The Democratic Watchman.

In order to encourage youthful aspirants after literary fame, we shall devote this column, entirely to their benefit, and publish in it, such productions as have formerly been cast into the "waste basket." We have not time to make corrections, consequently will give them verbatim et literatim.

[For the WATCHMAN.

WHAT I MEAN TO BE.

Friends, citizens, and countrymen,
I'm bound for literature,
I mean to write for magazines,
And honor high secure.

I mean to be an orator,
Of high renown and fame;
To rank with such as Webster,
Chalmers, and Fisher Ames.

I mean to be a poet too,
With glory and renown,
Famed to all posterity,
So nobly handed down.

For zeal doth burn within my breast,
My thoughts with flaming hope,
To shine with such as Shakespeare,
Lord, Byron, Burns, and Pope.

Now if my mark seem aimed too high,
How could you would you dare,
To say that there are none but I,
"Build castles in the air"

For other lads high fame have won,
While other lads have not,
Then satisfied I'll try to be,
As fortune makes my lot,

For something higher than your crown
And gems that Kings adorn,
For something more immortal than
All these to me seem born.

Though fame on lofty pinions soar,
And o'er all nations flew,
Yet rugged is its hill to climb,
And deep the gulf below.

YOUTHFUL, ASPIRANT.

VALUABLE LEGAL ADVICE.—A farmer having lost a quarter of mutton by a a lawyer's dog, repaired to the office of the lawyer, and said

"I have come to ask a piece of advice Suppose a dog carried off a leg of mutton for me, where do I look for the pay, to the dog or his master?"

"Oh," said the man of the quill, "to the owner of the dog; he is responsible for any damage the dog does you."

"You owe me seventy-five cents," said the man.

"Ah!" said the lawyer, "then my dog did the mischief." Well, there is the money."

The face of the man expanded with a smile at his shrewdness, and he was leaving the office, when he was brought to a halt by the lawyer saying

"I have a small bill against you my friend."

"Ah! for what?" said the man.

"For advice in the dog case—five dollars."

The money was paid over, and he departed a wiser if not a better man, fully resolved never again to consult a lawyer in any case.

——A Yankee having told an Englishman that he shot on one particular occasion, 999 snipe, his interlocutor asked him why he didn't make it a thousand at once. "No," said he, "its not likely I'm going to tell a lie for one snipe." Whereupon the Englishman, determined not to be outdone, began to tell a story of a man having swam from Liverpool to Boston. "Did you see him yourself?" asked the Yankee, suddenly, "did you see him yourself?" "Why yes of course I did, I was coming across, and our vessel passed him a mile out of Boston harbor." "Well, I'm glad ye saw it, stranger, 'cos yer a witness that I did it That was me."

"Breeches of faith!" screamed Mrs Partington, as she heard that term applied to Mexican violations of the armistice "Well, I wonder what they will have next. I have heard tell of cloaks of hypocrisy, and robes of purity, but I never heard of the breeches of faith before I hope they are made of something that won't change and wear out as old Deacon Gudgin's faith did, for he was always changing. He went from believing that nobody would be saved to believing that everybody would be, and at last turned out to be a phrenologet and didn't believe an nothing! Wonder if it's as strong as cassimere?" and she bit off her thread and prepared a new needle full.

——A teacher had been explaining to his class the points of the compass. All were drawn up in front towards the north.

"Now what is before you John?"

"The north, sir."

"What is behind you, Tom?"

"My coat tail, sir," said he, trying at the same time to get a glimpse at it.

——A lady asked a minister whether a person might be fond of dress and ornament without being proud. Madam," said the preacher, "when you see a fox's tail peeping out of the hole, you may be sure the fox is within."

——A man advertises for a "competent person to undertake the sale of a new medicine," and adds that "it will be profitable to the undertaker."

Hoofland's Bitters.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the

LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathising as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heart, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possess true merit, is skilfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON,

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY

Resulting from any Cause whatever, prostration of the system, induced by Severe labor, hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this Bitters or the Tonic, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrenken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE

It is a well-established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid devoid of all energy extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the Bitters, or the Tonic, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of marasmus, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONALS.

HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:

Philadelphia, March 16, 1867

"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly.

GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia, April 28 1868.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D. D. Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia
