sound the sound the sound the states to be avery the bencorsito party, until the states to be avery member of Congress to so the states to the states of the conspirators to shudder to think what His fere indigne. Vulcan to hammer to pieces all the predeeplace, soil our memories by a reference to be justly and lawfully hanged, whenever bugits in ours, of the compirators to shudder to think what His fieres indigna. Vulcan to hammer to pieces all the pursues as a Garrison, a Phillips, a Jim caught within the jurisdiction of a State so impeach the President, for the purpose of the would be, were he on earth now, to take which support this inhuman rule cought within the jurisdiction of a State so impendit the Aresident, for the purpose of the work of the kind of man who stead of whispering, thunder! Instead of present. This is haw—and it is eigenting the executive powers in their own look into the faces of the kind of man who stead of whispering, thunder! Instead of justice. At least it will be so until the hands, will be held no more, if the Demoa third of a centurp, as a set of foolish and usurpers can produce an order proved to be oratic party puts itself in an attitude of reinfallibly from the Almighty, saying to sistance to the further march of their reto these States, "Touch not my anounted ruf-these States, "Touch not my anounted ruf-fians of Congress" These who consent to assume an office which is designed to de-his conflict with Congress. Or rather let acons of any considerable respectability— assume an office which is designed to de-men who, on the Fourth of July—a day sa-ored to the memory of our nation's birth— had committed such a public indecency as burning the Constitution of our country, in the mildt of the yelling plaudite of the moder the passe and happiness of their vicitum? It who have, which is burning itself against the mildt of the yelling plaudite of the moder of the stepset and happiness of their vicitum? the mildt of the yelling plaudite of the moder of the stepset and happiness of their vicitum? and who had all the time boldly declared the peace and happiness of their victims ? the skeleton of executive dignity. Powers their purpose to be "to break up the Union!" What are the five military commanders, but that no one can constitutionally exercise heavens? The anger of the sheavens? The anger of the sheavens? The anger of the sheavens? The same of the same of the sheavens? The same of the sheavens? The same of the we must think of such men. The mind quagressional blood-hounds, to hunt down but the Fresideni, have been given to but, if it is not allogether dead and clean staggers under the effort to recount their this southern people for words, conjectures, follies and abomigations. And then who was their first standard-bearer ? Was has a man of obsrater? Had he either culture two suits instruments of the subordinates of insubordination the pilars of American liberty, and from the starger's instruments of man of obsraoter ? Had he either oulture or manners ? Had he public even heard even a syllable to his credit? Was he same no follower of the sume where his ribad laws of Rome, usuprets were the only period bill use of Rome, usuprets were the only period bill use of Rome, usuprets were the only period first and best thing his friends could say of bim was, that he was a "reil-splitter ?" In previous campaign, the same party had bin ros heard bits this differ the sume bim was, that he was a "reil-splitter ?" In periods the sume supret bo bin or shelf bir of the sume bin was, that he was a "reil-splitter ?" In periods the supret bin on shelf give any better title to the sume bir or use heard of the sume when to bill the previous campaign, the same party had bir the number for Prevident, "the mus-for one people to conquer another, it must bid was the in monther for Prevident, "the mus-for one people to conquer another, it must bid was the rough of the sume would order him of the Executive alone, we wou obristened the adventurous vagebond who bitrary rule than usurpation. If it be just for one people to conquer another, it musi tang colt." But now they had a "rail-eplilter," who was, take him in his orthog-unit the world is filed with investing pot-reply, in his syntax and protody, as well events and continue to the provide the most of the gravity that the related to the second to music the second to music the second to the second to the second to the second to the purpose of giving the readier objections music have a right to Congress swim agains to read the news. raphy, in his syntax and prosody, as well eleman snorosouments of the growing power so quitaxy that it would make the laws in a said the news. As is his social character and statesman-ent if the northern States have a right to Songress swim agains to read the news, ship, about the sorriest specimen of a man constitutional. ship about the sorriest specimen of a man conquer the southern, then the southern All this would be legal and constitutional, who ever run for a high office-to a gentle- States have also a right to conquer the But it is neither legal nor constitutional for man or lady of the least culture, a most northern, and so there is newhere a princi- the President to permit powers that belong even, of such men as Sheridan, Sickles, self ? While under a solemu oath to "preution, and thefeby giving it the greatest is this to be done ? By voting the President rump, by executing acts which he has officially proclaimed "revolutionary," and "designed