TERMS.—$2 per year when paid in advance $2.50 when not paid in advance, and $3.00 when not paid before the expiration of the year.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

—CENTRE COUNTY has one hundred and ninety free schools, in operation.

—The proceedings of the Comytynstitute will be published next week.

THANKS.—Rev. Thos. McGovern, will please consider us under many obligations for the nice present sent us, on the 31st ult.

WE HOPE NOT.—It is rumored that the glass works, in this place are to be stopped, unless the workmen agree to a reduction of wages.

NEW BANK.—A new banking house, with J. P. Harris, as President, and J. D. Shugert, as Cashier, will be opened in this place on the 6th inst.

SMASH UP.—On Monday last, a freight train on the B. E. V. R. R., ran off the track, smashing things up generally, but without injuring any one personally.

CHANGED HANDS.—The Brokerhood House, in this place changed hands on the 1st inst. Messrs Hougel & Krom, of Marietta, becoming proprietors. Mr. Butts, the late host, retiring to private life.

—Our carrier requests us to return his thanks for the liberal patronage received on New Year's day. He says he wishes it was customary to have New Year's addresses every day.

IMPROVEMENT.—Our friend, Garman, the gentlemanly and obliging host of 'Garman's' Hotel, has just had finished, one of the largest and best stables in this section of the country. Dan, is bound to have things right, and knows how to 'keep a hotel.'

IN TOWN.—Our firm friend and former partner, Joe W. Fry, Esq., senior editor of the Clinton Democrat, has been spending a few days in town during the past week. Joe gives a good account of the fearless Democracy of little Clinton, and speaks very encouragingly of the prospects of his able and spicy paper, the Democrat.

SNOW.—Scarcely had the first big snow disappeared from the roads before the combined attacks of rain and sun, till another fell, renewing the sleighing, the departure of which had left the lovers of buffalo robes and sleighbells in despair. Again, however, the merry sleighs are heard in the land, and bells and harness are once more joyously in the gladness which the sleighing season always brings. May they all have a good time, as we used to have, in 'the days when we went courting.'

A LACK OF EDITORS.—The highest price at the late fair in this place, which was an elegant Irish Poplin dress, valued at about fifty dollars, was drawn by our friend, Joe W. Fry, of the Clinton Democrat, at Lock Haven, who held chance No. 131—only one ticket. Others who held from five to ten chances were somewhat surprised to find they were left out in the cold while the lucky holder of '131' bore off the coveted prize. We congratulate Joe on his good luck.

THE FAIR AND CONCERT.—The Fair and Concert for the benefit of St. John's (Catholic) Church, held in Bush's Arcade, have been the chief attractions in this place during the holidays. Like all things else which our Catholic friends get up, these occasions have been marked with success and much credit is due to Father McGovern, and to the ladies and gentlemen under his superintendence, for the happy manner in which everything was conducted. Nightly the fair rooms have been crowded by our citizens, and a generous and commendable rivalry exhibited for the possession of the goods offered for sale. We are glad to know that a very material aid has been realized to the church from the fair.

The concert on Friday and Saturday nights, given by a company of very excellent amateurs from Philadelphia, assisted by some of our local talent, was decidedly the best that has been in Bellefonte for a long time. Our citizens were generally highly pleased, and all the musical talent of the town was out. We were particularly delighted with the singing of Miss Cunningham and Mrs. Schimpf, both of whom are celebrated as Amateurs in Philadelphia. Miss Cunningham, we are sorry to say, was taken suddenly ill with bleeding at the lungs, after the first concert, and was unable to offer at the second. On that evening, however, her place was well filled by Mr. Ghallaber and his daughter, Miss Stella, of Snow Shoe, whose singing was universally admired. The concerts were attended by full houses, and the receipts will add much to the fund realized by the fair.

THE SMALL POX SCARE.—In our issue of the 20th of December, we noticed the fact that a case of small pox, had made its appearance in this place, and deploded in the manner in which a few of our citizens were trying to keep it hushed up, stating that 'the effort, to keep the public from knowing all the facts in the case, would only give room for rumor to ply her thousand tongues, and multiply a single case into a hundred. And so it has proved. From all parts of the county we hear the most extravagant reports in regard to the spread of the disease, and the consequence is, our business men have found customers exceedingly scarce during the past week. If there was any cause for people staying away from town, we should not think strange of them doing so. We are not among those who think the interest of merchants, hotel keepers and others, is paramount to the good health of the people, and were there any ground for the foolish fright, now pervading the minds of our friends throughout the country, we would be the last one to attempt to cover up matters, or induce them to place themselves in any danger whatever.

The simple fact of the matter is, there has but two cases of Small Pox in this town. One of these cases proved fatal, and the victim has been in his grave two weeks. The other, our friend Irwin, the gentlemanly conductor on the B. E. V. R. R., is now going about his room, able in fact to resume his duties, but determined to keep himself hooped up, until all danger of any one else taking the disease from him is past. Mr. Geo. O'Brien had a slight attack of varioloid—so slight that it was difficult to tell what was the matter with him, and with these exceptions, there has not been a single case of anything like Small Pox in this place. It is due to the public to know, the facts, and it is due also to our business men that the foolish and absurd reports about there being forty or fifty cases, should be stopped.

P. GRAY MEIK, Esq., Deer Run, Pa., 1867. I send you by Mr. Lorenzo Herlick, a pair of Walnut Tushs, that I captured in the summer of '66, in our new Northern Wilderness. They are a small gift, but no one will champion Democracy would receive it from me, as they are as great a curiosity here as at home. I send them as a gift from a young copperhead Yours Respectfully, E. IRWIN GILLILAND.

