ADDRESS TO THE MERVOLS AND DERRI ITAT P. Whose suffering soave been protracted from haden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable. If you are suffering or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tured? Does a lettle extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes libek, milky, or flocky, or in it ropy on setting? Of does at the bottom after it has stook while? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constituted? Is your mand constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you field dull, interest mopping time of company, of life? Do you wish to be let alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sinke you or the word of your gea as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you nearly your business with the rame onergy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself. Are your privits dull and flaggy, given to fit of melancholy? If so do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Four back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appeals of learners.

you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver-complaint?

Now, reader, solfabuse, veneroal diseases hadly cured, and saxual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you over think that those bold, defant, energelic, persevering, successful business-men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health. You never lear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervounces, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot deceed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged, they are always positie and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downerst look or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflamed by running to excess. These will not only run their constitutions, but also those they do bus; ness with or for.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Mongax Miracla.—From old and young from rich andpoor, from high born and lowly comes the Universal voice of praise for "Hall's Vogetable. Sicilian Hair Renewer." It isporfect and miraculous article. Cures hald, ness and makes hair grow. A be tor dress, sing t han any "foil or pomistion." Soften brash, dry and wisry hair into beautiful silken tresses. But above all, the great wonder is the rapidity with which it restores grey hair to its original color. Use its few times, and 'prasic change,' the whitest looking hair resumes its youthful beauty. It does not dye the hair, but strikes at the root and fills it with new life and coloring matter.

that die under two years of age, die from die sane caused from toething. I state this, moth era and unrea, that you may, experise a greate degrees of care over your little ones during thi time. It is a well-eatablished fact that a great majority of those who die in the prime of life confracted the disease in childhood, which through the negligence of mother or nurse was allowed to pursue its course unchecked, and which aught have been arrested in its earlier stages by very simple means. It is for this pursues that sleep is "Nature's sweet Restorer," and is a fact beyond contradiction that an easy, questand natural eleep at regular interests, and especially a night, is absolutely necessary to health. It is during repose that the system strengthene and fortifies itself against the exhaustive induces of waking hours. Infants and children require twice the sleep of of an adult, and unless they obtain it by some means they are irritable and restless, the system is more admixtive to cold or other exciting causes, more exposed to the rayage of disease, and easily presented thereby. For producing a quist, natural and refreshing aleep, one from which the child will awake, feeling refreshed and gleeful. Many of the articles put i market are and worthless, but the "Nursing Syrup" has no equal. For the beneat or mothers and nurses, we would advise you, when the chifd is resistant feverals, thirsts, bead hop, too gaussed, tongse coated, pulse quickened, to give a warm bath, tollowed by appropriate doses of the "Nursing Syrup, and IN THT."
