TERMS.—$2 per year when paid in advance, $2.50 when not paid in advance and $3.00 when not paid before the expiration of the year.

OUR AGENTS.—We have authorized the following gentlemen, to receive and receipt for subscription to the Democratic Watchman: ISAAC J. GREENBERG, Grogg twp., JOHN H. REIFENBERGER, Penn twp.

THINGS ABOUT TOWN & COUNTY.

Rough and Ragged—the Bellefonte Bus.—The new Jail will not be occupied before the first of July.—Not one fourth of the farmers in this section, have as yet planted a grain of corn.—The Agricultural College, has, we are informed, between thirty and forty students.—Phillipsburg has a larger population than any other town in the county, except Bellefonte.—The harpist, organ grinder and clothes line-hanger, were all in town during the first week.—Hon. Thomas J. McCullough and W. H. Biglow Esq., of Clearfield, paid us a pop visit yesterday.—Workmen are engaged making the foundation for the new school building on Allegheny street.—Three better hotels than this place affords cannot be found in any town of its size in the State.

The Rev. Mr. Lavery, of the Episcopal Church in this place, has accepted a call at Canton, Ohio, and will shortly leave for that place.—The Lutheran Church on the Bealsburg pike, near the residence of Michael Grove Esq., will be dedicated on Sunday next.—It is said by those who pretend to know that no damages has resulted to either apples or peaches in this section, by the late rains.—The contract for laying the water pipes along the lower end of Allegheny street, was awarded to Cyrus Strickland Esq.—Garman is adding quite an improvement to his already extensive hotel, by erecting a porch along the entire front of it.

The "Impeachers" about Bellefonte look about as proud and jubilant, over the result as a peacock with his tail feathers pulled out.—It is estimated that a half barrel of suckers and trout, are caught weekly, with hook and line, in Spring Creek, between this place and Milesburg, a distance of two miles.—We may at some not very distant day, publish a list of the old maids and bachelors, with which our town is blest, together with their ages and general characteristics.—The passenger trains on the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad were crowded with raffians, during the early part of the week, who were returning from "down the river."

Gov. Curtin's home, furnished but five representatives at the Mongrel Convention in Chicago. We thought Bellefonte would take more interest in "our Adly," than that comes to.—Piaz.—The kitchen end of the old Masonic building took fire and raised quite a rumpus, on Monday morning last. The boys who "run wid der merchandise," were on hand in good time, but the fire was so slight that it had been extinguished before they got an opportunity to show what they could do.—W. P. Furey, Esq., of the Clinton Democrat, one of the most fearless, talented and out-spoken editors in the State, paid our town a visit on Thursday. Will look well, gives a good account of the Democrat and the Democracy of "Little Clinton," and says they are making preparations down their to roll up a larger majority than ever against monogrelism, dual-nationism and bondocracy.

One of the nuisances which abound in this place to a considerable extent, and which should be abated at once, is the throwing of chamber slop out of up stair windows. It has been but a short time since we saw a gentleman from the upper end of the county completely drenched, while passing a residence on High street, and we just thought at the time, that if he would pitch a little stone through the window, perhaps it might remind the chamber maid that the pavement was not the gutter.—TAKE CARE OF THE CHILDREN.—No man can estimate the amount of good or evil that may be done by the manner in which little children are treated, the influences which are about them in feeble infancy, and which away so easily their plant minds, may reach not only to the grave, but through the endless age of eternity. It seems that God has given to all creatures either the reason and judgement which men possess or something to serve in place of it.—To the inferior animals, He has given that wonderful and indescribable faculty which we call "instinct," and something of this seems to make up to the little child the want of those faculties which they only attain with years. "All have observed the wonderful faculty with which little children pick out those who will treat them well and who love them, and that very often when a grown person would decide otherwise. Every one has noticed the power of children over animals, as exhibited in their frequent intimacy with savage dogs, which would not permit a grown person to touch them, and would allow any liberty from a child. This is often attributed to the instinct of the dog, but we have always thought it was owing to something higher and more mysterious in the nature of the little tormentor. And yet we do not know that tormentor is the proper word to employ, for we have seen dogs under such circumstances, wag their tails and make every canine exhibition of delight. Let any one watch a healthy, well developed child through the course of any day and they will see a thousand exhibitions of curious faculties it was not supposed to possess. It has always been to us one of the most entertaining things we could do to watch the motions of a child. It is generally thought that parents overrate their children, but we are of the opinion that they much more frequently undervalue them. How can a sensitive impressive little creature, with an immortal soul to be saved or lost by the influences surrounding childhood, be overrated? Too frequently all these things are neglected until the whole mind is poisoned by the wicked world, and no antidote can ever restore the health and purity which has been destroyed. Our streets, daily and nightly demonstrate the truth of our position. Men and women who walk proper human influences would be safely housed, are often seen about or streets drunk, and some of them find their way into the court of quarter sessions and the House of Refuge. But it is impossible to reach this evil by the punishment of those who have fallen victims to bad influences at home. Let the work begin while the child is in the cradle, and with proper impressions upon the grasping, busy, impressive, mind of the baby, there will be no propensity to roam the streets and study vice in their youth. If parents would learn to understand their children, the children would better understand their parents.—The editor of the Central Press says that he don't like the owner of the Photograph car, and offers that as a reason for his ungentlemanly and unprofessional attack upon him. It is very likely that he don't. We have measured swords with this modern son of the dear people to his discomfiture on more than one occasion. It is quite natural for him to dislike us. The only truthful statement we have known him to make in many years is made in this announcement. He looks upon us probably as a thief would look upon the law, a culprit on the gallows, or a liar on the truth, as necessary to restrain him in dishonesty and crime. "Distance lends enchantment," says he! Hence the old adage, "Birds of a feather flock together," and in flocking together over the dregs of an old whisky bottle it is not a little surprising that some of its effects would be experienced on the birdlings. More especially was this so from the fact that in consequence of a very disgusting configuration which took place on Bishop street not long ago, no one was called upon to pay for the appropriated spirit. His likes are always more consistent with "bond fires" and midnight jollifications than with honorable associations or adherence to the truth. We now invite every man and woman in the county to examine the alleged damages done by the Photograph car to the wall near the Court House, and report whether consistent George is not a fit subject, either for an inebriate Asylum or a straight-jacket.