A THOUSAND THANKS.—Friend Gilliland, for your good opinion and kind remembrance of me. The Tush's indeed are a curiosity—solid work, measuring fifteen inches in length and four inches in circumference at the large end. We look at them and think of our new possessions, of the snow-hills, ice-berg and perpetual winter—far which the eminent (?) statement, who march at the head of the mongrel host, paid of the peoples money—fourteen millions of dollars in gold. They bring up many curious thoughts, some of which, we may lay before our readers at no distant day. Our tushs who have any desire to see the first memento ever brought to this part of the country from our splinter of the North Pole, should call, at the editor's sanctum, and take a look at the tush.

A TRIBUTE OF RESPECTS.—At a meeting of the 'Ferguson District Teachers' Association, held at Gatesburg, Centre County, Pa., on Saturday, December 14th, the undersigned committee were appointed to prepare a memorial relative to the death of Mr. John H. Rumbarger, and, therefore, respectfully submit the following:

Inasmuch as it has pleased God in His inscrutable providence to remove from our midst our beloved friend and fellow teacher, John H. Rumbarger, therefore, Resolved, That we here, with humble submission to the will of that God who cannot err, but doeth all things well. Resolved, That in his death, his friends and companions, have lost a congenial and christian associate, the community, a useful and patriotic citizen, our 'Association,' a firm friend and an efficient teacher, and the church, an active and useful member.

Resolved, That the members of this 'Association,' deeply sympathetic with those of his friends, who most sensibly feel this bereavement.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved brothers and sisters of the deceased.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in both the 'Central Press and Democrat' at WATERMAN.

D. M. MOSEY, G. W. GREAVY, J. A. GREAVY, Committee.

CHERRY has a splendid stock of groceries, purchased since the decline in prices, which he is selling very low.

O, who would go naked—when they can get a whole suit of cloths at Sternberg's for a mere song.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—A delightful toilet article—superior to Cologne and at half the price.

The purest spices, best boots and shoes, cheapest toys, and best stock of hats, caps, gloves and valises, in town, is to be found at Burnsides.

GREAT bargains in ladies Breakfast Shawls and Capes, Nubias and Hoods, Kid and fur topped Gloves, ladies' Sachets and travelling Baskets, and fancy articles generally at Foster's, in Bush's Arcade.

The best and therefore the cheapest Melodion now before the public is Reynolds'. They are always on hand at Rynders' Music Store, and consequently purchasers don't have to 'buy a pig in a pike.'

Our young friends, Messrs. Frank and Joe, Hillfish, determined to be ahead, have put up the first gas light sign in their mammoth store, in this country. The letters of light, it reads, 'Stoves and Tinware,' and is as attractive as their large stock and low prices, are to purchasers. It is really worth going to see.

PRICES STILL COME DOWN.—C. H. Moore, has just received another full stock of clothing, boots and shoes, which he is offering at still lower prices than ever. Persons wishing to purchase would do well to examine his stock before purchasing elsewhere. Post office building, Phillipsburg, Penna.

A widower in Loyell, Massachusetts, with thirty-one children, has just married his third wife. The children are not living at home, however. It is said that he intends removing with his whole family to Bellefonte, in order that he can have an opportunity to purchase his goods at our friend Buseman's, who sells so cheap, that a man could keep a family of a thousand, if he purchased from him, easier than he could keep himself if he bought elsewhere.

The Empress Eugenie, at last accounts, had three thousand dresses. A fashionable woman says it must be a delightful thing to be an Empress—Any woman, could have that many, if she would buy them at Hoffer Bro.'s, Mammoth store in the Iron front, who sell dress goods so cheap, that three thousand would amount to but very little. They have everything else, and just as cheap as their dress goods.

De Soto when he visited the shores of America, sought long and ardently for the 'Spring of perpetual Youth,' that those who bathed therein might never grow old in appearance. People of our day have in part discovered a substitute for this unfound spring in King's Vegetable Ambrosia, a few applications of which gives to white or gray hair that dark, strong and glossy appearance peculiar to youthful beauty. If any of our readers doubt this, let them try a bottle and be convinced of the truth of our assertion.—1-4t.

No Loss can be more fatal to beauty, especially in the female sex, than the loss of the hair; glossy, luxuriant hair is one of the most powerful of all personal charms. When baldness or a deficiency of hair exists, we naturally look for a dry and wrinkled skin, a faded complexion, when not actually seen, we see them in imagination. Why, then, not cultivate your hair? Encourage it and strengthen it; or if your hair is gray or white, the natural color can be restored by a few applications of Mrs. S. A. Allen's Improved (see style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle.) Price One Dollar. Every Drug gist sells it. 1-4t

Mrs. PARTINGTON INVERTED.—The White Mountains of New Hampshire are evidently a great institution—very high, heavy frosts, beautiful view, & dinners. But the practical eye of a certain renowned Drake saw these august 'mountain' risks, and thereupon adorned and variegated the bridge path to the Tip-top House with his familiar S. T.—1867—X.—Plantation Bitters. This raised the ire of the Mrs. Partingtons comparing the Legislature of the Granite State, who got their wise heads together, outlawed Dr. Drake, and make it a penal offense to ply the artistic brush on their beloved hills. Verily, the fine arts are at a discount in New Hampshire. Query—Did Drake pay them for this splendid advertisement? 1-4t.

NOTICE TO THE LADIES.—The largest and best assortment of Black and Fancy Repp Silks, ever offered to the Ladies of this county, has just been received by Howell, Gilliland & Co., who are now offering them at the present low prices. Ladies please call and examine before purchasing elsewhere.

And lonely rest the bright young heart
And pale in his little brow
For Willie is dead, dear Willie is dead.
