THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

o woods on Presday last

A-new mongrel paper is talked of at Milesburg.

-A sewer and crossing are badly "needed across the lower end of Alleghapy street.

---- Owing to the Inteness of the season, less oats and barley were sown in this county the present spring than for years

----- The April Term of Court during this, the second week, has been attended by about a dozen of won beside the Ju rors Tyron to-night (Filday ) He had only "tolerable" houses during his stay in this place.

.... The mongrels in this place are no little exercised over the report that a Ku-Klux Klap has been organized, by the young men of this borough street bridge is not soon repaired the borough may have the satisfation of paying for a broken legeor neck part of the John Foster estate near Reberyburg and is creeting thereon new farm buildings.

--- A new bridge is badly needed on the public road running south from Robersburg, near the residence of Joseph Kreamer

---- The turnpike from Julian to Beaver mills is said to be almost impassible. yet fulr toll is collected. Some repairs should be made or tolls stopped.

----The Lutheran Church near the residence of Michael Grove, Esq , on the Boalsburg pike, will be dedicated, on Windoy-the 24th inst. .....

The wATCHMAN has a Inrger circulation, than all the other papers in the County put together, and almost double that of any other paper published in this section of the state.

---- The contract for carrying the U.S. Mail from Lewistown to Bellefonte, and from Centre Hall to Spruce Creek, was swarded to M. Bouy, of Lewistown.

-We recently passed over the B. E. V R R in the train heretofore under the control of Mr. Savage. We missed his pleasent face and genial manuers; but are informed that he will soon be on again

-Since the law compelling rail-road companies to fence their roads, or pay for cattle killed by their cars, was signed, we have not heard of a cow, horse, sheep or hog, getting scared even, by the cars along the route in this county

----We had the pleasure of meeting in our office during the past week Mr Ludwig Kurtz of the Berichter, Mr. Fred Kuriz of the Centre Hall Reporter, and our good humored, good looking friend Joe W. Furey of the Clinton Democrdt.

SECOND WEEK --- Ifon, S. Woods, of Lowistown, and Justices Allison and flosterman on the Bench An ejectment involving a darge amount of valuable timberland, in which Wm. Under-wood et al. and A = P Richards et al. are nominal plaintiffs, and defendants, which has been pending since 1858, came up for trial on Monday, and at the time of in the cause were discharged on Tuesday ast, and the Court has only been attend ed by those interested in the trial.

MR. EDITOR :- Whilst we were attending an exhibition given by the Boalsburg Academy, now under the care and su-pervision of Prof. G. W. Leisher, a httle of sufficient note to let come before the hold you in grateful remembrance-we mean eyes of a truth and justice loving public It was the: among the creditable performers was one, a young man once a soldier, true to the ensign under which he culteted, who unfortunately lost a limb in fighting for the defense of the princi-ples then avowed as the basis of the war, and whom God has not endowed with 'same mental capabilities as others, the but who is in every way worthy the re-spect of those for whom he fought and hled (for he hnen't an inch of land in the This young man appeared twice world) as a performer upon the stage, amid so much confusion and inattention as to prevent those who wuhed to hear from appreciating what he said. Now the thing worthy of note, and what we wish to reprove sharply, is the contempt and disrespect with which those once loyal ladies and gentlemen now regard this same young man whom they once lauded as all honor to his country and after whom they would shout loud and long huzzas' because he wore the "blues." Some of these very persons, whom we charge with open and wanton insult and it an awful disloyal act if some one else would do to them the same thing they were seen to do. Some of them even It is contemptible, mean, and detesy
