

The Democratic Watchman.

In order to encourage youthful aspirants after literary fame, we shall devote this column, exclusively to their benefit, and publish in it, such productions as have formerly been cast into the "waste baskets." We have not time to make corrections, consequently will give them coram deo in libertatis.

APPEAL TO RADS.

Why are you at a party cruel hearted? Why treat your father brothers so? If you love for them departed? And must they down to ruin go?

Alas! the treatment they've received. The hardest heart for them should sigh; Yet still you Rads for vengeance grieve; And want to see their leaders dye.

Is not five hundred thousand dead A compensation for their crime? Then why would you have them led Chained down and weeping for that crime?

Is not a hundred battle fields Within their own fair clime, Enough to pay the bloody dead Without your foul design?

Is not ten thousand widows wail, The little helpless orphans sigh, Enough to make you love there tale, And soon to see their leaders dye?

Josh Billings.

Honesty makes reputation, and honor preserves it. The only way to make mankind happy is to make them better.

If fools would be contented to act naturally they would not be noticed. I like them kind of boys who are always trying to lift half a ton.

Mankind don't want much excuse for pitching into the unfortunate. Looking glasses won't lie, but they tell some awful plain truths now and then.

How many people are there in this world whose characters are anonymous. No man is fit to live in solitude unless he is as pure as the things which surround him.

Let the world understand that you can be spit upon, and you are a spitting-house for life. A dog is the only dependent that I know of upon whom you can always rely as a true friend.

Friendship is like pickled meat, to keep it sweet, the brine wants to be changed once in a while. My idea of a delightful woman, is one who seems to love every body, but in fact only loves her husband.

If you are going to help a man, be brief about it; promised assistance after a while is considered a debt. Adam was probably never more tickled than when he discovered Eve, which shows how unnatural solitude is.

Don't ever predict much, for if you get a right nobody will forget it. There is no one so certain of always feeling good as he whose vanity always supplies his own topper with a gift.

Judge Griffith, on the bench in New York, appointed a crier whose want of sense was more than made up by the size of his voice. A young barrister with more fun than legal lore in him, was fond of playing off jokes on him. Some day the judge ordered the crier to call Jabez Logue. The barrister, stepping behind the crier, whispered, "Epilogue," in his ear.

"Epilogue," shouted the crier. "Mono-logue," said the lawyer. "Mono-logue," cried the crier. "Pro-logue." And the crier still cried, "Pro-logue."

"Dialogue." And the pertentious crier shouted "dia-logue" at the top of his voice. Discouraged at hearing no response from the Logue family, the crier turned and said to the court, sitting in mute astonishment at the stupid crier's call: "I've called all the Logues in town, and never one is here to speak for himself."

NEW PUNISHMENT.—A school man has adopted a new and novel mode of punishment. If the boys disobey her rules she staid them on their heads and pours water into their trousers legs.

An Eastern editor was lately shot in an affray. Luckily, the ball came against a bundle of unpaid accounts in his pocket. Gunpowder could not get through that.

You and I, Reader have often been reminded of Heaven and Hell, to one of which places we are tending as sure as we read this. Oh! stop!

Three persons were recently poisoned at Millgrove by eating rhubarb pie, which had been preserved in tin cans. The parties recovered.

A young man named Neck, was recently married to a Miss Hoels. They are conjugally married and head.

That is a wicked party which cries "impartial suffrage," and disfranchises a million of white men.

Hooiland's Column.

HOOILAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. HOOILAND'S GERMAN TONIC. The Great Remedy for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOILAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Is composed of the purest juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOILAND'S GERMAN TONIC. Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the finest quality of Santa Cruz Run, Orange, & making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use HOOILAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOILAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness of Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Irritated or Difficult Breathing, Fluctuating at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Debility of the Respiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Lungs, etc., Spasmodic Fits of Heart, Burning in the Urinary Passages, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merits; is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases.

In this connection we would submit those well known remedies—HOOILAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND HOOILAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly procured more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhoea, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY. Resulting from any Cause whatever prostration of the system, induced by Severe labor, hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to those remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow Tinge is eradicated from the eyes a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE. And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this Bitters or Tonic, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

WOMEN. It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the Bitters, or the Tonic, is especially recommended. WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN. Are made strong by the use of either of those remedies. They will cure every case of marasmus, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, I will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS. Hon. GEO. W. WOODWARD, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa. writes Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

"I find Hooiland's German Bitters is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly, Geo. W. Woodward."

Hon. JAMES THOMPSON, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Philadelphia, April 28, 1868.

"I consider Hooiland's German Bitters a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify that from my own experience of it. Yours, with respect JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D. D. Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia. Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicine, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have all along declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hooiland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above cases. Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD, Eighth below Costes
