The Democratic Watchman.

In order to encourage youthful aspirants after literary fame, we shall devote this column, entirely to their benefit, and publish in it, such productions as have formerly been cast into the "waste basket." We have not time to make corrections, consequently will give them verbatim et literatim.

[For the WATCHMAN

ROSA NELL.

She was a funny little jade,
With bright and golden hair,
The bluest eyes that ere was made,
And her complexion fair.
Her mouth the color of a cherry
Where pearly drops peeped through,
She was graceful in the daisy,
And in the parlor too.

She was the darling of my heart,
For her I loved to live,
From her I vowed I ne'er would part,
If she her hand would give.
But my insisting was in vain;
She would not leave her mother.
And then she told me very plain,
That I must hunt another.

All other girls are flirting mails,
I ne'er would marry one of them;
For their delights are in their trials,
And looking at the men.
With their beautiful handkerchiefs,
They meaning words would say;
To show their rings from coral reefs,
They'd flirt the live long day.

With rosy cheeks and flashing eyes,
They think the men they'll charm;
But a lady will ne'er disguise,
Her character in one of harm;
No! such a girl was Rosy Nell;
Oh no my flirting friends;
Such trash will do for you quite well,
But she has sense that never ends.

But her mother has gone to rest;
Many years ago;
O love her grave is a Robins nest,
From whence sweet music flow,
To this dear spot Rose Nell retires,
Oft at the close of day,
And on her knees breathes her desires,
For tis there she loves to pray

The sun was setting in the west,
One cool evening in June;
Where I retired hitherto rest,
And gaze at the shining moon.
My thoughts flew backward to the time,
When I sought to gain her love,
That I might call her warm heart mine,
To her my thoughts would rove.

While I was thus engaged in thought,
The moon had risen high;
I admired what nature wrought,
And then I heaved a sigh;
The pale moon in sadness smiled;
To hear a strong man sigh;
Thus the moments were beguiled,
And two short ours flew by.

I heard a rustle among the leaves,
It was sweet Rosa Nell;
She still her mother's loss bereaves,
How much no one can tell;
With flowing and weeping eyes,
She knelt beside the grave;
With trembling heart I heard her cries,
"On! God my brother save."

In answer to her humble prayer,
Beside her knelt her brother,
In humbleness he knelt down there;
To think of his dead mother,
He had been a straying lamb,
A sisters prayers were heard,
He hurried toward the great "I Am,"
Resolved to love the Lord.

Hoofland's Bitters.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathising as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heart, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possess true merit, is skilfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines

DEBILITY

Resulting from any Cause whatever prostration of the system, induced by Severe labor, hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this Bitters or the Tonic, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrenken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE

It is a well-established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid devoid of all energy extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the Bitters, or the Tonic, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CAILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of marasmus, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.