to overthrow the Constitution ?" If that rump is an illegal body, i. e. not constituted according to the requirements of the Constitution, which calls for repre-Nashville, we have to thank Grant. It was Grant's tool that did the business sentation from every State, and if, as the Could Grant have had his way, the whiskywhite men to be disfranchised in one half President has affirmed and proved, it is an would still be in New Orleans, worrying, insurrection or conspiracy to "overthrow the Constitution of the United States," or as one of its leading members has confess world began, two heroes made out of such ed, to "repudiate the Constitution," then instead of executing its revolutionary acts, it is the President's duty to suppress it, Shei race to be thus frampled on, and liberty to precisely as he would any other illegal be thus destroyed, would be a crime horribody, or conspiracy, or insurrectiom, or mob. Nor need the question be asked say would be ? It is a crime It is in the again, "how the President can help bim-present tense. The Southern people are self?" He has but to call on the people to suffering oppressions and wrongs such as assist in arresting this "repude Constitution," and stop forever this African civilization. The same people who, in the lization of their country, and their response early history of our country, whipped the would be like the sound of a thousan Quakers and drowned the, Baptists, have earthquakes. Who doubts that, in such a their fange, at this moment, in the very conflict, Kentucky would furnish a hundred conflict, Kentucky would furnish a hundred thousand minute men ? Could Maryland send less than fifty thousand ! And then if you will call the genuine patriots of the land such names, at such a call the Conder eads would swarm in all the bills and val lies of the North and West, as thick as the ed into places of unnatural and unmerited eaves of the forest ' The real fighting mus power. cle of the country is altogether with the repudiators of the Constitution. He has but condition of perpetual revolution and military rule. A return to a state of peace nce." And why have not the people of to call upon them, and their voices will anwould instantly throw them back to their the North any idea of the horrible wrongs swer as the reverberating echoes answe rus level. They will cling with the grass the rump will be only so much chaff before the wind. The power of a Sickles, who unadeed, the real fight now between liberty of Sheridan, whose fame solely rests upon and despotism But for the military sabrains, let us role a little about it. The a drunken and merciless march of house seasein's hand is on your shoulder, his and barn-burning in the Shenandoah, when it was inhabited only by women and chil enerals, these barbarous tormenters and dren, will find its level in the spent mo mentum of fustian and wind. And Grant reatest triumph of the Democratic party sarily prolonged siege of Vicksburg was, "strategy be damned." will find also the end ress, it will lose no time in strupping these of his "luse." which is simply a record o and bullets is a p easant thing, and will, good luck, without a single redeaming gift sel. But it will be answered by political shallowness, "these generals are represenhood. None of these creatures, puffed into a fictitious importance merely for buncombe, Latives of but success " Of what success lo you call this Africanization of our conn try success ? Is the godless rule of Thad by the repudiators of the Constitution. confront them with nothing but votes. They survive an hour after real patriotism and tevens and Brownlow success ? true manhood lead the fervor of the Ameripotism success ? Is anarchy, and the torcan people. The fame of all these men gandiem It is a mush-room which can last meres success ! Is disfranchising white ! break this voting machinery of theirs into but a day. Grant will at last shrink back men, and making voting machines of negroes, end, when or how created, neither Mose success ? Are taxes that amount to a confiscation to government of seven-tenths of all the property of the country success idan will subside into the congenial haunt Are three millions of idle and worse than of prostitution, while Sickles, if he ca upon bim, will fall again into his old ways a million of murdered white men. success Is a rump Congress success * Is the tricessful but faded nymphs de pars of New York city. Good God ! what a set of rulumph of spite and hate, and revenge, suc essi? Are death and hell such ers ! the filthiest sediment of society, have been thrown to the surface by 'the upheas ings of this African crusade upon the civilshallowness of such creatures as Grant and ination of America ! It is in Mr. Johnson's power to snuff them all out like farthing success !" They are representatives of ou candles. Are these hard savings ! But already. It is an old trick of despotism to glorify the mean and guity instruments of its power. And it is the duty of Justice to remnack the connecaled visage of triumphant are such men as Grant, Sheridan, Sickles, the mean of the fourth day, became to the agitation, and of the immense debt piled up by glorify the mean and guilty instruments o whose statesmen are a Sumner, a Wade, a Saviour of the World. Heal how He dered into the cars of the leaders of the Stevens, a Chamiler, a Stanton, and a Holt of regulating the Constitution of their coun-the rump. Instead of asking timidiy, what iry. Compare the character of the men who are puerile

