The Democratic Watchman.

[For the WATCHMAN.

Is There Any News To-night?

Is there any news to night? Yes! oh yes, my friend. There "is news" to night, that will weary the heart to hear That will make your cheek turn pale and your eyes pour fourth a beam of flame! Listen! while the fire leaps and crackles, and the shadows, like grim ghosts play, and dance, and shake upon the wall. Listen!

The Pillars of our government are crumbling away— and the old walls are cracking, and trembling—dont start so quick and reach for your hat— The splendid fabric which has withstood the tempest; the shock of battle; the convulsion eloquence, and the shaking applause of men for a century, has suddenly exhibited a ghastly, soul-sickening decay

The "Corner stone" which once we thought so solid, that ages, death-distelling, and corroding as they are, might beat and breathe upon it in vain is wasting rapidly away.

The architrave is festering with a dry rot'

The sleepers are splitting and sinking down' down' silently'

The floors tremble as we walk along the creaking halls'

The rafters bend low and threatening'

Rome endured the frosty ages Troy, Greece and Babylon, existed for centuries upon centuries; Time crept over their walls, and laid his decaying fingers upon their weather-beaten roofs, but left no trace of his visit Yet they are gone now, melancholy thought—and nothing but ruins dark, gussy, corrupt ruins.—where the lion broods her whelps, the jackall wanders, and the owl hoots mournfully—is left to tell the traveller where the magnificent cities and renowned governments stood!

What was the cause?

Blood' Blood' The vitality of man'

Stay' Don't go yet' What if the fire is flickering low? Many a poor, friendless man has none at all, and many more will draw, With heart ache, around Famine embers than these before the tragedy of nations fall is closed!

'Twas blood that caused Babylon to to moulder and her impregnable walls to sink into dust.

Blood caused the decay of Troy—blood was shed in her citadels, her Theatres, her courts, and the splendour of Illium passed away

'Twas so with Greece Alas! Sparta, Athens, Ionia' All fell

—"And fell, like Lucifer,
Ne'er to rise again."

Rome, with her busy millions, her glittering temples, her pagan gods, and her brave men, was blighted by the contagious poison—blood Her ancient grandeur was consumed and her glory swept away Conset, Trojan, Domitian, poured the blood upon her and now she is famous only for her ruined Amphitheatres, and her crumbling domes

Will it be so with our country?

Why ask the question? Will not the same cause produce the same effect now as then? Philosophy of nature teaches it' Experience of ages teaches it and the symptoms of our national corruption, and political feuds warn us of it truth The evidence of own countrys distruction is at once conclusive and startling And unless summarily restrained the shadows of blood will glout, and dance, and laugh over the grand, glorious government which once we delighted to call,

"The land of the free"

Land of the free! Once the renowned country of liberty Country of justice Country of patriotism, whose proud preeminence called up the admiration of the world Whose agriculture, mechanics, and art, defied the competition of the industry and genius of Christendom—Whose free institutions invited labor and capital from all places, lands and climes And whose progress in greatness, and beauty outrivalled all other nations on the face of the globe

What is her aspect now?

She stands forth among the nations of the earth, like a picture of fallen power, with the pomp of her nationality converted into a mantle for the fool, the maniac, and the politician And the senses of her masses strained and knotted, and distracted, for the purpose of pulling her lower and lower into infamy and woe

Is there any remedy?

Yes! In the people there is an infallible remedy. In the strained muscles, and strong arms of the brave democracy, in the thorough patriotism of the laboring and sweating masses lies the power to save their country The ballot is the instrument, the voter is the person to wield it;

And there is hope' Triumphant hope! The "Sons of Liberty" seems to have awakened once more to the vital necessity of rescuing the country from the hands of sycophants, and monarchists.

Connecticut, Michigan, Kansas, Ohio, all speak of returning reason, all rebuke treason, all tell of a determination to restore liberty and save the government of our fathers.

There is news to-night'

News of evil. News of good' News of ruin. News of rescue News of despair. News of hope.

News from Washington of a nation's suffering and decay News from the people of vindictive wrath, of stern patriotism, and of glorious triumphs of right.

Love of country, like magic seems to sweep over the land, and steal into the hearts of men, and they spring up in their power, exclaiming unto the arbitrary men who have poured on the blood.

"This is the Land of liberty."

Ye people! Youth and sage, join, one and all, and save our common country!

"When man would do a deed of worth"
He points to stricken liberty, and

"Turns to tread,
So sanctioned on the tyrant's head:
He looks to her and blushes on
Where life is lost, or freedom won."

Hoofland's Bitters.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the

LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heart, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

Any sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigation and inquiries possess true merit, is skilfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of those diseases. In this connection we would submit those well known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines

DEBILITY

Resulting from any Cause whatever prostration of the system, induced by Severe labor hardships. Exposure, Fevers, &c

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this Bitters or the Tonic, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE

It is a well-established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid devoid of all energy extremely nervous, and have no appetite

To this class of persons the Bitters, or the Tonic, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of marasmus, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed

TESTIMONALS.

HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa, writes:

Philadelphia, March 16, 1867

"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly.

GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia, April 28 1868.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect JAMES THOMPSON"

From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D. D. Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia
