THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

For those who are compelled to "move," the season has been extremely fine.

MAN DROWNED.—A man whose name we have been unable to learn was drowned in Forge run, this county, while engaged in drifting saw logs, on Friday last.

HOMER.—On Sunday Morning, the 20th ult., while Mr. Samuel Condo, of Rubersburg, was at church, one hundred and fifty dollars were abstracted from his house by a burglar who broke into it. No trace of the robber has yet been discovered.

ALMOST A FIRE.—The house of Mrs. Nancy Muffy, in Howard, narrowly escaped destruction on Sunday night last. Two beds were burned and a room considerably damaged, but the fire was extinguished before any further injury was done.

ATTEMPTED ABSON.—On Saturday night last, an attempt was made to set fire to the stable of D. Harter, at Rubersburg. The attempt was repeated on Sunday night, and the party making the attempt was fired upon by Mr. Harter.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—The mail train on the B. E. V. R. R. is now composed of two splendid passenger cars, said to be old ones repaired, though we cannot tell them from new.

DEATH OF AN OCTOGENARIAN.—On Saturday last, occurred the death of Mr. Samuel Ellis, who has been for three quarters of a century a resident of Bald Eagle Valley, in this county.

IMPROVEMENT.—C. H. Moore has improved the high price in Philadelphia, by bringing up a fine large stock of goods which he is selling at wholesale prices.

FACTS THAT ALL ADMIT.—If fair dealing cheap goods and gentlemanly clerks are any inducements for those purchasing goods to call, it is not to be wondered at, that Hoffer Bro's, is daily crowded with the host of customers.

The greatest amount of time consumed by the ladies in dressing and arranging their hair must make any article which would lessen their labor particularly desirable.

How can ye bloom so fresh and fair? goes the old Scotch song. How? Why, those who show the bloom of health on their cheeks take Plantation Bitters, which has the power of fortifying the system against disease, and of regulating the digestive apparatus.

Fire! fire!! Fire!!!—A rather startling-tying cry, it is true, yet it may be uttered under certain circumstances and with certain connections so as to impart quite a pleasing sensation—a pleasure rather than a pain—as for instance, Kitty fire-up the Barley Sheaf and let's have dinner in a jig.

Editor did you ever see a dinner gotten up by farmers wives and daughters? if you have, then you know what was taken out of those baskets. The table fairly groaned under the weight of good things piled upon it.

After the tables had been "cleared," Mr. Jno. W. Stuart, of Martha Furnace, was called to the chair to conduct the religious exercises.

The company parted pleased with the days entertainment, and, most of all, in the joy and happiness of "mother," who highly appreciated this token respect.

GOING SOUTH.—Just at this season of the year there are many of our citizens who are pulling up stakes, and removing with their families, either to the "far west," or to the "Sunny South."

DEED.—Love.—On the 18th inst., in Potter twp. Miss Emma Love, aged 38 years. On the evening of the 17th she retired as usual with her sister, who occupied the bed with her. When her sister awoke in the morning she found her in the cold embrace of death with a glass of water in her hand.

It appears that during the night she became worse and, reaching for a glass of water, died before she could partake of it. A few days previous to her decease her step-mother asked her if she had any request to make, and she said "I am prepared to leave the world and go to where you bury me but if it be possible let it be by the side of my mother."

What a consoling thought—and how few there are, even among those who are apparently consistent members of the church, who could exclaim if they were upon their death-bed: "I am prepared to leave the world to meet my God, 'Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.'"

On the 24th of February '88, near Salona, Clinton county, Penn's Francis Jane infant daughter of John and Amanda Myers, aged 1 year 5 months and 13 days.

Francis Jane, death is but a sleep. Beneath a Father's care, And he will surely safely keep Thy body resting there.