give respectability to the tools of the revo all efforts to everifyow the truth, and this leads to the examination of the account 'of help. Giving glory to Grant, is giving Moses in relation to the light of the "first success to Thad Stevens and Brownlow. day," and the lights of the "fourth day " In day," and the lights of the "fourth day " In Every word of commendation of Grant is & Gen. 1 : 8, I read "Veomar Elohim yeehi new rivit la the feithers of our country. For .lor," "And God said let there be light" the recent triumph of the fiend, Brownlow, "Veebi sor," "and there was light." Here over the last hold of liberty and law in is his narration relative to the light of the first day. "Aor" is the word used for and signifies light. In Gen. 1: 16, 1 read,

"Veasah Elohiur ethsheni hammaaroth, soaked scavenger of the rump, Sheridan, and "God made two great lights " Here the narration relative to the great light of the "fourth day," but the word used for the like a dog even the women and children of the "fourth day," but the word used for the that regimes" Was there ever, since the lights of the fourth day is "maaroth" a word distinct from "nor" of the first day stuff before, as we see here in the case of Be it observed, the "the great lights" as ian and Grant ' Look at them ! Did not a plural form of light "Aor" in Gen. 1 the band of the Almighty ever label gene- 8, is a word distinct from "maaroth ' of the ous piece of humanity with such visages " 16th verse. "Aor" signifies light in the abstract, or the light universally diffused. Are not the very face of these men expressive of the mental and social condition which they were in before the war? Was the light of day. "Manor," signifies a light which they were in before the war? Was or luminary that gives light. "Aor" with not that condition the natural level of such one exception never admits of a plural form nen "---men below par in the gifts of intel-The exception occurs in the 126th Pealm oot, and with moral habits and tastes. of. 7th verse, where "Aorim" is put by poet erhaps, a still lower grade, they are fitcal use for "manorim." This single tion, found in the whole Old Testiment, ing tools for such a rump as Congress And when the conflict at last comes between proves conclusively the distinctiveness of the two words. By the "Aor" of the first segro franchise, and all sorts of illegal vot ing, and between the bullets of white men, day, we are to understand the light created and the true heroes of liberty, the Demo a pre adamite time and evolved at th eratic editors of the contry will have to debirth of our world, and by the "maaroth of the fourth day, the lamps or bearers of that light; and with this agrees the teachings of fend their own lives and property from hese very wretches whom they have help-astronomy. I say with this agrees the teaching o These men have no hope except in science in proof lobserve Moses is ad ourstely oritical in this choice of words When in the course of his narration h omes to the transactions of the fourth da f despair to the kind of convulsion which he does not as in Gen. 1: 1, say "Go threw them to the surface It is military (Bara) oreated" but God (asab) constitute ule which the Democratic party has to or established two great lights, thus aking onfront as its only powerful fee. This is, a distinction between creation and const tuting. There is, therefore, no discrepan cy between Moses and astronomy. For i traps of the rump, but for these vagabond his account of the fourth day he does no say one word as to what the sun and mos utobers of their race, no one can doubt the are in themselves; nor as to the when and how hey were created. They may Bay the next Presidential election. If there been created, they may have existed long is a grain of sense left in the Democratic ages past. It does not fall within the scop of his narration to give any information of nilitary baubles of all their tape and tin- this point, hower much it might satisfy ou curiosity. His account of them, on th fourth day is exclusively confined to what they are now about to be in their relation to the earth In other words his account of those heavenly bodies is confined to wha Is desthey are now to become-the two grea lights to give light upon the earth They ture of women and children success ? Is are now for the first time the ordained the destruction of three-fifths of our com- appointed rulers of day and night. What hey were before, as to their capacities o nor Astronomy gives us any definite infor mation. It was not the business of Mose to do so, and astronomy could only offe onjectures They must have existed in seless negroes, dancing over the graves of pre-adamite times says astronomy, and here its knowledge ends Moses is neither contradicted by, nor does he cantradict this .-He says, that now, on the fourth day o preation, they are constituted light bearer all these things are not success, then 'talk and their mission, in relation to the earth no more O, ye dolts, ye living abysses of as such, now begins The light evolved or the first day is now to be from henceforth Sheridan being "representatives of our under the control of these beavenly bodies these two great lights. shame--of our misery--of our depair ! They The foregoing may be sumed up as fol-are representatives of the triumph of old lows. Moses states the fact, that, on the John Brownism. of Garrisonism, of Sum-fort day light was created. To this fact be parism. of Handhair and the states of the states

Upon me, with each falling leaf, Fall thoughts of Autumns long Some tale of buried joy or wee Is hid in every havest sheaf.

Sweet morn ! as fair as ever hung O'er haze-wrapped field of gathered grain Glad earth ' ye give me not again, The Joy I lost when life was young,

Glad earth below-bright heaven abore,

Bring back our childhood never mor But, Lord ' we cry "restore, restore " o him whose name is written "Love "

Weak as thou art, and trouble tost, His mercy reaches over all.

THIS, THAT AND THE OTHER.

-The Imprachment of the President been change into the impute of Congress, -----The hearse used at the funeral of Gen Sterling Price was the same in which Lincoln's beirtan were carried. ----- The Mrs. Lincoln $100,000 fund, to ised in subscriptions of one dollar each, has dready reached the handsome aggregate of $6. -Avoid argument with ladies. In spinalug a yarn among silks and satins, a man is enyer of cheap furniture—the varnish that mught the eye will not endure the fireside blazes.

---- A Jerseyman gathering mushrooms was fold they were poisonous. Thank you he replied fam not going to eat them myself-I am going to sell them at the hotel.

stale stories about President Lincoln. ----- In Tyburn Pennsylvania a negro name or demanding the proceeds.

may be the means of misleading a whole neigh borhood. ----- The newspapers say that old Ben Wade from public life. Of course he can't. How can a rascal who never tires reture ?

----- The fact that the perjurer Sanford Con

At large, very singular, _____The New _____tk Albany (Indiana) Cour-_____The New _____transformation of Bank ately granted a divorce to a man named Banks on the ground that his wife was a victim to klopemania-an irresistible desire to steal.--Why not call it Radicalism?

light of the first day, what the candlestick is the thieves.

whole matter was then speedily arranged. It was agreed that Edwards should take his

-----The widow of the Mr. Muthford, whom time or other the proprietors of poular tears which they wipe away, and that they alk a good deal about their mothers Howover that may be in reality, certain it is AUTUMN MUSINGS. that if Edward ever did think about his wife he took no steps to let her know it — She came to the conclusion after a time that he was dead. At the same time that his comfortable assurance settled itself upon her mind, another tender appeal was unde to her heart. Mr. Edward Walker

RUMANCE OF A DOUBLE MANNAGE.

The following tale-a sort of Enceh Ar den romance-is told by the Chicago I out It concerns one John Edwards, who married at the breaking out of the way, and shortly after endisted and marshed bravely South to escape domestic tyranny at bond Of course she shed a few tears when he went away, and he very likely did the same t is a sort of generally entertained sents mental belief that all soldiers are at one had really no very well authenticated claims, but also another chermb, also a boy.

who he knew did owe his expresses to the fact that he and the widow had come to a mutual understanding. There was no disagreements between the second bushand and he very loving and estimable lady. Everything went in their household as merry as if there had been a perpetual chime going on in it of marriage bells. They never calculated upon the appearance of an Enoch Arden on the socne. They never thought, perhaps, of the soldier, who, though he was supposed to be respectably and honorably defunct, was, 10 fact, actually alive He was happy. He may have called to mind at times certainly family reminiscences in connection with the wife and boy, but he did not grieve much, about their loss nor well being. He invested some money he had in purchasing a goodly farm in this State, and felt himself supremely happy

Enoch Arden, it will be remembered neaked into the garden, peeped in through when he found that his wife was marvied the window at her and her miller, saw the they were happy, and his own family was hriving, and then went disconsolately away, and felt miserable till the day he boldly in, seeing how fondly Annie had emembered him for a very long time, and what reverance he was held in by the hon come and take tes. He went and took tes

