BELLEFONTE, PA.

AARON BURB'S SARCASM .- When As ron Burr returned to New York city to practice law, after his voluntary exile in Europe, he found the late Rev. Jededish Burchard, then a celebrated revivalist, holding a series of protracted meetings in his family church. He attended from babit; always went late and digturbed the attention of the audience on account of his infamous notorie ty as the man who shot, Alexander Hamilton and who had been tried for treason. Mr. Burchard resolved to rebuke him openly. Next Sabbath, when he came in and got about haff-way up the aisle, the clergyman paused in his discourse, and pointing to Colonel Burr.

discourse, Fri. Feb. 28, Sat. Apr. 4. dish Burchard, then a celebrated revisaid in the most scathing mapner: "You boary beaded old sinner, I'll ap pear against you at the day of judgment!" The proud defiant old man standing as erect as ever with that perfect composure which never deserted him, and fixing his fine grey eyes on the occupant of the pulpit, repited: "Mr.
Bur jahrod I have observed through a long course of professional experience, that the very meanest class of criminals."
