

The Democratic Watchman.

In order to encourage youthful aspirants after literary fame, we shall devote this column, entirely to their benefit, and publish in it, such productions as have formerly been cast into the "waste basket." We have not time to make corrections, consequently will give them verbatim in literam.

THE VOICE OF SPRING.

BY CHATHAM.

The voice of spring how sweet its song, All living things on earth rejoice; The little brooks, flow swift along, And all is gladdened at its voice.

The birds that had flown to a sunny chime, Have returned to our groves, to nestle and sing. They left us, for the darkness of winter time. But they're welcome again, to tell us of spring.

No more the drifting snow, sweeps o'er the plain, Or builds in heaps like the marble bust. No more the frost is seen on the window pane, That glitters like the diamond dust.

The blasts that have locked the poor, Within their log built hatches, No more shall murmur at their door, Or sternly rattle at the latch.

No more the half clad beggar boy, Stands shivering in the street For the voice of spring, he brought him joy.

As he treads the sod, with his unshod feet, No more the bright, and shining stream, Is bound with a cold and icy chain; But hie the thimble of a golden dream, Moves slowly on to the roaring main.

And there, when it meets the ocean tide Of the dark and stormy sea, May its waters still upward ride Like a spark in immensity.

THE VOICE OF SPRING. (Continued) For the voice of spring, he brought him joy.

As he treads the sod, with his unshod feet, No more the bright, and shining stream, Is bound with a cold and icy chain; But hie the thimble of a golden dream, Moves slowly on to the roaring main.

And there, when it meets the ocean tide Of the dark and stormy sea, May its waters still upward ride Like a spark in immensity.

HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

HOOPLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. The Great Remedy for all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach, or Digestive Organs.

HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. It is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOPLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. It is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Nettle Root, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOPLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Malaise, Heartburn, Digestion for Food, or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Harried or Difficult Breathing, Fluctuating at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dits or Wobs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginations of Evil, and great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy, as it is of great importance that which he is assured from his own investigations and inquiries possess true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well known remedies:

HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND HOOPLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. PREPARED BY DR. C. W. JACKSON, 120 N. 2nd St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will cure, or relieve, all the following diseases: Indigestion, Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhea, Dropsy of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY. Resulting from any cause, whether a prostration of the system, induced by excessive labor, hard ship, Exposure, Fevers, &c.

It is no medicine, but equal to the most powerful of such cases. A tone and vigor imparted to the whole system, the appetite strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow bile is eliminated, the liver's activity is restored, and the weak and nervous individual becomes a strong and healthy man.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE. And to long live, and to be weighing heavily upon them, with its attendant ills, will find in the use of HOOPLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, an elixir that will restore to them their vigor, and give them the energy and ardor of a young man.

HOOPLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, will give them the energy and ardor of a young man, and restore to them their vigor, and give them the energy and ardor of a young man.

NOTE. It is a well established fact, that the health of the female portion of our population, is as much dependent upon the purity of the blood, as that of the male.