The two husbands liked each other im-

They smoked sundry pipes together, pipes of peace they were, and both spoke admi ringly of their mutual wife. She sat he ide them with her two boys beside her ach of the happy little ones conversing a imes with their respective fathers. It was ies. Even the old disputes that had once nade the household unhappy were tenderly evived and laughed about, and husband umber one took his departure, feeling in is heart as he thought of the very fuscia-

In a short time there came an invitation rom number one, for the wife and her little progeny to visit him at his farm. She went, and the children went; and it was the gayest time for all that either had ever en oyed. The young wife saw no gnd of ami ble qualities in her first husband, and hought that she would like so much to give him another trial. She communicated with usband number two, and he knowing all ondition of mind. He was "willin." The the circumstances of the case, expressed himself as being in a pleasantly ating lady, that husband number two was áni par

Barki

ne of the very pleasantest of pleas

The chances are that if he had gone particular inquires regarding their make mensely.

saw her, was obarmed with her, spoke or hodox nonsense to her no doubt, after the usual fashion, offered to take such care of her as had never been taken before, and at ghe same time promised to be a father to her boy He became consequaly the husband of the blooming young widow, and the father net only of the boy to whose parentage he Leaves were we of one parent tree, Rejoicing while our spring time shone; But time its wintry wind has blown, And swept us far o'er land and sea.

And some are in the wrangling mart, And some are lost 'mid whiring wheels, And oh, from each a false word steals His childhood's faith--his childish heart.

I bear the answer in my soul--"Tho' black with guilt, and sore with loss, The hands that bled upon the cross, Are stretched out to make thes whole.

Though far in worldly ways beguiled, Seek out the safe and narrow track; Return—and He shall give thee back, The pure heart of the little child.

His arms are wide-thou cans't not fall ut of the shelter, and be lust." -Erchange est miller, that he would have relinquished er, and perhaps advanced him a few hunare to be worsted. dred pounds in order to build a boat and commence basiness again Edwards did not from at all when hap-pening to come into this city about six ----- He who marries a beauty only is like a on the ago he encountered his former wife accompanied by his boy, and the other one who was not his. They stopped, on the ontrary, and shook hands. He asked her now she was doing. She informed him how aicely she was simuled, and asked him to evening, while Arnold, of Illinois, was telling Brown sold a load of corn belonging to another negro named Hogan, and then muldered him annot reconcile himself to the idea of retiring other. The very thing I meant answered he.

over, is in the pentitentiary, and that Stanton Holt, and Ashley, who employed him, are still at large, strikes the public sense of justice as the lighted tener. Astronomy teacher

NO. 45

It's the time of gathered grain; The fields are full of stacks and sheaves, The bills are bare, the first dead leaves Fall, fluttering, 'gainst the window pane Down through the mist the young moon The harvest mood, so glad and fair, But I am sad, for all things wear Their autumn look of other years.

Same not forgetting "old John Browo"men who were desyised ond laughed at fer ju disreputable fanatics ; and who were rarely, if ever, invited to the houses of gentleon or even seen in the gompany of per sons of any considerable respectabilitydisgusting aggiomeration of mental and ple of security, safety and rest. If we have to the Excentive sloke, to be exercised by moral dirt ? And he was the standard a right to great their spoons, and 'smash to military safety. Copyress has no more moral dirit I And no was the standard a right to diest speir spoons, and mash to multitary satrape. Geogrees has no more bearden the pirty which has "reputiated pieces their pianos, to bura their dwellings constitutional power to strip the executive the Constitution," and overthrown the free and destroy. their private property, they branch of the government established by our have the same right to do the same to us, functions of its office, than the Parliament most cowardly and brutal manner markiered by been the revolving lesson of history. bis best customer. A more dastardly mus- Justice is both the foundation and the boad dan was feled, not by any spontaneous ep-

12

the line .