Business Notices.—500,000 feet of white Pine flooring, dry for sale at the Leisburg Planning Mill.—MAGNOLIA WATER.—A delightful toilet article—superior to Cologne and at half the price.—Beware of Counterfeits.—Every article of merit is sure, sooner or later, to have host of imitations. This is already the case with that well-known article, "Green's Liver Pills." Already are they being imitated. At two or three places in this county. The only safety for persons wishing to use these celebrated Pills is to examine well and see that the "fac simile" of signature of F. P. Green is around each box. None others are genuine. Sold in Bellefonte only at the Drug Store of F. P. Green.—It will do you good to stop at Hill-biah's and see all the nice things in the tin, copper, brass and sheeting line, which he has for sale. Cooking stoves, parlor stoves, heating stoves and every kind of stoves, Soap stones, griddles, oval hammered pans, maitin kettles, stew pans, brass kettles and other articles too numerous to mention. Tin plate, solder, and all kinds of tinnery stock for sale at wholesale rates. Being a practical tinner himself. Tinsmen buying stock of him, can depend on their getting a good article. Particular attention paid to job work of all kinds, such as roofing, spouting, repairing stoves, heaters, and all kinds of custom work.—IMPORTANT DECISION.—Chief Justice Woodward of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, has delivered the following opinion, which is important to our merchants, manufacturers, workmen, and, in fact, the people of the whole country. He says: "I find 'Hoffland's German Bitters' is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system." No better recommendation could be given to so valuable a tonic as this celebrated standard Bitters. "Hoffland's German Bitters" contains no Alcohol or material Hoffman's German Tonic is a mixture containing all the ingredients of Hoffland's Bitters, combined with pure Santa Cruz Rum orange, anise, &c., forming the best and most pleasant Tonic in the world. Principal office, 631 Arch St., Philad'a, Pa. Sold every where by Druggists and others.—MESSRS. DOBBS, HOBBS, SMOOKS SCRIBNERS.—And all other respectable heads of families, are hereby informed that no household is complete without a "Barley Sheaf" Cooking stove, as manufactured by the old and reliable firm of Sturt, Paterson & Co., Philadelphia. This great stove is so arranged as to burn either coal or wood, and for convenience, economy and general beauty, it stands unrivalled. The trade of our County should inspect the claims of this great American Domesticator, and bring it to the early attention of their patrons. But beware of imitation! For sale by W. W. Wetzel, Milesburg.—"OH! THAT WILL BE JOYFUL!" When men and women throw "Physic to the dogs," and when a trifle out of order, or to prevent getting out of order, take Plantation Bitters! Are you Dyspeptic, Nervous, Jaundiced, Hipped, Low Spirited, Weak, or are you sick and don't know what ails you? We have been, and was recommended to try the Plantation Bitters, which we did with great satisfaction and entire success. Delicate Females, Clergymen, Merchants, Lawyers and persons of Sedentary Habits, are particularly benefited by these Bitters. The sale is perfectly enormous. 20 21.—BEAUTIFUL AND OF UNIFORM EXCELLENCE.—A well-known, safe, and speedy agent for restoring gray hair to its original color, for preventing the loss of the hair, for promoting its healthy growth and increasing its beauty, a gradual but certain cure for baldness, and an essential toilet requisite for all who prize that choicest gift of nature, a bountiful supply of hair: the above is said by all who use Mrs. A. Allen's Improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle). Every Druggist sells it. -Price One Dollar. 19 4t.—Those irreverent lads who called names after a certain "hald head" of old, deserved their untimely end, because at that time no panacea had been discovered to restore the human hair upon the bald spots. But now Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia is known to possess the rare merit of invigorating the roots and filling them so full of life, where not entirely dead that they cannot help putting forth a new growth which rivals in beauty the locks of youth. 18-4t.—DIED.—BUCHANAN.—At the Auchenorlie farm, on the 18th inst., Mrs. Mary Buchanan, wife of George Buchanan, in the 58th year of her age.—THOMAS.—On the 4th inst., John W.