For every logie buck-shot of his, you have a hundred forty-pounders. Pour them into him straightway, instead of standing dubitant, asking what edn be done .- Old Guard of vistory being all on the other side Because some great man, of astute mind, thusiasm of the people-Iar from that, The whole thing was worked up in the se-oret Loyal League lodges, and managed semprehensive thought and profound learning, aiming at notoriety, tries his skill at presisely by tricks usually employed by tilting against the plain, honest and simple mouthebank showmen to draw people to narration of Mozes, it is no evidence, that, their performances It is for this great as he is, he has overthrown that narmore in the formation of the perivation has "repudated by our data there is the is the service is a service is the service is

i He

un that the sun is not, in itself a luminous bod, but, that it is surrounded by a lumition "let every Republican go to the polls with the determination not to make a single scratch." boas but, that it is surrounded by a hand-nous atmospher, by means of which, lumi-nous atmosphere, it lights inches world. Now there is certainly no discrepancy, between Moses and modern astronomy --That was a very silly and a very cruel determina-tion for such a lonsey set of radicals to entertain.

the sure triump of the Democracy in the next Presidential campaign, by asying "personally we have any samisr time when our party is out of pewer;" so the tired philosopher has a good His statement of the fact that light was created, at an early period in the progress of creation, and that lights, or light bearer were constituted at a later period of great tion involves no inconsister ncy of statement prospect for a very long rest. neither is it an evidence of ignorance on his ----- We notice that some of our Democrati exchanges continue to quote the fooliah and ly ing telegram that "Grant says he will not so I would conclude this article by saying. cept the nomination from the Mongreis for Pres in proportion as the Mosaio ritual, of cres lion, is fairly and impartially weighed in the ballance of sound criticism, two things dent." Any man who thinks that is not in per fact accord with Congress is green enough to be eaten up for grass.

force themselves on the mind, with all the power of a conviction. One of these is -----The Tribuns says---if the blacks are no enfranchized, Vallandigham could bent Grant admiration of the extraordinary accuracy, for Publicant. That is a fair confession that Vallafightam would get more white votes than Grand. The negross are, therefore, the sola hope of the Mongrel party. It is a nice party and superior intelligence with which Mo ses expresses the great truths of ereation The other is surprise, that in the limited compass of a few verses, so many imporfor white men to belong to. tant fasts, relative to creation, have been grouped together, yat, so plain, intelligible and full, that he who will but look, may see ----- A Radioal paper triumphantly announ oes that ten thousand herroes in Virginia have learnded to read during the past year. Quiet likely, but how much blood and treasure has it the whole creative sol, as in paparamic view pass before his mind; and he may read as cost the diantry to light these ten thousand ne-gross to spall their way through a spagradional each scene passes onward "Thy word, O tract!

"Any Pont in a Sconn."--- It is wonder Bon. Batter murdered in New Orleans, La., is living in a collar in sont and starvation, while ful with what unanimity the Radionie everywhere new agree , upon the necessity of neminating General Grant for the Presidenoy. A month ago, and before the "Man-hood Suffrage" party could be made believe that their pet idea of negro equality and asffrage would be repudhied by the States of Qhio and Pennsylvania, they were not prepared to take "a pig in a poke," as they called it, but rather favored the nomination of a through bred Radical like Stevens, or Kalley, or Summer, or Wade-drunken Rea Wade, we mean-in order to compal the Wade, we mean-in order to compal the people of the South, as well as the South, to suffrage would be repudinted by the States terreterrettidani i terreter apting the responsil family Both the boys are to be his boys. and the wife is to be his wife, and the only formula now to be gone through is the pro-ouring a divorce from hueband number two, after which there will be a wedding, and the discarded husband will give aw the bride. The whole arrangement is in the highest degree plateant, and it is especially gratifying to know that both the husbands hearily congratulate cach other on the event.

-----ARE WE A NATION ?

Mr Summer is shortly to lecture in indianapolis, and by way of paving the way for his theme the Hernid of that sky mays : On the 80th Mr. Summer -Charles Summe -the elassic and polestarly Samas-will orals for the Young Men's Liberry Adeteistion, on which cossisten Mr. Sumper, the elassis and scholarly, and an forth. will propound the above question fo bingalf.and answer it himself. There has been a great diversity of opinion on the shove point among our citizene, some holding that we are a nation, and some that we are not. The most extense anxiety prevails to hear Mr Sumner, the claugic and scholarly, and have the voted question of martuality settled forever. Our people een mot venfure to be estiala about it, ene way er inother, and can not alory comfortably wanghtir, un-ill they have beard May Symner, and cook is their impationer to mist an land to the